The information contained in this Management Information Circular is given as at December 28, 2020, unless otherwise stated.

In view of the COVID-19 outbreak, and in order to mitigate risks to the health and safety of shareholders, management, and the community at large, the Corporation, in accordance with current public health guidelines, discourages Shareholders from physically attending the Meeting and asks that all Shareholders vote by proxy or voting instruction form prior to the Meeting. The number of people permitted to attend the Meeting will be subject to and limited by applicable health and safety requirements in effect at the time of the Meeting. Access to the Meeting will be limited to essential personnel and registered shareholders and proxyholders entitled to attend and vote at the Meeting.

The solicitation of proxies is made on behalf of the management of the Corporation. The costs incurred in the preparation and mailing of the form of proxy, Notice of Meeting and this Management Information Circular will be borne by the Corporation. In addition to the use of mails, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone by directors, officers and employees of the Corporation, who will not be remunerated therefor. The cost of the solicitation will be borne by the Corporation.

APPOINTMENT AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

A Shareholder has the right to appoint a person or company (who need not be a shareholder) to represent him at the Meeting other than the persons designated in the enclosed proxy form and may do so either by inserting the name of his chosen nominee in the space provided for that purpose on the form and striking out the other names on the form, or by completing another proper form of proxy. In any case, the form of proxy should be dated and executed by the shareholder or his attorney authorized in writing, or if the shareholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal or by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized.

To be effective, the proxy must be mailed so as to reach or be deposited with Computershare Trust Company of Canada (i) by mail using the enclosed return envelope; or (ii) by hand delivery to Computershare, Proxy Department, 100 University Avenue, 8th Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1. You may vote by telephone at 1-866-732-VOTE (8683) (toll free within North America) or 1-312-588-4290 (outside North America), by facsimile to 1-866-249-7775 (within North America) or (416) 263-9524 (outside North America), or by Internet using the 15 digit control number located at the bottom of your proxy at www.investorvote.com. All instructions are listed in the enclosed form of proxy. Your proxy or voting instructions must be received in each case no later than 10:00 a.m. (Mountain Standard Time) on February 9, 2021, or, if the Meeting is adjourned, not later than 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and statutory holidays) before the beginning of any adjournment of the Meeting.

In addition to revocation in any other manner permitted by law, a shareholder who has given a proxy may revoke it, any time before it is exercised, by instrument in writing executed by the shareholder or by his attorney authorized in writing and deposited either at the registered office of the Corporation at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, at which the proxy is to be used, or with the chairman of such meeting on the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof.

VOTING OF PROXIES

All of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy, who are officers and directors of the Corporation, have indicated their willingness to represent as proxy the shareholder who appoints them. Each shareholder may instruct his proxy how to vote his shares by completing the blanks on the proxy form.

Unless otherwise instructed in the proxy form, the proxy will be voted in favour of the resolution fixing the number of directors to be elected at the Meeting, in respect of the election of directors and the appointment of auditors, and in favour of any other proposed resolution as set forth under “Particulars of Matters to Be Acted Upon.”

The enclosed form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the persons named therein with respect to amendments and variations to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting and with respect to any other matters which may properly come before the Meeting. Management of the Corporation knows of no such amendments, variations or other matters to come before the Meeting.

ADVICE TO BENEFICIAL SHAREHOLDERS

The Corporation is not using “notice-and-access” (as defined in National Instrument 54-101 Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer (“NI 54-101”)) to send their proxy-related materials to the shareholders of the Corporation.

Only registered shareholders or the persons they appoint as their proxies are permitted to vote at the Meeting; however, in many cases, Common Shares of the Corporation beneficially owned by a person are registered either: (i) in the name of an intermediary (an “Intermediary”) (which may include, among others, banks, trust companies, securities dealers or brokers and trustees or administrators of registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, registered education savings plans and similar plans); or (ii) in the name of a clearing agency, which in Canada, in the vast majority of cases, is CDS & Co. (the registration name for The Canadian Depository for Securities).

Shareholders who hold their Common Shares of the Corporation through an Intermediary are referred to herein as Beneficial Owners.

Under NI 54-101, Beneficial Owners are either:

- (i) “non-objecting beneficial owners” or “NOBOs”, who are Beneficial Owners who do not object to the disclosure by the Intermediary of ownership information about the Beneficial Owner; or
- (ii) “objecting beneficial owners” or “OBOs”, who are Beneficial Owners who object to the disclosure by the Intermediary of ownership information about the Beneficial Owner.

The Corporation is sending the Meeting materials (including the Notice of Meeting, this Management Information Circular and proxy-related materials) directly to NOBOs and has appointed Computershare Trust Company of Canada (the “Agent”) as its agent for this purpose.

Included in the Meeting materials is a voting instruction form (“VIF”) sent by the Agent which requests instructions from the Beneficial Owner regarding voting of Common Shares to be voted at the Meeting. In the case of NOBOs resident in foreign jurisdictions, an Intermediary VIF, referred to below, is sent on behalf of the Intermediary holding the Common Shares on behalf of the Beneficial Owner.

Beneficial Owners are requested to complete and return the VIF at the address set forth in the VIF. Alternatively, Beneficial Owners can vote on the Internet or by toll free telephone, by following the instructions in the VIF.

The following disclosure is made pursuant to NI 54-101: “These security holder materials are being sent to both registered and non-registered owners of the securities. If you are a non-registered owner, and the issuer or its agent has sent these materials directly to you, your name and address and information about your holdings of securities, have been obtained in accordance with applicable securities regulatory requirements from the intermediary holding on your behalf. By choosing to send these materials to you directly, the issuer (and not the intermediary holding on your behalf) has assumed responsibility for (i) delivering these materials to you, and (ii) executing your proper voting instructions. Please return your voting instructions as specified in the request for voting instructions.”

If the Beneficial Owner is an OBO or a NOBO resident in a foreign jurisdiction, included in the Meeting materials is a voting information form (“Intermediary VIF”) sent on behalf of the Intermediary holding the Common Shares on behalf of the Beneficial Owner. The Intermediary VIF requests instructions from the Beneficial Owner regarding voting of Common Shares to be voted at the Meeting. Beneficial Owners are requested to complete and return the Intermediary VIF at the address set forth in the Intermediary VIF. Alternatively, Beneficial Owners can vote on the Internet or by toll free telephone, by following the instructions in the Intermediary VIF.

The Corporation does not intend to pay for Intermediaries to forward to OBOs under NI 54-101 the proxy-related materials and the Intermediary VIF, and the OBO will not receive the materials unless the OBO’s Intermediary assumes the cost of delivery.

If the Beneficial Owner wishes to attend the Meeting and vote in person, or if the Beneficial Owner wishes to appoint another person to attend the Meeting and vote on behalf of the Beneficial Owner, the Beneficial Owner must insert the name of the Beneficial Owner or other person in the space provided in the VIF or the Intermediary VIF, as applicable, sign and date same, and mail same at the address set forth in the VIF or the Intermediary VIF. Alternatively, the Beneficial Owner or other person may be designated on the Internet by following the instructions in the VIF or the Intermediary VIF, as applicable. Unless prohibited by law, the person whose name is written in the space provided in the VIF or the Intermediary VIF will have full authority to present matters to the Meeting and, provided that the voting section of the VIF or Intermediary VIF is not filled in, vote on all matters that are presented at the Meeting, even if those matters are not set out in the VIF or the Intermediary VIF or this Management Information Circular. The Beneficial Owner should consult a legal advisor if the Beneficial Owner wishes to modify the authority of that person in any way.

All references to shareholders in this Management Information Circular and the accompanying form of proxy and Notice of Meeting are to shareholders of record unless specifically stated otherwise. Where documents are stated to be available for review or inspection, such items will be shown upon request to registered shareholders who produce proof of their identity.

The directors have fixed the close of business on December 28, 2020 as the record date for the Meeting. Only shareholders of record as at the close of business on December 28, 2020 are entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at the Meeting except that a transferee of shares acquired after that date shall be entitled to vote at the Meeting if such transferee produces properly endorsed certificates for such shares or otherwise establishes ownership of such shares and has demanded not later than 10 days before the Meeting that the name of such transferee be included in the list of shareholders entitled to vote at the Meeting.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following disclosure of compensation paid, payable, awarded, granted, given, or otherwise provided, directly or indirectly, by the Corporation, or a subsidiary of the Corporation, to each Named Executive Officer and director is made in accordance with the requirements of National Instrument 51-102. Disclosure is required to be made in relation to each Named Executive Officer, being individuals who served as the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and each of the three most highly compensated executive officers of the Corporation who at the end of the most recently completed financial year whose salary and bonus exceeded $150,000. The Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation are the Corporation's only Named Executive Officers.

The board of directors of the Corporation (the "Board") is responsible for approving compensation, including long-term incentives in the form of stock options, to be granted to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer and the directors.

The compensation program of the Corporation is designed to attract, motivate, reward and retain knowledgeable and skilled executives required to achieve the Corporation's corporate objectives and increase shareholder value. The main objective of the compensation program is to recognize the contribution of the executive officers to the overall success and strategic growth of the Corporation. The compensation program is designed to reward management performance by aligning a component of the compensation with the Corporation's business performance and share value. The philosophy of the Corporation is to pay the management a total compensation amount that is competitive with other Canadian junior companies and is consistent with the experience and responsibility level of the management. The purpose of executive compensation is to reward the executives for their contributions to the achievements of the Corporation on both an annual and long-term basis.

Executive compensation is not based on specific performance goals or benchmarks; but is determined on a subjective basis by the board of directors.

The compensation program provides incentives to its management and directors to achieve long term objectives through grants of stock options under the Corporation's stock option plan. Increasing the value of the Corporation's Common Shares increases the value of the stock options. This incentive closely links the interests of the Named Executive Officers and directors to shareholders of the Corporation.

The Corporation does takes into account the options granted in prior years when considering new grants of options. The allocation of the number of options granted among the directors and officers of the Corporation is determined by the entire board of directors.

The board of directors does not specifically consider the implications of the “risks” associated with the Corporation’s compensation policies and practices because the types of compensation are relatively simple and do not generally create “risks” in and of themselves.

The Corporation does not prohibit any Named Executive Officer or director from purchasing financial instruments including, for greater certainty, prepaid variable forward contracts, equity swaps, collars, or units of exchange funds, that are designed to hedge or offset a decrease in market value of equity securities granted as compensation or held, directly or indirectly, by the Named Executive Officer or director.

The following table sets forth the compensation paid, payable, awarded, granted, given, or otherwise provided, directly or indirectly, by the Corporation, or a subsidiary of the Corporation, to each Named Executive Officer for the financial years ended September 30, 2020, 2019, and 2018.

- (2) Kevin V. Nephin’s salary was paid to Borradh Financial Ltd., which was wholly owned by Mr. Nephin.
- (3) The fair value of each granted option was determined using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. For the purpose of the calculation, the following assumptions were used: $0.05 exercise and share price, five years expiration, 80% volatility and 0.32% interest per annum. The Corporation chose this methodology because it is recognized as the most common methodology used for valuing options.

Narrative Description of Option-based and Share-based plans

The Corporation maintains a stock option plan (the “Stock Option Plan”).

The Stock Option Plan provides that the Board may allocate non-transferable options to purchase Common Shares of the Corporation to Employees, Directors and Consultants, as defined in the policies of the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange Policies”) of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. Under the Stock Option Plan, the aggregate number of Common Shares to be delivered upon the exercise of all options granted under the Stock Option Plan shall not exceed 10% of the issued Common Shares of the Corporation at the time of granting the options; unless the Corporation has obtained disinterested shareholder approval as provided for in the Exchange Policies, no individual shall, during any 12 month period, be granted an option which exceeds 5% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares of the Corporation at the time of granting of the option; no Consultant to the Corporation shall, during any 12 month period, be granted an option which exceeds 2% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares of the Corporation at the time of granting of the option; no Employee conducting investor relations activities for the Corporation shall, during any 12 month period, be granted an option which exceeds 2% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares of the Corporation at the time of granting of the option; and the exercise price can only be at such price permitted by the Exchange Policies. Options under the Stock Option Plan are non-assignable (except in the event of death) and may be exercisable for a term of up to ten years. If the expiry date of the option falls within a blackout period, or within nine business days following the expiration of a blackout period, the expiry date of the option is automatically extended to the tenth business day after the end of the blackout period. If an optionee ceases to be an Employee, Director or Consultant of the Corporation or its subsidiaries for any reason (other than for cause or other than for death), the option shall terminate within a reasonable period not to exceed 12 months (as fixed in the agreement evidencing the option) next succeeding the optionee ceasing to be in at least one of the foregoing categories. The option shall terminate immediately if the optionee's position is terminated for cause or if the optionee is removed as a director. The option shall terminate within one year after the death of the optionee. INTEREST OF CERTAIN PERSONS OR COMPANIES IN MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

Management of the Corporation is not aware of any material interest, direct or indirect, by way of beneficial ownership of securities or otherwise, of any person who has been a director or executive officer since the beginning of the Corporation's last financial year, of any proposed nominee for election as a director, or of any associate or affiliate of such director, executive officer or proposed nominee in any matter to be acted upon, other than the approval of the stock option plan (see "Particulars of Matters to Be Acted Upon – Stock Option Plan").

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

National Policy 58-201 – Corporate Governance Guidelines and National Instrument 58-101 – Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices, sets out a series of guidelines for effective corporate governance. The Corporation has reviewed its own corporate governance practices in light of these guidelines. In certain cases, the Corporation's practices comply with the guidelines; however, the Board considers that some of the guidelines are not suitable for the Corporation at its current stage of development and therefore these guidelines have not been adopted. National Instrument 58-101 mandates disclosure of corporate governance practices which disclosure is set out below.

Board of Directors

The Board consists of three directors, two of whom are independent based upon the tests for independence set forth in National Instrument 52-110. Scott C. Kellaway and Patrick Lynch are independent. Robert H. Solinger is not independent as he is the President, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation.

The independent directors have full access to management. The independent directors are able to meet at any time without any members of management including the non-independent directors being present. The independent members of the Audit Committee are able to meet with the Corporation's auditors without management or the non-independent member of the Audit Committee being in attendance.

The following directors of the Corporation are directors of other reporting issuers or the equivalent:

Director	Other Reporting Issuer
Scott C. Kellaway	Thunder River Enterprises Inc.

Orientation and Continuing Education

The Board has not developed an official orientation or training program for new Board members. As required, new directors have the opportunity to become familiar with the Corporation by meeting with the other directors and with officers and employees. Orientation activities are tailored to the particular needs and experience of each director and the overall needs of the Board. Board members are encouraged to communicate with management and auditors and technical consultants if required. They are expected to keep themselves current with industry trends and developments and changes in legislation with management's assistance. Board members have full access to the Corporation's records.

Ethical Business Conduct

The Board has found that the fiduciary duties placed on individual directors pursuant to corporate legislation and the common law, and the conflict of interest provisions under corporate legislation which restricts an individual director's participation in decisions of the board in which the director has an interest have been sufficient to ensure that the Board operates independently of management and in the best interests of the Corporation. The Board has also adopted a whistleblower protection policy with respect to the confidential and anonymous reporting of complaints and irregularities.

Nomination of Directors

The Board has not appointed a nominating committee because the Board fulfills these functions. The Board assesses potential Board candidates to fill perceived needs on the Board for required skills, expertise, independence and other factors.

Compensation of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer

The Board determines compensation reflecting the need to provide incentive and compensation for the time and effort expended by the directors and officers while taking into account the financial and other resources of the Corporation.

Board Committees

The Corporation does not have any committees in addition to the Audit Committee.

Assessments

Based upon the Corporation's size, its current state of development and the number of individuals on the Board, the Board considers a formal process for assessing regularly the effectiveness and contribution of the Board, as a whole, its committees or individual directors to be unnecessary at this time. The Board plans to continue evaluating its own effectiveness on an ad hoc basis.
