Risks and Uncertainties

The Company has a limited history of existence. There can be no assurance that a Qualifying Transaction will be completed. Equity or debt financing may be required to complete a Qualifying Transaction. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain adequate financing to continue. The securities of the Company should be considered a highly speculative investment. The following risk factors should be given special consideration when evaluating an investment in any of the Company's securities:

- a) until completion of a Qualifying Transaction, the Company is not permitted to carry on any business other than the identification and evaluation of potential Qualifying Transactions;
- b) the Company has had no business activity and has not acquired any material assets since its incorporation other than cash;
- c) the Company does not have a history of earnings, nor has it paid any dividends and will not generate earnings or pay dividends until at least after the completion of the Qualifying Transaction;
- d) the Company has only limited funds with which to identify and evaluate potential Qualifying Transactions and there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to identify a suitable Qualifying Transaction;
- e) even if a proposed Qualifying Transaction is identified, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to successfully complete the transaction;
- f) the Qualifying Transaction may be financed in all or part by the issuance of additional securities by the Company and this may result in further dilution to the investor, which dilution may be significant, and which may also result in a change of control of the Company;
- g) there can be no assurance that an active and liquid market for the common shares will develop and an investor may find it difficult to resell its common shares;
- h) if the Company fails to complete a Qualifying Transaction within 24 months of listing, the Exchange could suspend or delist the common shares of the Company and an interim cease trade order may be issued against the Company's securities by an applicable securities commission if its common shares are suspended from trading on or delisted from the Exchange or otherwise; and
