Scientific and Technical Information

The scientific and technical information contained in this offering document has been reviewed and approved by Michael G. Allen, a "qualified person" within the meaning of National Instrument 43-101 – Standards of Disclosure for Mineral Projects ("NI 43-101").

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

What is our business?

The Company is a junior mining, exploration and development company engaged in the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties in the western United States and Canada, and whose current focus is on advancing precious metals discoveries and acquisitions in Nevada. Most recently, in August 2024, the Company acquired the Hercules Gold Project, which consists of 1,323 unpatented mining claims and four patented mining claims covering approximately 100 square kilometers of prospective Walker Lane geology located approximately one hour from Reno, Nevada.

Further information regarding the business and operations of the Company, and the other projects of the Company, can be found in the Company's public filings available under its profile on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.

Recent developments

- On September 23, 2023, the Company announced Nevada's Bureau of Land Management reviewed and approved StrikePoint's Notice of Intent to Explore. This approval allows for up to a total of three drill pads and a minor amount of associated drill road disturbance at the Pony Meadows Target within the southern section of the Hercules Gold Project. The Pony Meadows Target is interpreted to be a large-scale ring structure, similar to the structures that host significant gold mineralization further to the north of the Hercules Gold Project. Surface exploration at Pony Meadows has revealed a mapped structure of approximately 2.6 kilometers.

In addition to the Pony Meadows permit, the Company has two additional drill permits for the southern portion of the Hercules Gold Project, one at Sirens and a second at the Como Comet showing.

The Sirens showing received a minor amount of historical drilling in 2008. Notable results included 38.10 metres ("m") grading 0.64 grams per tonne ("g/t") gold ("Au"), ending in 0.85 g/t Au, as well as 25.91m of 0.68 g/t Au ending in 0.91 g/t Au. The fact these holes end in significant gold grade indicates that the target has not been adequately tested at depth.

The Como Comet showing is located between the Como District controlled by Newmont Mining Corporation and the past producing Hully Logan Mine. Surface sampling of up to 5.0 g/t Au has been received and many significant historical drill intercepts have been noted in the area.

- On May 8 and 23, 2025, the Company announced and completed, respectively, the sale of the Porter-Idaho Project to Dolly Varden Silver Corporation ("Dolly Varden"). Pursuant to the terms of the sale, StrikePoint received 295,699 common shares in the capital of Dolly Varden worth an approximate fair value of $1,100,000 at the time the announcement of the transaction. The sale of this non-core Porter-Idaho Project allows the Company to focus on the gold projects in Nevada's Walker Lane.
- On May 5 and April 28, 2025, StrikePoint announced the assay results from its Spring 2025 reverse circulatory ("RC") program at the Hercules Gold Project. The program successfully demonstrated that Hercules has a predictable, large, epithermal footprint hosting abundant near surface oxide gold.

The Company completed 7 drillholes totaling approximately 1,400 meters of reverse circulation drilling in March 2025. All seven holes hit near surface gold in significant quantities. Hole H25005 which cut 117.35m of 0.45 g/t Au with 3.55 g/t Ag is the furthest south drilling on the Cliffs target to date and shows that the system remains open to the south. The next nearest hole to H25005 is hole H20040 which returned 39.62m of 1.12 g/t Au with 5.38 g/t Ag. These two holes give a strong indication of the strength of the mineralization at the southern portion of the Cliffs Target. Similarly, H250006 encountered 10.67m of 1.17 g/t Au and 18.13 g/t Ag starting at surface with an additional 44.20m of 0.35 g/t Au and 4.34 g/t Ag showing that multiple zones of the Hercules showing are also open to the south. Also, Hole H25007 was drilled to test a geochemical anomaly to the east of the Loaves showing and hit two zones of encouraging grades.

As expected, shallower gold intercepts showed higher cyanide solubility than deeper intercepts. Comparing cyanide soluble gold assays to fire assays showed that cyanide solubility ranged between 89% and 32% on a per hole basis. With drilling and subsequent testwork showing abundant near surface cyanide soluble gold, the Company is optimistic of the potential of an open pit heap leach operation at the Hercules Gold Project.

- On March 3, 2025, StrikePoint announced the conclusions of its first technical report on the Hercules Gold Project (filed on April 17, 2025 on SEDAR+), including the establishment of a drill defined bulk tonnage Exploration Target (as defined in the Hercules Technical Report).

In accordance with the guidelines set forth in the National Instrument (“NI”) 43-101, the report establishes a baseline Exploration Target (the “Exploration Target”) for the Hercules Gold Project ranging between 819,000 and 1,018,000 ounces of Gold within 40.3 million to 65.6 million tonnes of mineralized material with an estimated grade range between 0.48 and 0.63 grams per tonne Au. The quantity and grade are conceptual in nature, and there has not been sufficient exploration to define a mineral resource, and it is uncertain if further exploration will result in the target being delineated as a mineral resource. The Exploration Target Model has not been evaluated for reasonable prospects of eventual economic extraction. The Exploration Target was completed utilizing a grade shell model in conjunction with the geological understanding of the mineralization to date. The grade shells were then utilized to provide grade tonnage curves with an Artificial Intelligence (“AI”) estimated model that utilized the drillhole gold assays and kriging. The Exploration Target and AI generated model will be utilized to guide future drilling in these areas of known mineralization.

The Exploration Target used data from the Sirens, Hercules, Cliffs, Loaves, Lucky Rusty, Rattlesnakes, and northeast showings on the Hercules Gold Project. In this area there are a total of 306 historical drillholes yielding a total of 31,776 m in the drillhole database along with data for 121 surface trenches. The drillhole database contains a total of 18,409 sample interval entries, with the trenches providing another 475 sample entries. A total of 5,620 sample intervals are contained within the mineralization domains utilized for the Exploration Target.

Numerous targets remain untested and the previously drill showings remain open for further expansion and potential conversion to mineral resources.
