ARTICLE II
PURCHASE AND SALE

2.01 Purchase and Sale of the Shares. On the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, at the Closing, the Seller shall sell, convey, transfer, assign and deliver to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall purchase and acquire at the Closing from the Seller, all right, title and interest in and to the Shares, free and clear of all Liens (other than restrictions imposed on transfer under applicable federal and/or state securities Laws).

2.02 Consideration for Shares. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the aggregate consideration to be paid by Purchaser for the Shares shall be an amount equal to (i) the Closing Purchase Price, which amount shall be subject to adjustment following the Closing as set forth in this Article II, (ii) the Earnout Consideration (if any) payable pursuant to Section 2.05 and (iii) the Deferred Payments (if any) payable pursuant to Section 2.06.

2.03 Purchase Price Adjustment.

(a) Closing Adjustment. At least one (1) Business Day prior to the Closing Date, the Seller has delivered to Purchaser a statement (the "Estimated Closing Statement"), which includes (i) the Seller's good faith calculation of the Working Capital (such estimate, the "Estimated Working Capital Amount"), (ii) the Seller's good faith calculation of the Indebtedness, specifying whether such Indebtedness is Assumed Indebtedness or Repaid Indebtedness (such estimate, the "Estimated Indebtedness Amount"), (iii) the Seller's good faith calculation of the Transaction Expenses (such estimate, the "Estimated Transaction Expenses Amount"), (iv) the Seller's good faith calculation of the Cash (the "Estimated Cash Amount") and (v) the resulting calculation of the Closing Purchase Price, in each case, prepared in accordance with the GAAP and the definitions in this Agreement, and in each case, together with reasonable supporting detail. The Seller will consider in good faith any comments provided by Purchaser to the Estimated Closing Statement based on Purchaser's review of the Estimated Closing Statement.

(b) Post-Closing Adjustment. As determined in accordance with Section 2.04, after the Closing:

(i) if the Final Purchase Price is greater than the Closing Purchase Price, then, within five (5) days following the determination of the Final Purchase Price in accordance with Section 2.04, Purchaser will pay to the Seller, the Post-Closing Adjustment Increase Amount, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account designated in writing by the Seller; and

(ii) if the Closing Purchase Price is greater than the Final Purchase Price, then, following the determination of the Final Purchase Price in accordance with Section 2.04, Purchaser may withhold and deduct from either (or both) (A) the Earnout Consideration payable to the Seller

(if any) pursuant to Section 2.05 or (B) the Deferred Payments payable pursuant to Section 2.06 an amount equal to such Post-Closing Adjustment Decrease Amount.

2.04 Purchase Price Adjustment Procedures.

(a) Preparation of Closing Statement. As promptly as practicable, but no later than thirty (30) days after the Closing Date or such later date as Purchaser and the Seller agree in writing, Purchaser shall prepare and deliver to the Seller a statement (the "Closing Statement"), setting forth Purchaser's calculation of the Working Capital, the Indebtedness, the Transaction Expenses and the Cash (collectively, the "Purchaser Proposed Amounts"), in each case, prepared in accordance with the definitions in this Agreement. For the purposes of reviewing the Closing Statement delivered by Purchaser pursuant to this Section 2.04(a), following the delivery of the Closing Statement, Purchaser shall afford, and shall cause the Company to afford, the Seller commercially reasonable access (on a confidential basis) during normal business hours and on advanced notice to the books and records (other than privileged documents) of Purchaser, the Company and their respective Representatives relevant to the calculation of the Closing Statement.

(b) Disagreement by the Seller. If the Seller disagrees with Purchaser's calculation of any of the Purchaser Proposed Amounts, the Seller may, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Closing Statement, deliver a notice to Purchaser disagreeing with one or more of such calculations and setting forth the Seller's objection to such calculations of the Purchaser Proposed Amounts, and the Seller's calculation thereof (an "Objection Notice"). Any Objection Notice shall specify each item and amount as to which the Seller disagrees along with the Seller's alternative calculations for each such item with reasonable supporting detail. If the Seller fails to deliver an Objection Notice during such thirty (30)-day period or delivers written notice accepting Purchaser's calculation of the Purchaser Proposed Amounts during such thirty (30)-day period, then the Purchaser Proposed Amounts determined by Purchaser and delivered to the Seller in accordance with Section 2.04(a) shall constitute the components of the Final Purchase Price, which Final Purchase Price be deemed final, binding, and conclusive on the Parties for purposes of this Agreement. If the Seller timely delivers an Objection Notice in accordance with this Section 2.04(b), any items or amounts not disputed thereon shall constitute components of the Final Purchase Price, which components of the Final Purchase Price be deemed final, binding, and conclusive on the Parties for purposes of this Agreement.

(c) Dispute Resolution.

(i) If an Objection Notice shall have been timely delivered by the Seller to Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.04(b), the Seller and Purchaser shall, during the twenty (20) days following such delivery, use commercially reasonable efforts to reach agreement on the disputed items or amounts in order to determine the Working Capital, the Indebtedness, the Cash and the Transaction Expenses. If, during such period, the Seller and Purchaser agree as to the Working Capital, the Indebtedness, the Cash and the Transaction Expenses, or any item or amount thereof, then the Seller and Purchaser shall execute a written acknowledgement, which shall set forth the "Final Working Capital Amount", the "Final Indebtedness Amount", the "Final Cash Amount", the "Final Transaction Expenses Amount", and/or any item or amount thereof, as applicable, and the corresponding calculation of "Final Purchase Price", as applicable, and such amounts shall be deemed final, binding, and conclusive on the Parties for purposes of this Agreement. If, during such period, the Seller and Purchaser are unable to reach agreement on all such items or amounts under dispute pursuant to the Objection Notice, then Purchaser and Seller agree to engage an independent accounting firm of national standing reasonably acceptable to both the Seller and Purchaser (the "Accounting Referee") to resolve the items or amounts that remain in dispute.

(ii) Within twenty (20) days of the retention of the Accounting Referee, Purchaser and the Seller shall jointly submit the matter to the Accounting Referee and instruct the Accounting Referee that it (A) shall act as arbitrator, to resolve, in accordance with the definitions in this Agreement, only the items or amounts remaining in dispute specified in any timely delivered Objection Notice; (B) allow each of the Seller and Purchaser the opportunity to present their arguments, including in in-person or remote teleconference meetings with each Party present; provided, that the Accounting Referee shall not engage in any ex parte communication with the Seller or Purchaser (or any of their respective Representatives or Affiliates) regarding any calculation; (C) may not determine any Final Working Capital Amount, Final Indebtedness Amount, Final Cash Amount or Final Transaction Expense Amount in excess of the higher number claimed by the Seller or Purchaser or less than the lower number claimed by the Seller or Purchaser in the Objection Notice or Closing Statement, respectively; and (D) shall deliver to Purchaser and the Seller, as promptly as practicable and in any event within thirty (30) days (or such other longer time period as reflected in a written agreement between the Accounting Referee, Purchaser and the Seller) following the submission of the matters that remain in dispute to the Accounting Referee for resolution, a written report setting forth the Accounting Referee's determination of the Working Capital, the Indebtedness, the Cash, the Transaction Expenses and the Final Purchase Price, which report shall include a worksheet, with reasonable supporting detail, setting forth the material calculations used in arriving at such determination and a calculation of the apportionment of the fees, costs and expenses of the Accounting Referee in accordance with Section 2.04(c)(iii). The Parties acknowledge and agree that, if any dispute is submitted to the Accounting Referee pursuant to this Section 2.04(c), the Final Purchase Price (and components thereof), as determined by the Accounting Referee, shall, absent manifest error, be final, binding, and conclusive on the Parties for purposes of this Agreement. The scope of the disputes to be resolved by the Accounting Referee shall be limited to fixing mathematical errors and determining whether the items in dispute were determined in accordance with the definitions of such items without regard to materiality, and the Accounting Referee is not to make any other determination and shall act as an arbitrator and not as an expert. The Accounting Referee shall consider only those items and amounts in Purchaser's and the Seller's respective calculations of the components of the Closing Statement (including each of the components thereof) that are identified as being items and amounts to which Purchaser and Seller have been unable to agree.

Redacted due to confidentiality and/or commercial sensitivity.

(iii) If requested by the Accounting Referee, Purchaser and the Seller agree to execute a reasonable engagement letter. The Accounting Referee's cost, fees and expenses of such review and report in connection with its services as an Accounting Referee pursuant to this Section 2.04(c) (including any retainer) shall be apportioned between the Seller Parties (on a joint and several basis) and Purchaser based upon inverse proportion of the disputed amounts resolved in favor of such Party (i.e., so that the prevailing Party bears a lesser amount of such cost, fees and expenses) as determined by the Accounting Referee and set forth in the report of such Accounting Referee. However, initially, any retainer charged by the Accounting Referee shall be paid fifty percent (50%) by Purchaser and fifty percent (50%) by the Seller Parties, with such amount to be reimbursed by the Party responsible for paying the cost of the review in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence.

(b) Delivery of Proposed Earnout Statement. As promptly as practicable, but not later than forty-five (45) days following the last day of the 2025 Q1 Earnout Period or the 2025 Q2 Earnout Period, as applicable, Purchaser shall prepare and deliver a statement (each, a "Proposed Earnout Statement") setting forth in reasonable detail Purchaser's good faith determination of the Earnout Consideration for such period. At the Seller's written request, the Seller shall be entitled to reasonable access to the books and records of the Company and the work papers prepared specifically in connection with the Proposed Earnout Statement and the calculation of the Earnout Consideration, and, upon reasonable prior notice, shall be entitled to discuss such books and records and work papers with Purchaser. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (x) any such access shall be in a manner that does not interfere with the normal business operations of Purchaser or its Subsidiaries (including the Company), and (y) in no event shall Purchaser be required to provide any documents or other information covered by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, or other similar protections or in violation of applicable Law.

(c) Earnout Notice of Disagreement. If the Seller disagrees with a Proposed Earnout Statement, the Seller will notify Purchaser on or before the date that is fifteen (15) days (subject to extension upon mutual written agreement of the Parties) after the date on which Purchaser delivers to the Seller such Proposed Earnout Statement. If the Seller fails to deliver a notice of disagreement setting forth the specific items on the Proposed Earnout Statement with which the Seller disagrees before the expiration of such fifteen (15)-day period (subject to extension upon mutual written agreement of the Parties), the Proposed Earnout Statement (or, as applicable, such items on the Proposed Earnout Statement with which the Seller has not delivered a notice of disagreement) and the calculation of the Earnout Consideration set forth therein will be deemed to have been accepted by the Seller.

(d) Initial Method of Resolution. If the Seller delivers a notice of disagreement before the expiration of such fifteen (15)-day period (subject to extension upon mutual written agreement of the Parties), (i) Purchaser and the Seller shall attempt to resolve any such disagreements, and (ii) any items of the Proposed Earnout Statement that are not disputed in such notice of disagreement will be deemed to have been accepted by the Seller.

(e) Dispute Resolution Procedure. If Purchaser and the Seller are unable to resolve all such disagreements on or before the date that is fifteen (15) days (subject to extension upon mutual written agreement of the Parties) following notification by the Seller of any such disagreements, the Seller and Purchaser shall retain the Accounting Referee to resolve all such disagreements, which Accounting Referee shall adjudicate only those items still in dispute with respect to such Proposed Earnout Statement and the calculation of the Earnout Consideration therein. The determination by the Accounting Referee shall be binding and conclusive on the Seller Parties and Purchaser. The Accounting Referee shall offer the Seller and Purchaser the opportunity to provide written submissions regarding their positions on the disputed matters, which written submissions shall be provided to the Accounting Referee, if at all, no later than fifteen (15) days after the date of referral of the disputed matters to the Accounting Referee. The determination of the Accounting Referee shall be based solely on such written submissions by the Seller and Purchaser and their respective representatives and shall not be by independent review. The Accounting Referee shall deliver a written report resolving only the disputed matters and setting forth the basis for such resolution, by reference to the applicable defined terms of Earnout Consideration and the components thereof, within thirty (30) days after the Seller and Purchaser submit in writing (or have had the opportunity to submit in writing but have not submitted) their positions as to the disputed items. In preparing its report, the Accounting Referee shall not assign a value to any disputed amount other than one submitted by the Seller, on the one hand, or Purchaser, on the other hand. The determination of the Accounting Referee with respect to the correctness of each matter in dispute shall be final and binding on the parties. The fees, costs and expenses of the Accounting Referee shall be borne by Purchaser and the Seller, in inverse proportion as they may prevail on the matters resolved by the Accounting Referee, which proportionate allocation shall be calculated on an aggregate basis based on the relative dollar values of the amounts in dispute and shall be determined by the Accounting Referee at the time the determination of such firm is rendered on the merits of the matters submitted. The Accounting Referee shall conduct its determination activities in a manner wherein all materials submitted to it are held in confidence and shall not be disclosed to third parties. The Parties agree that judgment may be entered upon the determination of the Accounting Referee in any court having jurisdiction over the party against which such determination is to be enforced.

(f) Final Earnout Statement. Each Proposed Earnout Statement shall become final and binding on the parties on the earlier of (i) the first (1st) day following the end of the review period contemplated by Section 2.05(b), if a notice of disagreement has not been delivered to Purchaser by the Seller, (ii) the date upon which the Seller acknowledges in writing that it has no objections to such Proposed Earnout Statement, (iii) the date of resolution of all matters set forth in the notice of disagreement to the Proposed Earnout Statement pursuant to Section 2.05(c) and (iv) the date upon which the Accounting Referee reaches a final, binding resolution of solely those matters specified in any notice of disagreement to such Proposed Earnout Statement pursuant to Section 2.05(d).

(g) Payment of Earnout Consideration. Promptly (but in no event later than the tenth (10th) Business Day) following the final determination of the Earnout Consideration for the 2025 Q1 Earnout Period and the 2025 Q2 Earnout Period, as applicable, pursuant to this Section 2.05, if the Earnout Consideration is greater than $0, Purchaser shall pay, or shall cause to be paid, to the Seller the Earnout Consideration for such period.

(h) Conduct of the Business. For the avoidance of doubt, except as otherwise provided for herein, Purchaser retains the sole and absolute right to control the conduct of the Company and the Utah Locations. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, until the last day of the 2025 Q2 Earnout Period, Purchaser shall not, and shall not permit the Company to, without the prior written consent of the Seller; (i) take any action with the principal purpose of avoiding or reducing in any material respect the amount of any Earnout Consideration, or (ii) allocate or impose upon the Company (for purposes of calculating Utah 4-Wall EBITDA for each of the 2025 Q1 Earnout Period and 2025 Q2 Earnout Period) any management fees or general corporate overhead expenses incurred by Purchaser and its Affiliates (other than the Company) other than cash expenses attributable to the operations of the Company (such as the cost of insurance and employee benefits); provided, however, that any operation or action that results in any such reduction but is taken in good faith and with a legitimate business purpose shall not be deemed to violate this sentence.

(i) Payments to Company Healthcare Providers. The Seller Parties covenant and agree that no portion of any Earnout Consideration may be paid to (or promised as a payment to) any Healthcare Provider.

(j) Treatment of Payments. Any amount paid pursuant to this Section 2.05 shall be treated by the Parties as an adjustment to the Final Purchase Price for Tax purposes.

2.07 [Reserved].

2.08 Lost Certificates. If any certificate or other instrument that, immediately prior to Closing, represented any of the Shares shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, then the Seller shall provide an affidavit of that fact and an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser against any claim that may be made against the Company, Purchaser or any of its Affiliates with respect to such certificate or instrument.

2.09 Withholding Rights. Purchaser shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to the Seller such amounts as are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of payment under any provision of Law. If Purchaser determines that it is required to deduct or withhold any amount from any payment to be made pursuant to this Agreement to the Seller, Purchaser shall (a) provide reasonable written notice to the Seller of its intent to deduct and withhold such amount and the basis for such deduction or withholding and (b) provide a reasonable opportunity for the Seller to provide forms or other evidence that would mitigate, reduce or eliminate such deduction or withholding. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld by Purchaser and paid over the appropriate Governmental Entity, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Seller.

4.01 Organization. Each Seller Party is duly organized and is validly existing and in good standing (or equivalent thereof) under the Laws of the state or other jurisdiction of its incorporation, formation or organization and has all necessary Entity power and authority necessary to own, operate, hold or lease the properties and assets now owned, operated, held or leased by it and to carry on its business as currently conducted. The Seller Parties have made available to Purchaser true and correct copies of the Seller Parties' Organizational Documents, as amended and in full force and effect on the date of this Agreement, and no amendments thereto are pending. No Seller Party is in violation of any provisions of its Organizational Documents. All of the Seller's Equity Securities are owned of record and beneficially by Novamind Inc., an Ontario corporation ("Seller Parent"). Parent owns of record and beneficially all of the issued and outstanding Equity Securities of Seller Parent.

4.02 Authority; Execution, Delivery and Performance; Enforceability. Each Seller Party has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements to which such Seller Party is a party and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder and consummate the Contemplated Transactions, and the execution and delivery by such Seller Party of this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements to which such Seller Party is a party, the performance of such Seller Party's obligations thereunder and consummation by such Seller Party of the Contemplated Transactions, have been duly and validly authorized, and no other action on the part of such Seller Party (including by its equityholders) is necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements to which such Seller Party is a party and the Contemplated Transactions. This Agreement, and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which such Seller Party is (or, at the Closing, will be) a party, has been or will be duly and validly executed and delivered. This Agreement constitutes, and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which such Seller Party is a party (assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by each other party thereto), upon execution and delivery by such Seller Party, will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Seller Party, enforceable against such Seller Party in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that their enforceability may be subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and to general equitable principles.

4.03 Noncontravention. Neither the execution and delivery of any of this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements to which any Seller Party is a party, nor the consummation or performance of any of the Contemplated Transactions, will require the consent, notice or other action by any Person under, contravene, conflict with or result in a violation of, breach of, or default under (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) (a) any applicable Law or any Judgment to which any Seller Party is subject (including the Laws of any United States or foreign securities exchange); (b) the provisions of the Organizational Documents of any Seller Party or (c) any Contract, instrument, license, franchise or permit to which any Seller Party is party, except in the case of clauses (a) and (c), as would not delay, prohibit or impair any Seller Party's ability to consummate the Contemplated Transactions. No consent, approval, exemption Permit, declaration or filing with, or notice to, any Governmental Entity (including any United States or foreign securities exchange) is required to be obtained or made by or with respect to any Seller Party in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements to which any Seller Party is a party, to perform its obligations thereunder or to approve the Contemplated Transactions.

4.04 Title to the Shares. The Seller is the record and beneficial owner of, and holds good and valid title free and clear of any and all mortgages, security interests, charges, easements, rights, options, claims, restrictions, pledges, encumbrances, rights of first offer or refusal, covenants or other liens of any kind (collectively, "Liens") (other than Liens described in clause (a) of the definition of Permitted Liens) to, the Shares as set forth on Section 4.04 of the Disclosure Schedule, which Shares constitute all of the Equity Securities or debt securities of the Company. The Seller has the sole power and authority to sell, transfer, assign and deliver the Shares as provided in this Agreement, and such delivery will convey to Purchaser good and valid title to the Shares, free and clear of any and all Liens (other than restrictions imposed on transfer under applicable federal and/or state securities Laws). Upon consummation of the Contemplated Transactions, good and valid title to the Shares will pass to Purchaser, free and clear of any and all Liens (other than Liens described in clause (a) of the definition of Permitted Liens). No Seller Party nor any of their respective Affiliates is a party to any voting trust or other voting agreement with respect to any of the Shares or to any agreement relating to the issuance, sale, redemption transfer or other disposition of the Shares.

4.05 Suits; Judgments. There are no Proceedings, or Judgments pending, or to the knowledge of any Seller Party, threatened, to which any Seller Party is a party or is subject that would reasonably be expected to prohibit or delay the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions by any Seller Party.

4.07 Solvency. As of the date hereof and within one (1) year preceding the date hereof, and, after giving effect to all of the Contemplated Transactions, as of Closing, each Seller Party is and will be Solvent. For purposes of this Section 4.07, "Solvent" means that, with respect to any Person and as of any date of determination, (a) the amount of the "present fair saleable value" of the assets of such Person, will, as of such date, exceed the amount of all "liabilities of such Person, contingent or otherwise," as of such date, as such quoted terms are generally determined in accordance with applicable Laws governing determinations of the insolvency of debtors, (b) the present fair saleable value of the assets of such Person will, as of such date, be greater than the amount that will be required to pay the liability of such Person on its indebtedness as its indebtedness becomes absolute and matured, (c) such Person will not have, as of such date, an unreasonably small amount of capital with which to conduct its business and (d) such Person will be able to pay its indebtedness as it matures. No transfer of property is being made and no obligation is being incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud either present or future creditors of any Seller Party or the Company, nor would the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions reasonably be expected to give rise to a claim of "fraudulent conveyance" or similar creditors' claims under any applicable Law. Each Seller Party has a valid business reason to undertake the Contemplated Transactions and has concluded that the Purchase Price pursuant to this Agreement represents the fair market value and reasonably equivalent value for the Shares and acknowledges and agrees that the Contemplated Transactions are being conducted on an arm's length and as a result of a reasonable marketing effort.

8.02 Tax Matters.

(a) Purchaser, at its expense, shall prepare or cause to be prepared and timely file or cause to be timely filed, all Tax Returns of the Company for all Tax periods ending on or prior to the Closing Date required to be filed and first due after the Closing Date (taking into account applicable extensions of time to file) and for a Tax period that includes, but does not end on, the Closing Date (a "Straddle Period") in a manner consistent with past practice, except as otherwise required by this Agreement or applicable Law, provided, however, that prior to filing any such Tax Return that shows a Tax subject to indemnification pursuant to Section 11.01(a)(iii), Purchaser shall submit such Tax Return (and related schedules, statements and supporting documentation) and a statement of Taxes owed in connection with the filing of such Tax Return at least thirty (30) days (or if such deadline is not reasonably practicable, as soon as reasonably practicable) prior to the due date for filing such Tax Return (giving effect to valid filing extensions) to Seller for its review and approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. If Seller and Purchaser are unable to resolve any dispute regarding such Tax Return within fifteen (15) days after Purchaser submits such Tax Return to Seller, the dispute shall be resolved by the Accounting Referee; provided, however, if the due date of any such Tax Return is prior to the date that such dispute is resolved, the Tax Return shall be filed as initially prepared by Purchaser to the extent permitted by Law and shall be subsequently amended to reflect any changes by the Accounting Referee. The fees charged by the Accounting Referee shall be split equally between Purchaser and Seller.

(b) To the extent permitted by applicable Law based on a "more likely than not" standard (or higher level of authority), all income Tax deductions related to Transaction Expenses to the extent arising in the Pre-Closing Tax Period shall be claimed as current deductions on the income Tax Returns of the Company and treated as attributable to the Pre-Closing Tax Period. The Parties agree to apply Revenue Procedure 2011-29, 2011-18 IRB to any success-based fees in the calculation of any such Tax deductions.

(c) Except as otherwise required by applicable Law (as determined based on a "more likely than not" or higher level of review), without the prior written consent of the Seller, which consent shall not be unreasonable withheld, conditioned or delayed, Purchaser shall not, and shall not permit its Affiliates, including the Company, to (i) subject to Section 8.02(a), file any Tax Return of or with respect to the Company for a taxable period ending on or prior to the Closing Date or Straddle Period, (ii) amend, refile, revoke or otherwise modify any Tax Return for the Company, for any Pre-Closing Tax Period or Straddle Period, (iii) make or change any Tax election that applies or is retroactive to a taxable period ending on or prior to the Closing Date or Straddle Period (except, in the case of a Straddle Period, to the extent such Tax election is made in the ordinary course of business), (iv) file any Tax Return for any Company for a Pre-Closing Tax Period in any jurisdiction where prior to the Closing Date the Company has not filed such type of Tax Return; (v) agree to extend the statute of limitations with respect to any assessment of any Tax or deficiency related to a taxable period ending on or prior to the Closing Date or Straddle Period, other (in each case) than in connection with a Tax Proceeding conducted in accordance with Section 8.02(e) for any Company, or (vi) initiate or seek any voluntary disclosure agreement or amnesty type programs involving any Company with a Taxing Authority regarding a Pre-Closing Tax Period.

(d) The Company shall terminate any Tax sharing, Tax allocation or similar agreement to which the Company is a party as of the Closing Date, and, after the Closing Date, the Company shall not be bound thereby or have any liability thereunder.

(e) Purchaser shall notify the Seller in writing within ten (10) days after receipt by Purchaser, any Company or any of their respective Affiliates of notice of any audit or other Proceeding relating to Taxes of a Company relating to any (i) Pre-Closing Tax Period or (ii) Straddle Period (a "Tax Proceeding"); provided, however, that Purchaser's failure to provide such notification shall not affect Sellers' indemnification or other obligations under this Agreement except to the extent that Seller or its Affiliates are materially prejudiced thereby. Such notification shall specify in reasonable detail the basis for such Tax Proceeding and shall include a copy of the relevant portion of any correspondence received from the Taxing Authority. If Purchaser could be entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Agreement with respect to such Tax Proceeding; then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement (i) with respect to Tax Proceedings relating solely to a Pre-Closing Tax Period, the Seller shall have the right (but not the duty), at its own cost or expense, to elect to control such Tax Proceeding by written notice to Purchaser within fifteen (15) days of receiving the written notice of the Tax Proceeding, provided that Purchaser shall have the right, at its own cost of expense, to participate in the defense of such matter and employ counsel, separate from counsel employed by the Seller, and the Seller shall provide Purchaser with a timely and reasonably detailed account of each stage of the Tax Proceeding, shall consult with Purchaser in good faith concerning the appropriate strategy for contesting such Tax Proceeding and shall not settle, compromise, or abandon any Tax Proceeding without obtaining Purchaser's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and (ii) with respect to all Tax Proceedings that the Seller does not elect to control or Tax Proceedings relating to Straddle Periods, Purchaser shall have the right to control such Tax Proceeding; provided, that Seller, at its own cost and expense, shall have the right (but not the duty) to participate in the defense of such Tax Proceeding and to employ counsel, at their own expense, separate from counsel employed by Purchaser and Purchaser shall provide the Seller with a timely and reasonably detailed account of each stage of the Tax Proceeding, shall consult with the Seller in good faith concerning the appropriate strategy for contesting such Tax Proceeding and shall not settle, compromise, or abandon any Tax Proceeding without obtaining the Seller's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(f) After the Closing, the Seller Parties and Purchaser shall cooperate and shall cause their respective Affiliates to cooperate with the Company, and with each other, in connection with the preparation of any Tax Return or any Tax audits, Tax disputes or administrative, judicial or other proceedings related to any Taxes (each, a "Tax Controversy") with respect to the activities or filings of the Company and shall provide any information necessary in connection therewith or reasonably requested to allow any other Party to comply with the provisions of this Agreement. Such cooperation shall include the retention and (upon the other Party's reasonable request) the provision of records and information, including work papers of the Company and their auditors, but excluding records and information that are protected by recognized professional privilege, related to Pre-Closing Tax Periods of the Company and each Subsidiary, which are reasonably relevant to any Tax Returns, claims for refund, or any Tax Controversy. Purchaser agrees to retain all books and records with respect to Tax matters pertinent to the Company relating to any taxable period beginning before the Closing Date until the expiration of the statute of limitations (and, to the extent notified by any other Party, any extensions thereof) of the respective taxable periods, and to abide by all record retention agreements entered into with any Taxing Authority.

(g) The parties hereto shall, to the extent permitted or required under applicable Law, treat the Closing Date as the last day of the taxable period of the Company for all Tax purposes, and Purchaser shall cause the Company to join Purchaser's "consolidated group" (as defined in Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-76(h)) effective on the day after the Closing Date. Purchaser and Seller agree to report all income from transactions not in the ordinary course of business occurring on the Closing Date after the Closing on the Tax Returns of the Company for the taxable period that begins on the day after the Closing Date (or Purchaser's or its Affiliate's consolidated Tax Return if the Company is included in a consolidated Tax Return after the Closing Date) to the extent permitted by Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-76(b)(1)(ii)(B) (or any similar provision of state or local Law).

(h) In the case of any Straddle Period, (i) the amount of any Taxes based upon or related to income or receipts allocated to the Pre-Closing Tax Period shall be determined based on a "closing of the books" as of 11:59 pm Eastern time on the Closing Date, and (ii) the amount of all other Taxes allocated to the Pre-Closing Tax Period shall be determined based upon the amount of such Taxes for the entire period multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of days in the period ending on (and including) the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire period.

For the avoidance of doubt, exemptions, allowances or deductions that are calculated on an annual basis (including, but not limited to, depreciation and amortization deductions) shall be allocated in proportion to the number of days in each period.

(i) Neither Purchaser, the Company nor any of its Affiliates shall make or cause to be made any actual or deemed election under Sections 336(e) or 338 of the Code, or any corresponding provisions of state, local or foreign Laws, with respect to Contemplated Transactions.

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 8.02 shall survive for the full period of all applicable statutes of limitations (giving effect to any waiver, mitigation or extension thereof) plus sixty (60) days.

8.03 Expenses; Transfer Taxes.

(a) All expenses incurred in connection with the Contemplated Transactions shall be paid by the Party incurring such expense; provided, however, that the fees and expenses of the Accounting Referee, if applicable, shall be paid or reimbursed in accordance with Section 2.04(c)(iii).

(b) Seller shall bear one hundred percent (100%) of applicable state, local, transfer, excise, sales, use, ad valorem, value added, registration, stamp, recording and similar Taxes or fees applicable to, imposed upon, or arising out of the Contemplated Transactions and all related interest and penalties (collectively, "Transfer Taxes"). Purchaser and Seller shall cooperate in timely making all filings, returns, reports and forms as necessary or appropriate to comply with the provisions of all applicable Tax Laws in connection with the payment of such Transfer Taxes; provided, that the party required by applicable Law shall timely file any Tax Return or other document with respect to such Transfer Taxes. The relevant party filing the Tax Return shall provide evidence satisfactory to the other parties that such Tax Returns have been duly and timely filed and the relevant Transfer Taxes duly and timely paid. The parties shall reasonably cooperate with each other to lawfully minimize any Transfer Taxes.

8.04 Restrictive Covenants.

(a) Following the Closing Date, each Seller Party hereby covenants and agrees that it shall not, and shall cause its respective Affiliates its and their respective directors, officers, managers, employees not to, directly or indirectly, without Purchaser's written consent, disclose to any third party (other than each other and each of their respective Affiliates and Representatives), or use, any confidential or proprietary information concerning the business of the Company, provided, that the foregoing restriction shall not (a) apply to any such information generally available to, or known by, the public (other than as a result of disclosure in violation of this Section 8.04), or (b) prohibit any disclosure (i) required by Law so long as, to the extent legally permissible, such Seller Party provides Purchaser with reasonable prior notice of such disclosure and a reasonable opportunity to contest such disclosure or (ii) reasonably made in connection with a Proceeding relating to the enforcement of any right or remedy relating to the Contemplated Transactions.

(b) During the Restricted Period, each Seller Party hereby covenants and agrees that it shall not, nor shall attempt to and shall cause its respective Affiliates not to, directly or indirectly (whether alone or jointly with any other Person or Entity under its control) (i) solicit, induce or intentionally encourage any salaried employee or independent contractor of the Company to leave their respective positions with the Company, (ii) hire, employ or otherwise engage any of such individuals described in clause (i), or (iii) become associated with any business which competes anywhere in Utah with the Company's business, which includes, without limitation, the business of operating outpatient mental health services and treatment facilities, including, without limitation, talk therapy, pharmacology, as well as interventional therapies, such as transcranial magnetic stimulation, esketamine treatment, and other clinical treatments whether as an investor (excluding passive investments representing less than two percent (2%) of the common stock of a public company), lender, owner, equityholder, officer, director, consultant, employee, agent, salesperson or in any other capacity or otherwise solicit or induce any customer, Payor, referral source or supplier of the Company to cease or otherwise modify their relationships with the Company; provided, that (A) the foregoing restrictions shall not prohibit any general employment solicitation that is not targeted at the individuals described in clause (i), so long as no such individual is hired or employed as a result of such solicitation, and (B) the foregoing restrictions shall not prohibit any Seller Party (or their respective Affiliates) from engaging in the business expressly contemplated to be performed by a Seller Party (or their Affiliates) by the terms of the Data Sharing Agreement (if any), and Purchaser expressly agrees that the Seller Parties' engagement in the business contemplated therein shall not constitute a violation of this Section 8.04(b)(iii).

(c) Each Seller Party acknowledges and agrees that the covenants set forth in this Section 8.04 are an essential element of the Contemplated Transactions and that, but for these covenants, Purchaser would not enter into this Agreement. The Seller Parties acknowledge and agrees that, in the event that any Seller Party breaches any of the provisions in this Section 8.04, Purchaser, the Company, and their respective Affiliates would suffer irreparable injury and would, therefore, be entitled to injunctive relief from any court having jurisdiction over the matter. Each Seller Party further acknowledges and agrees that he or she is receiving substantial monetary and other benefits from the closing of the Contemplated Transactions and that such benefits, among other things, are more than adequate consideration for the covenants provided by such Seller Party in this Section 8.04.

(d) Each Seller Party and Purchaser acknowledge that the restrictions set forth in this Section 8.04 are reasonable restrictions under the circumstances with respect to duration and scope and are supported by adequate consideration. It is the intention of each Seller and Purchaser that if any of the restrictions or covenants contained in this Section 8.04 are held to be for a length of time that is not permitted by applicable Law, or in any way construed to be too broad or to any extent invalid, such restrictions or covenants shall not be construed to be null, void and of no effect, but to the extent such restrictions or covenants would be valid or enforceable under applicable Law, a court of competent jurisdiction shall have the right, power and authority to modify any restriction or covenant of this Section 8.04 as such court shall deem necessary to cause such restrictions or covenants (as modified) to be valid and enforceable under such applicable Law.

8.05 Seller Intellectual Property. Promptly after the Closing Date, the Seller Parties shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to cease any and all use of the Assigned Intellectual Property (as defined in the Intellectual Property Assignment), including by removing the Assigned Intellectual Property from any and all assets, inventories, advertisements, communications, website content, other internet or electronic communication vehicles and other documents and materials of the Seller Parties and their Affiliates. From and after the Closing Date, no Seller Party nor any of their respective Affiliates shall challenge or assist any third party to challenge the validity, enforceability or ownership of any of the Assigned Intellectual Property or apply for, adopt, use or employ any Assigned Intellectual Property. Without limiting any of Purchaser's other remedies hereunder or in any Ancillary Agreement, if (i) Purchaser identifies any Intellectual Property owned by any Seller Party or any of their Affiliates that was not assigned to the Company pursuant to the Intellectual Property Assignment or otherwise licensed to the Company pursuant to the Trademark License Agreement, (ii) such Intellectual Property was or is used by the Company in its business at any time in the twelve (12) months prior to the Closing Date and (iii) Purchaser concludes in good faith that such Intellectual Property is reasonably necessary for the operation of the Company's business (such Intellectual Property, "Omitted Intellectual Property"), Purchaser may provide notice to the Seller Parties detailing such Omitted Intellectual Property (an "Omitted IP Notice"), and requesting that the Seller Parties and their Affiliates execute and deliver such documents, instruments, conveyances and assurances and take such further actions as may be reasonably required to at Purchaser's option, (i) assign and transfer or (ii) license on substantially similar terms as the license in the Trademark License Agreement, the Omitted Intellectual Property to, at Purchaser's direction, Purchaser, the Company or any of their respective Affiliates, without additional expense or cost to Purchaser, the Company or their Affiliates, as applicable; provided, however, that if Seller disagrees with or objects to (in each case, in writing) a Purchaser's Omitted IP Notice that requests an assignment of any Omitted Intellectual Property in good faith, the Seller Parties shall license such Omitted Intellectual Property to the Company, Purchaser or their Affiliates on substantially similar terms as the license set forth in the Trademark License Agreement for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months following Purchaser's receipt of Seller's written objection or disagreement with such notice.

8.06 Further Assurances; Bank Accounts. Following the Closing, each of the Parties shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to, execute and deliver such additional documents, instruments, conveyances and assurances and take such further actions as may be reasonably required to carry out the provisions hereof and give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Ancillary Agreements. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, following the Closing (or, if permitted by the applicable bank or other financial institution prior to Closing, prior to the Closing) each Seller Party shall, and shall cause its respective employees, officers and directors who are authorized signatories or otherwise authorized representatives with respect to any of the Company's bank accounts, to (i) update the authorized signatories and representatives thereunder with Purchaser's designees and (ii) only take actions with respect to such bank accounts at Purchaser's direction or with Purchaser's prior written consent.

[redacted]

11.02 Expiration of Representations, Warranties and Covenants.

(a) All of the representations and warranties of the Parties set forth in this Agreement shall survive the Closing and continue in full force and effect for twelve (12) months following the Closing Date; provided, however, that each of (i) Fundamental Representations shall survive the Closing and continue in full force and effect until the sixty (60) days following the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (giving effect to any waiver, mitigation or extension thereof) and the (ii) the representations

(b) The covenants and agreement of the Parties set forth herein to be performed at or prior to the Closing and the certifications in any certificate to be delivered at the Closing shall survive until sixty (60) days following the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations and each the covenants and agreements of the Parties that by their terms require performance after the Closing shall survive the Closing until fully performed in accordance with their terms. (c) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 11.02 to the contrary, if, prior to the relevant survival period set forth in Sections 11.02(a) and 11.02(b) (the "Claim Expiration Date"), an Indemnified Party shall have duly delivered in good faith a conforming Notice of Claim to the Indemnifying Party, then the specific indemnification claim set forth in such Notice of Claim (to the extent of the matter specified in the Notice of Claim) shall survive the Claim Expiration Date and shall not be extinguished thereby until resolution of the matter specified in the Notice of Claim in accordance with this Agreement.

11.03 Indemnification Limitations.

Redacted due to confidentiality and/or commercial sensitivity.

11.04 [Reserved].

11.05 Indemnification Claim Procedures.

(a) Promptly after obtaining actual knowledge of any matter that a Purchaser Indemnified Party or a Seller Indemnified Party (the "Indemnified Party"), acting in good faith, reasonably believes will entitle the Indemnified Party to indemnification from the other party (the "Indemnifying Party") under Section 11.01(a) or Section 11.01(b), as applicable, the Indemnified Party shall promptly provide to Indemnifying Party notice describing the matter in reasonable detail, including the nature of the claim for indemnification, the basis for the indemnification obligation and the Damages resulting therefrom (a "Notice of Claim"); provided that the failure to so notify the Indemnifying Party promptly shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of such Indemnifying Party's Liabilities hereunder except to the extent such failure shall have actually and materially prejudiced the Indemnifying Party.

(b) For claims for indemnification under this Article XI other than those relating to Third-Party Claims (as defined below), the Indemnifying Party shall have forty-five (45) days after its receipt of the Notice of Claim to respond to the claim(s) described therein. Such response shall set forth, in reasonable detail, the Indemnifying Party's objection(s) to the claim(s) and its bases for such objection(s). If the Indemnifying Party fails to provide such a response with such forty-five (45)-day time period, the Indemnifying Party will be deemed to have conceded the claim(s) set forth in the Notice of Claim. If the Indemnifying Party provides its response within such time period, the Indemnified Party and the Indemnifying Party shall negotiate the resolution of the claim(s) for a period of not less than twenty (20) Business Days after such response is provided. If the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party are unable to resolve any such claim(s) within such time period, the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to pursue any legal remedies available to the Indemnified Party against the Indemnifying Party with respect solely to the unresolved claim(s), subject to the provisions of this Article XI. The Indemnifying Party shall pay any amounts determined to be owed to the Indemnified Party in accordance with this Article XI in cash as soon as reasonably practicable after any such determination (but in any event within ten (10) days).

11.06 Third Party Claims.

(a) If a third party commences a lawsuit or arbitration (a "Third-Party Claim") against an Indemnified Party with respect to any matter that the Indemnified Party might make a claim for indemnification against any Indemnifying Party under this Article XI, then the Indemnified Party must notify the Indemnifying Party thereof in writing of the existence of such Third-Party Claim and must deliver copies of any documents served on the Indemnified Party with respect to the Third-Party Claim; provided, however, that any failure to notify the Indemnifying Party or deliver copies will not relieve the Indemnifying Party from any obligation hereunder unless (and then solely to the extent) the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced by such failure.

(b) Except for any Third-Party Claim with respect to the matters set forth on Schedule 11.01(a)(vi) or arising out of, with respect to or by reason of any regulatory or compliance matter, which such Third-Party Claims the Indemnified Party shall have sole and exclusive control over, upon receipt of the notice described in Section 11.06(a), the Indemnifying Party will have the right to defend the Indemnified Party against the Third-Party Claim so long as (i) within fifteen (15) days after receipt of such notice, the Indemnifying Party notifies the Indemnified Party in writing that the Indemnifying Party will indemnify the Indemnified Party from and against any Damages the Indemnified Party may incur relating to or arising out of the Third-Party Claim, (ii) the Indemnifying Party provides the Indemnified Party with evidence reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party that the Indemnifying Party will have the financial resources to defend against the Third-Party Claim and fulfill its indemnification obligations hereunder, (iii) the Indemnifying Party has reasonably determined (upon advice of its counsel) in good faith that there would be no conflict of interest or other inappropriate matter associated with joint representation, (iv) the Third-Party Claim involves only money damages and does not seek an injunction or other equitable relief, (v) the Indemnified Party has reasonably determined (upon advice of its counsel) that it does not have additional defenses to the Third-Party Claim not available to the Indemnifying Party, (vi) the Indemnified Party has reasonably determined that an adverse determination with respect to the Third-Party Claim would not be materially detrimental to or materially injure the Indemnified Party's reputation or business, (vii) the Indemnifying Party conducts the defense of the Third-Party Claim actively and diligently, and (viii) the Indemnifying Party keeps the Indemnified Party apprised of all material developments, including settlement offers, with respect to the Third-Party Claim and permits the Indemnified Party to participate in the defense of the Third-Party Claim and to employ counsel of its choice for such purpose, and the fees and expenses of such separate counsel shall be borne by the Indemnified Party.

(c) So long as the Indemnifying Party is conducting the defense of the Third-Party Claim in accordance with Section 11.06(b), the Indemnifying Party will not consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent will not be withheld unreasonably or conditioned or delayed.

(d) If any condition in Section 11.06(b) is or becomes unsatisfied, (i) the Indemnified Party may defend against, and consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to, the Third-Party Claim in any manner it may deem appropriate (with the consent of the Indemnifying Party in connection therewith, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), (ii) subject to the limitations set forth Section 11.03, the Indemnifying Party will reimburse the Indemnified Party promptly and periodically for the costs of defending against the Third-Party Claim, including attorneys' fees and expenses, to the extent the Indemnified Party actually incurs such fees and expenses in connection therewith, and (iii) the Indemnifying Party will remain responsible for any Damages the Indemnified Party may incur relating to or arising out of the Third-Party Claim to the fullest extent provided in this Article XI, subject to Section 11.03.

11.07 Termination of Company's Representations and Warranties and Covenants. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement to the contrary: (a) all representations, warranties and covenants made by the Company in this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements will terminate as to the Company (but only as to the Company, and not as to the Seller Parties) as of the Closing; and (b) after the Closing, the Company will have no Liability to any Seller Party as a direct or indirect result of any misrepresentation, breach of covenant or other occurrence or circumstance for which the Seller Parties have or may have Liability to any Purchaser Indemnified Party under this Agreement.

11.08 Exclusive Remedy.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein (including, for the avoidance of doubt Section 12.13), the right of each Party hereto to assert indemnification claims and receive indemnification payments pursuant to this Article XI shall, from and after the Closing Date, be the sole and exclusive monetary right and remedy exercisable by such Party with respect to any breach by any other Party hereto of any covenant, representation, warranty, or otherwise under or relating to the subject matter of this Article XI.

(b) Nothing herein shall operate to limit the liability of any Party to the other Party hereto for Fraud.

11.09 Manner of Payment.

(a) Any indemnification payment to any Seller Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 11.01(b) shall be effected by wire transfer of immediately available funds from the applicable Persons to an account designated in writing by the applicable Seller Indemnified Party within ten (10) days after the final determination thereof.

(b) Any indemnification payment owed by the Seller Parties to any Purchaser Indemnified Party directly from the Seller Parties (on a joint and several basis), which shall be effected by wire transfer of immediately available funds from the applicable Persons to an account designated in writing by the applicable Purchaser Indemnified Party within ten (10) days after the final determination thereof.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if any Seller Party is obligated to indemnify any Purchaser Indemnified Party against any Damages with respect to an indemnification claim under this Article XI, Purchaser (on behalf of the applicable Purchaser Indemnified Party) may, at its option and in any order as Purchaser elects, proceed to set-off all or any portion of such Damages against any payment of (i) any Earnout Consideration that may become payable by Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.05 after the final determination thereof and (ii) any Deferred Payment payable pursuant to Section 2.06; provided, however, the Seller Parties shall continue to be jointly and severally liable for such Damages, or any portion thereof, not set-off by Purchaser. If, at the time any Earnout Consideration pursuant to Section 2.05 or any Deferred Payment pursuant to Section 2.06 is due a claim for indemnification pursuant to this Article XI has been asserted by a Purchaser Indemnified Party but remains unresolved as of such time (a "Pending Claim") exists, then Purchaser shall be entitled to hold back from any such payment the aggregate amount of all such Pending Claims (after giving effect to any limitations on recovery therefor set forth in this Article XI). When any such Pending Claim is finally resolved, whether by written agreement between all relevant parties or other determination, Purchaser shall have the right to set-off against the amounts held back by Purchaser pursuant to this Section 11.09(c) an amount equal to the amount, if any, of such Pending Claim finally resolved in favor of the Purchaser Indemnified Parties, and if there is any excess of the held back amount retained solely in respect of such resolved Pending Claim, then Purchaser will release such excess to the Seller Parties, otherwise in accordance with Section 2.05 or Section 2.06, as applicable, within ten (10) days after such final resolution.

11.10 Tax Treatment of Indemnification Payments. All indemnification payments made under this Agreement shall be treated by the parties as an adjustment to the Final Purchase Price for Tax purposes, unless otherwise required by Law.

ARTICLE XII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Each section of the Disclosure Schedule qualifies the correspondingly numbered representation and warranty or covenant and any other representation or warranty to the extent the applicability of the disclosure to such other representation or warranty is reasonably apparent on its face. The Disclosure Schedule is qualified in its entirety by reference to specific provisions of the Agreement, and is not intended to constitute, and shall not be construed as constituting, any representation or warranty or covenant of the Seller Parties, except as and to the extent expressly provided in this Agreement. Capitalized terms used but not defined in the Disclosure Schedule shall have the same meanings given them in this Agreement.

12.02 No Third Party Liability. This Agreement may only be enforced against the named Parties hereto. The provisions of this Section 12.02 are intended for the benefit of, and enforceable by, each officer, director, stockholder, partner, employee, attorney, Representative, and Affiliate of any Party hereto, and each such Person shall be a third party beneficiary of this Section 12.02.

expected to delay, impede or prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Any purported assignment not permitted under this Section 12.03 shall be null and void.

12.04 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties and their successors and assigns and nothing herein expressed or implied shall give or be construed to give to any Person (other than the Parties and such successors and assigns) any legal or equitable rights hereunder, other than the Persons intended to benefit from the provisions of Section 8.02 (Tax Matters), Article XI (Indemnification and Related Matters) and Section 12.02 (No Third Party Liability), each of whom shall have the right to enforce such provision directly.

12.06 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be an original, and all of which when executed shall constitute one and the same instrument. The exchange of copies of this Agreement and of signature pages by facsimile, portable document format (.pdf), or other electronic transmission shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Agreement as to the parties and may be used in lieu of the original Agreement for all purposes. 12.10 Governing Law; Venue; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) This Agreement, and all claims or causes of action (whether in contract or tort or otherwise) that may be based upon, arise out of, or relate to this Agreement or the negotiation, execution or performance of this Agreement (including any claim or cause of action based upon, arising out of or related to any representation or warranty made in or in connection with this Agreement or as an inducement to enter into this Agreement), shall be governed solely by and construed in accordance with the internal Laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the conflict of law principles thereof.

(b) Except to the extent contemplated in Section 2.04, any other Proceeding or legal action relating to this Agreement or the enforcement of any provision of this Agreement (including any Proceeding relating to a claim for indemnification in accordance with Article XI or for specific performance in accordance with Section 12.13) shall be brought or otherwise commenced in the Delaware Court of Chancery. Each Party:

(i) expressly and irrevocably consents and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery (and each appellate court located in the State of Delaware) in connection with any such Proceeding;

(ii) agrees that the Delaware Court of Chancery shall be deemed to be a convenient forum; and

(iii) agrees not to assert (by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise), in any such Proceeding commenced in the Delaware Court of Chancery, any claim that such Party is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of such court, that such Proceeding has been brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of such Proceeding is improper or that this Agreement or the subject matter of this Agreement may not be enforced in or by such court.

(c) In the event that the Delaware Court of Chancery does not accept jurisdiction in accordance with Section 12.10(b), each Party hereby expressly and irrevocably agrees that any Proceeding or other legal action relating to this Agreement or the enforcement of any provision of this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware located in Wilmington, Delaware.

(d) Each Seller Party irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 12.05. Nothing in this Agreement will affect the right of any Party to serve process in any other manner by applicable Law.

(e) EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDING IN ANY COURT WITH RESPECT TO, IN CONNECTION WITH OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE VALIDITY, PROTECTION, INTERPRETATION, COLLECTION OR ENFORCEMENT HEREOF.

12.11 Attorneys' Fees. 12.12 Waiver and Release. Effective as of the Closing, each Seller Party, on behalf of itself and its respective Affiliates, owners, equity holders, officers, directors, members, managers, employees, agents, Representatives, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Releasors") hereby unconditionally and irrevocably releases and discharges Purchaser, the Company, and their respective Affiliates, and each of their respective owners, equity holders, officers, directors, members, managers, employees, agents, Representatives, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Releasees") in each case from any and all Damages, claims, demands, Liens, Proceedings, controversies, costs, attorneys' fees, expenses, Judgments and Liabilities, of whatever kind or nature, at law, in equity or otherwise, whether now known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, fixed or contingent or choate or inchoate, and whether or not concealed or hidden, which such Releasor ever had, now has or hereafter can, shall or may have against any Releasee for, upon or by reason of any matter, fact or circumstance occurring or arising at any time prior to the Closing in any way relating to the Company or its business; provided that the foregoing shall not affect any rights that any Releasor may have pursuant to this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement. Each Seller Party, on behalf of itself and the other Releasors, represents and warrants that it has not assigned any of its claims released by this Section 12.12 to any other Person on or prior to the Closing Date and will not assign any such claim. Each Seller Party, on behalf of itself and the other Releasors, expressly represents and warrants that it has been advised by its legal counsel, and understands and acknowledges the significance and consequence of this release and of the specific waiver set forth in this Section 12.12, and recognizes and understands that the same applies to and covers all claims described in this Section 12.12, whether or not known or suspected to exist at the present time.

12.13 Specific Performance. The Parties agree that: (a) in the event of any breach or threatened breach by any Party of any covenant, obligation or other provision set forth in this Agreement, the other Parties shall be entitled (in addition to any other remedy that may be available to it) to (i) a decree or order of specific performance or mandamus to enforce the observance and performance of such covenant, obligation or other provision, and (ii) an injunction restraining such breach or threatened breach; and (b) no Party shall be required to provide any bond or other security in connection with any such decree, order or injunction or in connection with any related action or Proceeding.

12.14 Waiver.

(a) No failure on the part of any Person to exercise any power, right, privilege or remedy under this Agreement, and no delay on the part of any Person in exercising any power, right, privilege or remedy under this Agreement, shall operate as a waiver of such power, right, privilege or remedy; and no single or partial exercise of any such power, right, privilege or remedy shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right, privilege or remedy.

(b) No Person shall be deemed to have waived any claim arising out of this Agreement, or any power, right, privilege or remedy under this Agreement, unless the waiver of such claim, power, right, privilege or remedy is expressly set forth in a written instrument duly executed and delivered on behalf of such Person; and any such waiver shall not be applicable or have any effect except in the specific instance in which it is given.

(c) As used in this Agreement, the words "include" and "including" and variations thereof, shall not be deemed to be terms of limitation, but rather shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation."

(d) Except as otherwise indicated, all references in this Agreement to "subsections," "Sections", "Schedules" and "Exhibits" are intended to refer to subsections and Sections of this Agreement, Schedules of this Agreement and Exhibits to this Agreement.

(e) The words "this Agreement," "hereby," "hereof," "herein," "hereunder," and comparable words refer to all of this Agreement, including the Appendices, Schedules, and Disclosure Schedule to this Agreement, and not to any particular Article, Section, preamble, recital, or other subdivision of this Agreement or Appendix, Schedule, or Disclosure Schedule to this Agreement.

The Disclosure Schedule and Schedules annexed hereto or referred to herein are hereby incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement as if set forth in full herein. Any capitalized terms used in any Schedule or in the Disclosure Schedule but not otherwise defined therein, shall have the meaning as defined in this Agreement.

(g) The definitions included in the recitals to this Agreement are intended to be a part of, and are hereby incorporated into, this Agreement in their entirety.

(h) The phrase "ordinary course of business" when used in this Agreement means the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice.

(i) The phrase "made available" when used in this Agreement means, with respect to any document or information, that the same has been uploaded to the Microsoft 365 Sharepoint Folder titled "Project Stella" on or prior to the date of this Agreement.

12.16 Legal Representation.

(a) Each of the Parties acknowledges that Cozen O'Connor P.C. ("Cozen O'Connor") currently serves as counsel to the Seller Parties and the Company, including in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions. There may come a time, including after the Closing, when the interests of the Seller Parties and the Company may no longer be aligned or when, for any reason, the Seller Parties, Cozen O'Connor or the Company believe that Cozen O'Connor cannot or should no longer represent both the Seller Parties and the Company. The Parties understand and specifically agree that Cozen O'Connor may withdraw from representing the Company and continue to represent the Seller Parties, even if the interests of the Seller Parties, and the interests of the Company, are or may be adverse, including in connection with any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Contemplated Transactions, and even though Cozen O'Connor may have represented the Company in a matter substantially related to such dispute or may be handling ongoing matters for one or more of the Company or any of their Affiliates, and Purchaser and the Company hereby consent thereto and waive any conflict of interest arising therefrom.

(b) Each of the Parties agrees that, as to all communications among Cozen O'Connor, the Company and the Seller Parties prior to the Closing related exclusively to the Contemplated Transactions, the attorney-client privilege, the expectation of client confidence and all other rights to any evidentiary privilege belong to the Seller Parties and shall not pass to or be claimed by the Company. As to any such privileged attorney client communications between Cozen O'Connor, the Company and the Seller Parties prior to the Closing (collectively, the "Seller Privileged Communications"), Purchaser and the Company, together with any of their respective Affiliates, successors or assigns, agree that no such Person may use or rely on any of Seller Privileged Communications in any action or claim against or involving any of the Parties after the Closing; provided, however, that such privilege may be asserted by Purchaser or the Company against third parties. In addition, if the Closing occurs, the Company shall have no right of access to or control over any of Cozen O'Connor's records related to the Contemplated Transactions, which shall become the property of (and be controlled by) the Seller, except in any action against third parties to enforce privilege asserted by Purchaser or the Company against any third parties. Furthermore, in the event of a dispute between the Seller and the Company arising out of or relating to any matter in which Cozen O'Connor acted for them both, none of the attorney-client privilege, the expectation of client confidence or any other rights to any evidentiary privilege related to such Seller Privileged Communications will protect from disclosure to the Seller the Seller Privileged Communications.
