BENEFICIAL OWNERS (NON-REGISTERED HOLDERS)

You are a beneficial owner (or non-registered holder) if your shares are registered in the name of an intermediary (such as a bank, trust company or trustee of a self-administered RRSP, RRIF, RESP or similar plan).

In accordance with National Instrument 54-101 - Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer ("NI 54-101") of the Canadian Securities Administrators, the Company has distributed copies of the Notice of Meeting, this Circular and the form of proxy (the "Meeting Materials") to the clearing agencies and intermediaries for onward distribution to non-registered holders with a request for voting instructions as the Company is not sending the Meeting Materials using notice-and-access this year.

If you are a beneficial owner, you may only vote by completing and returning the enclosed voting instruction form in accordance with the directions provided on it. If you wish to attend the Meeting and vote in person, you must appoint yourself as proxyholder by inserting your name in the space provided on the voting instruction form, sign and return the voting instruction form in accordance with the directions provided on it. In all cases, you should follow the instructions set out on the voting instruction form and contact your intermediary if you need assistance.

The Company has decided to take advantage of those provisions of NI 54-101 that permit it to directly deliver proxy-related materials to its non-objecting beneficial owners ("NOBOs"). These Meeting Materials are being sent to both registered and non-registered owners of the Common Shares. If you are a non-registered holder, and the Company or its agent has sent these materials directly to you, your name and address and information about your holdings of Common Shares have been obtained in accordance with applicable securities regulatory requirements from the intermediary holding the Common Shares on your behalf. By choosing to send these materials to you directly, the Company (and not the intermediary holding on your behalf) has assumed responsibility for (i) delivering these materials to you, and (ii) executing your proper voting instructions. Please return your voting instructions as specified in the request for voting instructions. In this regard, NOBOs can expect to receive a voting instruction form which is to be completed and returned to Computershare. Computershare will tabulate the results received from NOBOs and will provide appropriate voting instructions at the Meeting with respect to those results.

The Company does not intend to pay for intermediaries to forward the Meeting Materials to objecting beneficial owners under NI 54-101 and Form 54-101F7 - Request for Voting Instructions made by Intermediaries. The objecting beneficial owners will not receive the Meeting Materials unless the objecting beneficial owner's intermediary assumes the cost of delivery.

Oversight and Description of Director and Named Executive Officer Compensation

The Board is responsible for setting and evaluating the compensation of directors and NEOs of the Company. The Board reviews the compensation package annually and determines if the package continues to be appropriate, given the performance of the executive, the achievements of the business and the status of the economic environment.

Compensation of Directors

Mr. Hui receives a director's fee of $500 per month. All directors receive a meeting attendance fee as well as stock options and cash bonus for their role as directors of the Company.

Compensation of Executive Officers

Compensation of executive officers consists of three main elements: base salary, performance-based incentive in the form of cash bonuses and long-term ownership through the Company's stock option plan.

- (a) Base salary is the principal and fixed component of pay that compensates executives for fulfilling their duties and responsibilities. In determining the base salary, the Board considers the particular responsibilities related to the position and the level of skills and experience of an executive. The Board also considers each executive's individual performance and contribution towards meeting corporate objectives. Base salaries are also designed to be competitive to retain highly qualified executives.
- (b) Incentive cash bonuses are a variable component of compensation designed to reward executives for achieving goals set for annual operating targets which include yields and prices. An annual yield bonus is rewarded to executives only if pre-determined yields are achieved. The executive acre bonus is an overall performance bonus designed to retain executives as it is structured to be paid in later years.
- (c) The stock option component is intended to encourage executives' long-term association with the Company by aligning the interests of executives with the interests of the Company's shareholders. The Company's stock option plan enables executives of the Company who receive the stock options to acquire Common Shares. The stock option plan is administered by the Board who, in its sole discretion, determines to whom and the number of options to be granted. In determining the number of options to be granted, the Board takes into consideration the level of responsibilities of the executive, his or her contribution to the long-term performance of the Company and the number of options, if any, previously granted to the executive.

Pension

The Company does not have a pension, retirement, deferred compensation or similar plan that provides for payments or benefits to director or NEO at, following, or in connection with retirement.
