Amaroq Minerals Announces Launch of Single Mine Origin Gold Sales from Nalunaq mine, Greenland

Nalunaq gold now traceable from mine to market, available exclusively to Greenlandic residents

TORONTO, ONTARIO – 17 October 2025 – Amaroq Ltd. (AIM, TSX-V, NASDAQ Iceland: AMRQ, OTCQX: AMRQF), an independent mine development corporation focused on unlocking Greenland’s mineral potential, is pleased to announce the launch of Single Mine Origin (“SMO”) gold sales from its Nalunaq mine in Greenland, following Amaroq’s successful integration into the SMO platform.

All SMO gold is fully traceable from mine site to end customer and produced in accordance with the strictest internationally recognised responsibility standards, underpinned by comprehensive and independently audited ESG data.

Highlights

- Full traceability: All Nalunaq gold shipped to the UK is SMO-accredited, providing customers with complete transparency and assurance that their gold is responsibly sourced and mercury-free, with robust environmental and social standards at the core of Amaroq’s operations.
- Community-first approach: SMO gold from Nalunaq is now available exclusively to Greenlandic residents, reflecting Amaroq’s commitment to community benefit and ensuring local access to responsibly sourced gold.
- Leadership in ethical mining: By joining the SMO platform, Amaroq reinforces its position at the forefront of responsible mining practices internationally.

Greenlandic residents wishing to purchase SMO gold produced at Nalunaq can now do so via the SMO platform: <https://singlemineorigin.com/pages/nalunaq-mine>

Joan Plant, COO of Amaroq, commented:

“We are incredibly proud to offer Single Mine Origin gold from Nalunaq directly to the people of Greenland. This initiative reflects our deep commitment to transparency, ethical mining and collaboration with local communities. Through the SMO platform, we are setting a new standard for sustainability and community partnership in the region.”

Charlie Betts, Managing Director of the Betts Group and Single Mine Origin, said:

“We are delighted to formally launch Amaroq’s Nalunaq mine under the Single Mine Origin standard, which enables us to offer fully traceable gold from the mine to the people of Greenland. Amaroq has demonstrated a clear commitment to responsible mining practices, with a particular focus on environmental stewardship and sustainable development. This collaboration allows the local community to participate in the mine’s ongoing success and in Amaroq’s contribution to the region’s economy.”
