FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2017

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Company incurred minimal sustaining overhead expenses and recorded a net loss of $7,679 for the year ended March 31, 2017 (March 31, 2016 – $8,004). The relatively unchanged level of operating losses between the current and prior periods reflect management's efforts to minimize operating costs.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Strategic Risk

The Company presently does not own any properties, business or other related assets of merit and its principal business activity is the identification and evaluation of new investment and acquisition opportunities. The risks that are inherent to this strategy include, but are not limited to, the ability to identify and acquire worthwhile opportunities, the ability to retain staff and management in order to pursue these opportunities, and the ability to raise the capital necessary to fund these projects. There is no guarantee that the Company will be able to complete an acquisition of or investment in a new business opportunity. If an acquisition of or the participation in corporations, properties, assets or businesses is identified, the Company may find that even if the terms of an acquisition or participation are economic, it may not be able to finance such acquisition or participation and additional funds will be required to enable the Company to pursue such an initiative. There is no guarantee that additional financing will be available or that it will be available on terms acceptable to management of the Company. The Company will be competing with other companies, many of which will have far greater resources and experience than the Company. No assurance can be given that the Company will be successful in raising the funds required for an acquisition.

Lack of Dividend Policy

The Company does not presently intend to pay cash dividends in the foreseeable future, as any earnings are expected to be retained for use in developing and expanding its business. However, the actual amount of dividends from the Company will remain subject to the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors and will depend on results of operations, cash requirements and future prospects of the Company and other factors.

Possible Dilution to Present and Prospective Shareholders

The Company's plan of operation, in part, contemplates the accomplishment of business negotiations by the issuance of cash, securities of the Company, or a combination of the two, and possibly, incurring debt. Any transaction involving the issuance of previously authorized but unissued common shares would result in dilution, possibly substantial, to present and prospective holders of common shares.

Dependence of Key Personnel

The Company strongly depends on the business and technical expertise of its management and key personnel. There is little possibility that this dependence will decrease in the near term. As the Company's operations expand, additional general management resources will be required. These personnel will be central to the Company's ability to locate and develop business opportunities.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

a. Fair Value

The fair values of due from Parent Company, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their carrying values due to their due on demand nature or short term to maturity.

b. Financial Risk Factors

The Company's risk exposure and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

I. Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due.

All of the Company's financial liabilities, which consist of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, have contractual maturities of less than 90 days. For the foreseeable future, these will be honored by funding advances from the Parent Company that will be applied on account against the amount due from the Parent Company.

II. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a customer or counterparty will fail to perform an obligation or fail to pay amounts due, causing a financial loss. The Company's primary exposure to credit risk is on the amount due from Parent Company; as such the Company considers its credit risk to be low.

III. Market Risks

Market risk consists of currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable limits while maximizing returns. The Company has no foreign exchange rate risk as all amounts are denominated in Canadian dollars. It also holds no financial instruments that expose it to other price risk or significant interest rate risk.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make estimates, judgements and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

(a) Critical accounting estimates

Critical accounting estimates are estimates and assumptions made by management that may result in a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year and they included:

Deferred income tax

The determination of deferred income tax assets or liabilities requires subjective assumptions regarding future income tax rates and the likelihood of utilizing tax carry-forwards. Changes in these assumptions could materially affect the recorded amounts, and therefore do not necessarily provide certainty as to their recorded values.

(b) Critical accounting judgements

Information about critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the statements are, but are not limited to, the following:

Going concern

The assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern involves judgment regarding future funding available for its operations and working capital requirements as discussed in Note 1 of the financial statements.

CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES

There has been no material impact on these financial statements from changes in accounting standards during the year.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENT

A number of new IFRS standards, amendments to standards and interpretations are not yet effective for the year ended March 31, 2017, and have not been applied in preparing these financial statements. None of these are expected to have a significant effect on the Company's financial statements.

CROSSROAD VENTURES INC.
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2017

The Company has not early adopted this revised standard.

IFRS 15 Revenues from contracts with customers and IFRS 16 Leases are currently not expected to be applicable to the Company's operations.

DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Disclosure controls and procedures are controls and other procedures that are designed to provide reasonable assurance that all relevant information required to be disclosed in the Company's reports filed or submitted as part of the Company's continuous disclosure requirements is gathered and reported to senior management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, on a timely basis so that appropriate decisions can be made regarding public disclosure and such information can be recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified by applicable regulatory authorities. The Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as at March 31, 2017 as required by Canadian securities laws. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer have concluded that, as of March 31, 2017, the disclosure controls and procedures were effective. However, they recognize that no matter how well designed the Company's control systems are, such controls can only provide reasonable assurance, not absolute assurance, of detecting, preventing and deterring errors.
