Cariboo Rose Resources Ltd.

Notes to the Condensed Interim Financial Statements

For the Three and Six Months Ended August 31, 2025 and 2024

(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

1. NATURE AND CONTINUANCE OF OPERATIONS

Cariboo Rose Resources Ltd. (the “Company”) is incorporated in the Province of British Columbia. Its principal business activities are the acquisition and exploration of gold, copper and other precious and base metal properties in Canada. The Company is in the process of actively exploring its mineral properties and has not yet determined whether these properties contain ore reserves that are economically recoverable. The Company is considered to be in the exploration stage and does not have operating cash flows. The Company operates in one reportable segment and all long-term assets are located in Canada.

The Company’s shares are listed for trading on the TSX-Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”) under the symbol CRB. Its registered office is located 110-325 Howe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6C 1Z7.

These financial statements have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles applicable to a going concern which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations. The ability of the Company to fund its potential future operations and commitments is dependent upon the ability of the Company to obtain additional financing. There is a risk that additional financing will not be available on a timely basis or on terms acceptable to the Company. These conditions indicate the existence of material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not reflect the adjustments or reclassifications that would be necessary if the Company were unable to continue operations. Such adjustments and reclassifications could be material.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of Compliance

These condensed interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34 - Interim Financial Reporting of International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“ISAB”). The condensed interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company’s annual financial statements for the year ended February 28, 2025, which have been prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards. These financial statements were approved for issue by the Company’s board of directors on October 29, 2025.

Accounting estimates and judgments

The preparation of these financial statements required management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and other disclosures in these financial statements. The estimates and assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates, judgments and assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both the current and future periods.

Critical accounting estimates are estimates, judgments and assumptions made by management that may result in material adjustments to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year. Critical estimates used in the preparation of these financial statements include, among others, the recoverability of accounts receivable, determination of realizable amounts of deferred tax assets and liabilities, impairment of the carrying value of non-financial assets, estimation of provisions, and share-based compensation.

Critical accounting judgments are accounting policies that have been identified as being complex or involving subjective judgments or assessments. Critical accounting judgments include the expected economic lives of and the estimated future operating results and net cash flows from equipment, going concern, and the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities.

3. INVESTMENTS

The Company has the following investment in equity instruments measured at FVOCI:

	August 31, 2025			February 28, 2025
	Number of Shares	Cost	Fair Value	Number of Shares	Cost	Fair Value
Vizsla Copper Corp.	173,834	$ 84,478	$ 19,122	173,834	$ 84,478	$ 12,168
BRS Resources	211,111	52,200	45,389	211,000	52,200	47,700
CMP Mining	100,000	6,000	4,000	100,000	6,000	4,000
		$ 142,678	$ 68,511		$ 142,678	$ 63,868

The Company has irrevocably designated this investment in equity instruments as measured at FVOCI rather than FVTPL as it is not held for trading and the FVOCI classification is considered more appropriate for these strategic investments. The fair value of this equity investment is based on quoted market prices at the reporting dates which is a Level 1 fair value measurement.

8. MANAGEMENT OF CAPITAL

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to pursue the exploration and development of its mineral property interests, and to maintain a flexible capital structure which optimizes the costs of capital at an acceptable risk. The Company considers its capital for this purpose to be its shareholders' equity.

The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may issue new shares or debt, acquire or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash and investments.

In order to facilitate the management of its capital requirements, the Company prepares annual expenditure budgets that are updated as necessary depending on various factors, including successful capital deployment and general industry conditions. The annual and updated budgets are approved by the Board of Directors.

In order to maximize ongoing development efforts, the Company does not pay out dividends.

The Company's investment policy is to invest its surplus cash in highly liquid short-term interest-bearing investments with maturities 90 days or less from the original date of acquisition, selected with regards to the expected timing of expenditures from continuing operations.

The Company currently has sufficient capital resources to meet its administrative overhead expenses through its current operating period and it is confident it can raise additional funds to undertake all of its planned business activities. Actual funding requirements may vary from those planned due to a number of factors. Management believes it will be able to raise capital as required in the long term, but recognizes that there will be risks involved that may be beyond their control.

9. RISK MANAGEMENT AND FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company's financial instruments are exposed to certain risks, which include credit, liquidity, and market risk. The risks related to financial instruments are managed by the senior management of the Company under policies and directions approved by the Board of Directors.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities and payable to related parties are due within the current operating period. The Company's lease obligations are due as set out in Note 5. The Company manages liquidity risk through the management of its capital structure (Note 8) and financial leverage.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of an unexpected loss if a customer or third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's cash is held at large Canadian financial institutions. The Company's receivables consist mostly of Goods and Services Tax due from the federal government of Canada and mineral exploration project deposits and tax credit receivable from the Government of British Columbia. As such, the Company considers this risk to be minimal and has not recognized an expected credit loss allowance in these financial instruments. As at August 31, 2025 and 2024 none of the Company's financial instruments subject to credit risk were past due or impaired.

The Company has determined that the expected credit losses on its accounts receivable and project deposits are not significant and accordingly has not recognized an allowance for expected credit losses as at August 31, 2025 and 2024.

9. RISK MANAGEMENT AND FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. The Company's market risk is comprised of two types of risk: interest rate risk, and equity price risk.

(i) Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk when holding fixed rate short term deposits of varying maturities. The risk that the Company will realize a loss as a result of a decline in the fair value of the cash equivalents investments is limited because these investments are generally highly liquid securities with short-term maturities. As at August 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company considers its exposure to interest rate risk to be minimal.

(ii) Equity Price Risk

Equity risk is the uncertainty associated with the valuation of assets arising from changes in equity markets. The Company is exposed to this risk through its investment in equity instruments. All of the Company's listed equity investments (Note 3) are common shares of companies listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange and the Toronto Stock Exchange's Venture Exchange and are monitored by management with decisions on sale taken at the board level.

10. SEGMENTED DISCLOSURES

The Company operates in one industry segment, the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties, within Canada. Mineral properties and other capital assets are located in Canada.
