NOTE TO READER

ast to the certificate required for non-venture issuers under National Instrument 52-109 Certification of Issuers in Issuers’ Annual and Interim Filings (NI 52-109), this Venture Issuer Basic Certificate does not contain any representations relating to the establishment and maintenance of disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting (ICFR), as defined in NI 52-109. In particular, the certifying officers filing this certificate are not making any representations relating to the establishment and maintenance of controls and other procedures designed to provide reasonable assurance that information disclosed by the issuer in its annual filings, interim filings or other reports filed or submitted in accordance with this legislation is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in this legislation; and the certifying officers are responsible for providing reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with the issuer’s GAAP.

The certifying officers are responsible for ensuring that processes are in place to provide them with the knowledge to support the representations they are making in this certificate. Investors should be aware of the inherent limitations on the ability of certifying officers of a venture issuer to design and implement on a cost-benefit basis DC&P and ICFR as defined in NI 52-109 may result in additional risks to the quality, reliability, accuracy and timeliness of interim and annual filings and other reports provided under securities legislation.
