Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this document, including the intended future financing and closing of the Transaction (defined below), constitute "forward-looking statements". When used in this document, the words "may", "would", "could", "will", "intend", "plan", "propose", "anticipate", "believe", used by any of the Corporation's management, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the Corporation's forecasts, estimates and expectations, as they relate to the Corporation's current views based on their experience and expertise with respect to future events and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Many factors could cause the Corporation's actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements that may be expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Given these risks and uncertainties, including closing conditions to the Transaction not being met and no market for any further financing, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. There can be no assurance that it will be completed as proposed or at all. The Corporation does not intend, and does not assume any obligation, to update any such factors or to publicly announce the result of any revisions to any of the forward-looking statements contained herein to reflect future results, events or developments unless required by law.

Description of the Business

The Corporation was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) on September 19, 2012 with the intent to being classified as a Capital Pool Company as defined in Policy 2.4 of the TSX Venture Exchange (the "Exchange") corporate finance manual. The Corporation has no assets other than cash. The Corporation proposes to identify and evaluate potential acquisitions or businesses, and once identified and evaluated, to negotiate an acquisition or participation subject to regulatory and, if required, shareholders' approval.

During the year the prospective qualifying transaction with North American Lithium Inc. failed. The Corporation has a significant working capital deficit and is almost out of cash.

The Corporation was not successful in completing a Qualifying Transaction within the time limitation permissible under the policies of the Exchange. As a result, the Corporation moved its listing to the NEX board of the Exchange ("NEX") and cancelled an aggregate of 1,000,000 Seed Shares. The Corporation's shares now trade on the NEX and its symbol is RRD.H.

The Corporation operates from its primary office in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Its registered head office is located at 1900, 520 3rd Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 0R3.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Corporation has a limited history of existence. There can be no assurance that a Qualifying Transaction will be completed. Equity or debt financing may be required to complete a Qualifying Transaction. There can be no assurance that the Corporation will be able to obtain adequate financing to continue. The securities of the Corporation should be considered a highly speculative investment. The following risk factors should be given special consideration when evaluating an investment in any of the Corporation's securities:

- a) the Corporation is almost out of cash and has negative working capital. It will need to raise more capital to complete a transaction.

- b) until completion of a Qualifying Transaction, the Corporation is not permitted to carry on any business other than the identification and evaluation of potential Qualifying Transactions;
- c) the Corporation has had no business activity and has not acquired any material assets since its incorporation other than cash;
- d) the Corporation does not have a history of earnings, nor has it paid any dividends and will not generate earnings or pay dividends until at least after the completion of the Qualifying Transaction;
- e) the Corporation has only limited funds with which to identify and evaluate potential Qualifying Transactions and there can be no assurance that the Corporation will be able to identify a suitable Qualifying Transaction;
- f) even if a proposed Qualifying Transaction is identified, there can be no assurance that the Corporation will be able to successfully complete the transaction;
- g) the Qualifying Transaction may be financed in all or part by the issuance of additional securities by the Corporation and this may result in further dilution to the investor, which dilution may be significant and which may also result in a change of control of the Corporation;
- h) there can be no assurance that an active and liquid market for the common shares will develop and an investor may find it difficult to resell its common shares; and
- i) the Corporation competes with many Capital Pool Companies that are seeking suitable Qualifying Transactions. In addition, other Capital Pool Companies may have substantially greater financial and technical resources than the Corporation.

Related Party Transactions

During the year ended September 30, 2018, the Corporation incurred $102,460 in legal fees and disbursements for services provided by a law firm whose partner is a director of the Corporation.

Other Information

The policies of the TSX Venture Exchange prohibit Capital Pool Companies from carrying on formal investor relations activities. Corporate communications and investor inquiries are handled by the Directors of the Corporation.
