

BlockchainK2 Announces Resignation of Lema

Vancouver, British Columbia, December 15, 2022 - BlockchainK2 Corp. (“BlockchainK2” or the “Company”) (TSX.V: BITK) (OTCQB: BIDCF) (FSE: KRL2) announces that John Lema has resigned from the board of directors effective December 12, 2022.

About BlockchainK2 Corp.

BlockchainK2 Corp. is a holding company investing in blockchain technology solutions for capital markets and other sectors that can be made more efficient through tokenization. The Company is currently invested in RealBlocks, a technology platform for private equity, private credit and real estate that provides tokenized secondary trading of LP interests. The Company also has executed a joint venture agreement with Standard Power, an industrial scale crypto currency mining facility with very low power costs in the United States. For information on BlockchainK2 Corp., please visit www.blockchaink2.com.

For further information, please contact:

Sergei Stetsenko, CEO

604-630-8746