

Global Battery Metals Announces Minsur's Termination of its Option to Acquire the Lara Copper Project, Peru

Vancouver, British Columbia – November 10, 2025 – Global Battery Metals Ltd. (the “Company” or “GBML”) (TSXV: GBML; OTCQB: REZZF; Frankfurt: REZ), an international critical mineral exploration company focused on growth-oriented lithium, copper and battery metal projects, announces that it has been notified by Minsur S.A. (“Minsur”) of its intention to relinquish its option to acquire the Company’s 55%-owned Lara Copper Project in southern Peru.

The Lara Copper Project was subject to an Option and Royalty Agreement entered into in July, 2020 with Lara Exploration Ltd. (“LRA”), through their Minas Dixon subsidiary, for the sale of the Lara Copper Project to Minsur.

The Lara Copper Project comprises mineral rights covering a partly defined copper-molybdenum porphyry deposit, located in the Laramate Province of the Ayacucho Department, approximately 40km inland from the town of Palpa on the Panamerican Highway. To date 9,850 metres of diamond and reverse circulation drilling have been completed, outlining a mineralized footprint of 2,000 metres east to west and between 500 metres and 800 metres north to south

Additional details on the Lara Project can also be found on GBML’s website at <https://gbml.ca/projects/lara-property>.

Management of GBML is working its partners to determine next steps for the project.
