1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS & GOING CONCERN

AGEDB Technology Ltd. (formerly Adagio Capital Inc.) (the “Company”) was incorporated on March 25, 2021 under the laws of the Province of British Columbia. On December 21, 2022, the Company completed its Initial Public Offering (“IPO”) and its common shares were listed on the TSX-Venture Exchange (“TSX-V”) as a Capital Pool Company (“CPC”) as defined in Policy 2.4 of the TSX-V Corporate Finance Manual.

On March 13, 2024, the Company closed its qualifying transaction (“QT”) with Advanced Graph Enterprise Database Inc. (“Former Advanced Graph”) by way of a reverse takeover in accordance with the policies of the TSX-V. For accounting purposes, it has been determined that the Company was the accounting acquiree and Former Advanced Graph was the accounting acquirer since the shareholders of Former Advanced Graph took control over AGEDB Technology Ltd. after the QT, based on the guidance of IFRS 3, Business Combinations, to identify the accounting acquirer. These consolidated financial statements are prepared as a continuation of the financial statements of Former Advanced Graph, except with regard to authorized and issued share capital, which is that of AGEDB Technology Ltd. (Note 4).

On March 13, 2024, the Company changed its name from Adagio Capital Inc. to AGEDB Technology Ltd.

The Company’s registered office and principal place of business is Suite 700 – 838 W Hastings Street, Vancouver, BC V6C 0A6. The Company is currently focused on the development of software and solutions for graph database management systems.

The Company’s condensed consolidated interim financial statements as of July 31, 2024, and for the period then ended have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. The Company had a net income of $238,567 for the three months ended July 31, 2024 (2023 – loss of $938,302), an accumulated deficit of $7,314,166 as of July 31, 2024 (April 30, 2024 - $7,552,733) and had a working capital of $1,827,217 as of July 31, 2024 (April 30, 2024 - $1,413,433).

The continued sustainability of the Company as a going concern is tied to the successful development of its technologies to a commercial standard. The Company actively seeks out additional financing sources to ensure the continuity of its operations and research programs. Furthermore, the Company is strategically planning to raise capital and issue shares to investors, enabling them to be traded on a stock exchange. This approach aims to enhance the long-term financial stability of the Company, attract investor participation, and foster increased market liquidity.

The attainment of these objectives is subject to uncertainties, and there can be no guarantee of the Company's success in achieving them. These circumstances comprise a material uncertainty which may cast significant doubt as to the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue in existence.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Statement of Compliance

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements are prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) applicable to the preparation of interim financial statements, including IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting. The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these condensed consolidated interim financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all periods presented, unless otherwise stated.

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been authorized by the Company’s Board of Directors on October 1, 2024.

Basis of Measurement

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared based on the historical cost basis, with the exception of financial instruments measured at fair value. Moreover, these statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, with the exception of cash flow information. Items included in the condensed consolidated interim financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which it operates (the “functional currency”). The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiary is the Canadian dollar. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars.

Principles of Consolidation

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Advanced Graph Enterprise Database Inc. (“AmalCo”) (Note 4).

Name of subsidiary	Place of incorporation	Ownership interest
Advanced Graph Enterprise Database Inc.	BC Canada	100%

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

In assessing control, potential voting rights that are currently exercisable are taken into account. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the condensed consolidated interim financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases.

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealized gains or losses with the subsidiaries are eliminated. The financial statements of the subsidiary is prepared using consistent accounting policies with that of the Company.

Critical accounting estimates and judgments

The preparation of these condensed consolidated interim financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that can have a significant effect on the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period.

Estimates and judgments are significant when:

- the outcome is highly uncertain at the time the estimates are made; or
- different estimates or judgments could reasonably have been used that would have had a material impact on the financial statements.

The financial statements include estimates based on currently available information and management’s judgment as to the outcome of future conditions and circumstances. Management uses historical experience, general economic conditions and trends, and assumptions regarding probable future outcomes as the basis for determining estimates.

Estimates and their underlying assumptions are reviewed on a regular basis and the effects of any changes are recognized immediately. Changes in the status of certain facts or circumstances could result in material changes to the estimates used in the preparation of the financial statements and actual results could differ from the estimates and assumptions.

Set forth below are descriptions of items that management believes require its most critical estimates and judgments.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

Recoverability of receivables

The Company evaluates specific accounts where it has information that a customer may be unable to meet its financial obligations. In these cases, judgment is used based on the best available information to determine actual amounts that will be collected. The Company continually reviews and adjusts such amounts as better information becomes available.

Estimated useful lives of property and equipment

Depreciation of property and equipment is dependent upon estimates of useful lives and residual values which are determined through knowledge of the business and judgment. Residual values, useful, depreciation methods are reviewed annually for relevancy and changes are accounted for prospectively. The assessment of any impairment of these assets is dependent upon estimates of recoverable amounts that consider factors such as economic conditions, market conditions and the useful lives of the assets.

Judgements

Going concern

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The assessment of the Company's ability to source future operations and continue as a going concern involves judgement. Estimates and assumptions are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. If the going concern assumption is not appropriate for the financial statements, then adjustments would be necessary to the carrying value of assets and liabilities, the reported revenue and expenses and the statement of financial position classifications used.

Research versus development expenses

The accounting for research and development expenses differs with research expenses recognized in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss during the period incurred, whereas development expenses are recognized as an intangible asset in the consolidated statements of financial position when incurred. The Company's operations, from time to time, may include both research and development activities. Management has used judgement to determine whether activities should be recognized as research expenses or as an intangible asset for development expenses. To date, management has determined that its activities are research activities and has not incurred any expenses that would qualify as recognition as an intangible asset in the condensed consolidated interim statements of financial position.

Income taxes

In assessing the probability of realizing deferred tax assets, management makes estimates related to the expectation of future taxable income, applicable tax opportunities, expected timing of reversals of existing temporary differences and the likelihood that the tax position taken will be sustained upon examination by applicable tax authorities. In making its assessments, management gives additional weight to positive and negative evidence that can be objectively verified.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

The material accounting policies applied in the preparation of these condensed consolidated interim financial statements are consistent with the accounting policies disclosed in note 3 of the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2024. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2024.

4. REVERSE TAKE-OVER

On March 13, 2024, the Company completed a "three cornered" amalgamation with Former Advanced Graph and 1441651 B.C. Ltd. ("NewCo"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the former Adagio, created solely for the purpose of effecting the amalgamation (the "Transaction"). The Transaction was completed pursuant to the terms and conditions of an amalgamation agreement dated October 5, 2023, as amended on November 23, 2023 and January 17, 2024 among the Company, NewCo and Former Advanced Graph, pursuant to which the Company acquired all of the outstanding securities of Former Advanced Graph in exchange for securities of the Company by way of a "three-cornered" amalgamation whereby NewCo and Former Advanced Graph amalgamated to form a new amalgamated entity, named as Advanced Graph Enterprise Database Inc., and AmalCo became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Transaction constituted the Company's qualifying transaction as defined in the policies of the TSX-V.

Immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction (the "Closing"), the former Adagio consolidated its outstanding common shares, options and warrants on the basis of one (1) post-consolidation common share, option or warrant for each 2.5 pre-consolidation common shares, options or warrants.

On Closing of the Transaction, all of the securities of Former Advanced Graph were exchanged for corresponding securities of the Company at the exchange ratio of four (4) post-consolidation securities of the Company for each one (1) security of Former Advanced Graph.

As described in Note 1, the Company acquired legal control of Former Advanced Graph, however as the shareholders of Former Advanced Graph gained voting control of AGEDB Technology Ltd. pursuant to the issuance of the Company's common shares to the shareholders of Former Advanced Graph, representing a significant majority interest, Former Advanced Graph is determined to be the accounting acquirer and, consequently, the transaction has been accounted for as a reverse acquisition of AGEDB Technology Ltd. by Former Advanced Graph. As AGEDB Technology Ltd. does not meet the definition of a business, the transaction is accounted for as a reverse acquisition of net assets, pursuant to IFRS 2, Share-based Payment.

On March 13, 2024, the reverse take-over was completed. The transaction resulted in an issuance of 40,052,000 common shares of the Company to Former Advanced Graph shareholders, an issuance of 186,667 stock options with an exercise price of $0.25 to former Adagio option holders, and an issuance of 80,000 agent warrants with an exercise price of $0.25 to former Adagio warrant holders. In connection with the reverse take-over, the Company also incurred cash transaction fees of $535,108, inclusive of $150,000 cash fee paid to an arm's length advisor, and issued 100,000 common shares of the Company to the advisor. Cash acquired from the reverse take-over was $62,010, net of cash transaction fees, resulting in a net cash payment of $473,098.

The acquisition date fair value of the consideration transferred by Former Advanced Graph for its interest in AGEDB Technology Ltd. of $ 1,722,001 is determined based on the fair value of the equity interest Former Advanced Graph would have had to give the owners of the former Adagio, before the reverse acquisition, to provide the same percentage equity interest in the combined entity that results from the reverse acquisition.

As at July 31, 2024, the Company had a total of $4,200 (April 30, 2024 - $3,675) included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities payable to the former and current Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

As at July 31, 2024, the Company had a total of $2,625 (April 30, 2024 - $4,725) included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities payable to certain directors of the Company.

The Company incurred stock-based compensation in the amount of $104,381 (2023 - $Nil) to officers and directors of the Company.

7. ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

	July 31, 2024	April 30, 2024
Trade receivable, net	$1,739,240	$-
Other receivables	-	3,959
Total	$1,739,240	$3,959

During the three months ended July 31, 2024, the Company entered several sales contracts for license and software development services, encompassing project management, data engineering and science, web application development, as well as server system monitoring and maintenance. The remaining balance of $3,959 as at April 30, 2024 was collected during the three months ended July 31, 2024.

8. GOODS AND SERVICE TAX

During the three months ended July 31, 2024, the Company collected GST on the sales of products and services as per the customer contracts. As of July 31, 2024, the outstanding net balance of GST was $24,383 receivable (April 30, 2024 - $36,057).

9. RIGHT-OF-USE ASSETS AND LEASE LIABILITIES

Prior to the completion of the Transaction (Note 4), Former Advanced Graph entered into two new lease agreements for the Vancouver and Toronto office premises. The expected term of the Vancouver lease is from May 1, 2023 to April 30, 2025 and the expected term of the Toronto lease is from March 1, 2024 to February 28, 2026. Both leases were capitalized under the IFRS 16, and the lease payments were discounted using an incremental borrowing rate of 5% for the Vancouver lease and 10% for the Toronto lease, respectively.

On May 30, 2024, the Company entered into a sublease agreement related to the Company's Vancouver office premises. The period of the sublease is June 5, 2024 to April 30, 2025. The right-of-use asset related to the Vancouver office was derecognized and a net investment in sublease was set up resulting in a loss of $7,556. 11. CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The goals of capital management are twofold: to ensure the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and to deliver a satisfactory return to shareholders by appropriately pricing products and services based on associated risks. The Company actively manages its capital structure, adjusting in response to economic conditions and the risk profiles of its assets. Capital requirements are assessed by management to maintain an efficient financing structure without excessive leverage.

To achieve this, the Company may issue new shares, raise debt, and acquire or dispose of assets. Management also focuses on effective working capital management, monitoring cash balances, forecasting needs, and optimizing cash inflows and outflows to meet obligations.

During the three months ended July 31, 2024, there were no changes in the Company's capital management approach, and the Company is not bound by any externally imposed capital requirements.

12. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK

Risk exposure on financial instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash and restricted cash, accounts receivable, advance to shareholders, investment in sublease, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, employee deductions payable and deferred revenue. The fair value of these financial instruments, with the exception of investment in sublease, approximates their carrying value due to their short term to maturity. The Company classifies its investment in sublease at amortized cost. The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

Credit risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a significant concentration of credit risk consist primarily of cash, restricted cash and accounts receivable. The Company limits its exposure to credit loss by placing its cash with major financial institutions.

Accounts receivable are subject to counter-party risk of not being collected. The Company manages credit risk of accounts receivable through its credit and collection policies and established allowance for doubtful accounts as required at each reporting period.

Liquidity risk

The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due. As of July 31, 2024, the Company had a cash balance of $282,436 (April 30, 2024 - $1,519,925) to settle current accounts payable and accrued liabilities of $68,268 (April 30, 2024 - $54,242). All the Company's financial liabilities have contractual maturities of 30 days, or due on demand, and are subject to normal trade terms. To date, the Company has been reliant on funding from private equity investment (Note 1). The Company will continue to be reliant upon these sources of financing until a commercial software product is developed. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful at obtaining such sources of funding in the future.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates and foreign exchange rates.

a) Interest rate risk

The Company has cash balances which may accrue interest; however, the Company is not generating significant budgeted revenues from cash balances and does not rely on this income. The Company does not have any interest-bearing debt which is subject to fixed interest rates and therefore the Company is not exposed to risk in the event of interest rate fluctuations.

b) Foreign currency risk

The Company's operations are situated in Canada. The Company considers foreign currency risk to be minimal.

13. CONCENTRATION

Volume of business

The Company has concentrations in the volume of sales and purchases it conducts with its suppliers. For the three months ended July 31, 2024, there were three buyers which accounted for the total sales, and the aggregate sales amounted to $1,684,688 (2023 – one buyer, $208,219).

Pursuant to the agreement, the Company received an upfront payment of $1,000,000 on the annual subscription fees. During the three months ended July 31, 2024, the Company recognized revenue of $41,096 (2023 - $208,219).

15. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company has one reportable segment. This single reportable operating segment derives its revenues from the sale of its software products and solutions and related services. The Company operates in one principal geographical area, which is Canada.

16. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On August 1, 2024, the Company entered into a patent assignment agreement with Bitnine Holdings Inc. (the "Assignor") to acquire several strategic patents. Pursuant to the agreement, the Company will pay Assignor 10% of its annual revenues for three years running from the date of agreement.
