EXPLORATION AND EVALUATION ASSETS

LIBERTY USA PROPERTIES (Nevada and Utah, USA)

On July 7, 2016, the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Logan Resources USA, Inc. ("Logan USA"), entered into an option agreement with Pilot Gold (USA) Corp. ("Liberty USA"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Liberty Gold Corp. (formerly "Pilot Gold Inc."), to acquire up to an 80% interest in certain gold mineral exploration properties located in Nevada and Utah, USA (the "Liberty Transaction"). The option agreement provided for the Company to evaluate a total of nine exploration properties over a 12 month period. The Company has satisfied the conditions of the option agreement with Liberty USA and has earned a 51% participating interest in the Brik, Viper, Antelope, and Easter properties (the "Selected Properties"). The remaining five properties (Anchor, Drum, Griffon, Sandy and Stateline) were returned to Liberty USA.

The Company earned a 51% interest in the Selected Properties by:

- incurring US$1,000,000 in cumulative exploration expenditures by August 18, 2017 (incurred);
- issuing common shares of the Company to Liberty USA equal to 9.9% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company after the closing of a concurrent financing (issued, see "Share Capital"); and
- selecting four of the nine properties and returning the remaining five properties to Liberty USA with a minimum of one year of the holding costs paid for by the Company (completed).

The Company can earn a 70% interest in the Selected Properties by incurring additional expenditures of US$2,000,000 by August 18, 2019 and issuing 1,000,000 common shares of the Company to Liberty USA.

The Company will then have the additional option to earn an 80% interest in any of the Selected Properties on which it has completed a prefeasibility study.

Once the Company earns its 80% interest in a Selected Property, or earlier if the Company has earned at least a 51% or 70% interest and declines to exercise its additional option(s), the Company and Liberty USA shall form a joint venture and each party will thereafter be responsible for its pro rata share of expenditures on the Selected Property.

The Company is required to pay advance minimum royalties on certain of the Selected Properties, as described below.

GORILLA LAKE PROPERTY (Saskatchewan, Canada)

Pursuant to a series of option agreements, Alpha Exploration Inc. ("Alpha"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of ALX Uranium Corp. ("ALX"), held an 80% interest in these uranium claims.

The Company retained a 20% carried interest in the property and Alpha was required to pay, perform and discharge all obligations in respect of the property and maintain the claims in good standing. This carried interest was to continue until Alpha:

- a) Delivered a bankable feasibility study to the Company; or
- b) Transferred all of its interest in the property to the Company with no less than 2 years of good standing remaining.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, equity (deficiency), income (loss), expenses and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Critical Judgments

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make judgments regarding the going concern of the Company, as discussed in Note 1 of the accompanying audited consolidated financial statements.

Key Sources of Estimation Uncertainty

Significant estimates made by management affecting the accompanying audited consolidated financial statements include:

Deferred tax assets and liabilities

The estimation of income taxes includes evaluating the recoverability of deferred tax assets and liabilities based on an assessment of the Company's ability to utilize the underlying future tax deductions against future taxable income prior to expiry of those deductions. Management assesses whether it is probable that some or all of the deferred income tax assets and liabilities will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets and liabilities is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income, which in turn is dependent upon the successful discovery, development and commercialization of mineral reserves. To the extent that management's assessment of the Company's ability to utilize future tax deductions changes, the Company would be required to recognize more or fewer deferred tax assets or liabilities, and deferred income tax provisions or recoveries could be affected.

Exploration and evaluation assets

The Company is in the process of exploring and evaluating its exploration and evaluation assets and has not yet determined whether the properties contain mineral reserves that are economically recoverable. The recoverability of the amounts shown for exploration and evaluation assets are dependent upon the existence of economically recoverable mineral reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing to complete the development of those mineral reserves and upon future production or proceeds from the disposition thereof.

Future reclamation provision

The Company assesses its provision for reclamation related to its exploration and evaluation activities at each reporting period or when new material information becomes available. Accounting for reclamation obligations requires management to make estimates of the future costs that will be incurred to complete the reclamation to comply with existing laws and regulations. Actual future costs that will be incurred may differ from those amounts estimated as a result of changes to environmental laws and regulations, timing of future cash flows, changes to future costs, technical advances, and other factors. In addition, the actual work required may prove to be more extensive than estimated because of unexpected geological or other technical factors. The measurement of the present value of the future obligation is dependent on the selection of a suitable discount rate and the estimate of future cash outflows. Changes to either of these estimates may materially affect the present value calculation of the obligation.

Management's Discussion & Analysis
For the Year Ended March 31, 2018
Date Prepared: July 11, 2018

Share-based payments

Estimating fair value for granted stock options requires determining the most appropriate valuation model which is dependent on the terms and conditions of the grant. This estimate also requires determining the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including the expected life of the option or warrant, volatility, dividend yield, and rate of forfeitures and making assumptions about them.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

For a complete summary of the Company's accounting policies and new accounting standards to be adopted, see Note 3 of the Company's accompanying audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2018.

RISK FACTORS

The exploration of mineral deposits involves significant risks and uncertainties, which even a combination of careful evaluation, experience and knowledge may not eliminate. In addition, the completion of the transaction with Voleo involves significant risks and uncertainties. Certain of the more prominent risk factors that may materially affect the Company's future performance, in addition to those referred to above, are listed hereunder.

Uncertainties associated with the Transaction

The Transaction will involve the integration of companies that previously operated independently. An important factor in the success of the Transaction will be the ability of the management of the resulting issuer to integrate all or part of the operations, systems and technologies of the Company and Voleo following completion of the Transaction. The Transaction and/or the integration of the two businesses can result in unanticipated operational problems and interruptions, expenses and liabilities, the diversion of management attention and the loss of key employees. There can be no assurance that the Transaction and business integration will be successful or that the combination will not adversely affect the business, financial condition or operating results of the Company or Voleo. In addition, the Company or Voleo may incur costs related to the Transaction and related to the amalgamation. There can be no assurance that the Company, Voleo or the resulting issuer will not incur additional material costs in subsequent quarters to reflect additional costs associated with the Transaction or that that the benefits expected from the Transaction will be realized.

The Company and Voleo expect to incur significant costs associated with the Transaction

The Company and Voleo will collectively incur significant direct transaction costs in connection with the Transaction. Actual direct transaction costs incurred in connection with the Transaction may be higher than expected. Moreover, certain of the Company's and Voleo's costs related to the Transaction, including legal, financial advisory services, accounting, printing and mailing costs, must be paid even if the Transaction is not completed. There are also opportunity costs associated with the diversion of management attention away from the conduct of the Company and Voleo's respective businesses in the ordinary course.

The amalgamation agreement may be terminated in certain circumstances

Each of the Company and Voleo has the right to terminate the amalgamation agreement in certain circumstances. Accordingly, there is no certainty, nor can either of Voleo or the Company provide any assurance, that the amalgamation agreement will not be terminated by either Voleo or the Company before the completion of the Transaction. For instance, the Company and Voleo have the right, in certain circumstances, to terminate the amalgamation agreement if changes occur that have a material adverse effect. There is no assurance that a material adverse effect will not occur before the closing date, in which case either the Company or Voleo could elect to terminate the amalgamation agreement and the Transaction would not proceed.

Logan Resources Ltd.
Management's Discussion & Analysis
For the Year Ended March 31, 2018
Date Prepared: July 11, 2018

There can be no assurance that all conditions precedent to the Transaction will be satisfied

The completion of the Transaction is subject to a number of conditions precedent, certain of which are outside the control of the Company and Voleo. There is no certainty, nor can Voleo or the Company provide any assurance, that these conditions will be satisfied or, if satisfied, when they will be satisfied. The requirement to take certain actions or to agree to certain conditions to satisfy such requirements or obtain any such approvals may have a material adverse effect on the business and affairs of the Company or Voleo or the trading price of the Company's common shares. If for any reason the Transaction is not completed, the market price of the Company's common shares may be adversely affected. Moreover, if the amalgamation agreement is terminated, there is no assurance that the Company's Board will be able to find another similar transaction to pursue.

Entry into new business activities

Completion of the Transaction will result in a combination of the current business activities carried on by each of the Company and Voleo as separate entities. The combination of these activities into the merged entity may expose the Company's shareholders and creditors to different business risks than those to which they were exposed prior to the Transaction. In particular, shareholders will gain exposure to the business of Voleo.

If the Transaction is not completed, the Company's future business and operations could be harmed

If the Transaction is not completed, the Company may be subject to a number of additional material risks, including the following:

- the Company may have lost opportunities that would have otherwise been available had the amalgamation agreement not been executed, including, without limitation, opportunities not pursued as a result of affirmative and negative covenants made by it in the amalgamation agreement, such as covenants affecting the conduct of its business outside the ordinary course of business;
- the Company may be unable to obtain additional sources of financing or conclude another sale, merger or amalgamation on terms as favourable as those of the Transaction, in a timely manner, or at all.

Financing

The Company does not currently have any operations generating cash to fund projected levels of exploration and evaluation activity and associated overhead costs. The Company is therefore dependent upon debt and equity financing to carry out any future exploration and evaluation plans. There can be no assurance that such financing will be available to the Company. In the future, the Company will require additional funding to maintain its mineral properties in good standing. The lack of additional financing could result in delay or indefinite postponement of further exploration and possible, partial, or total loss of the Company's interest in its exploration and evaluation assets.

The Company has a history of losses and expects to incur losses for the foreseeable future

The Company has incurred losses since its inception and expects to incur losses for the foreseeable future. The Company expects to continue to incur losses unless and until such time as one of its mineral projects enters into commercial production and generates sufficient revenues to fund continuing operations. The exploration and development of a mineral project will require the commitment of substantial financial resources. The amount and timing of expenditures will depend on a number of factors, including the progress of ongoing exploration, evaluation and development, the results of consultant analysis and recommendations, the rate at which operating losses are incurred, the execution of any agreements with strategic partners and our acquisition of additional properties. Some of these factors are beyond the Company's control. There can be no assurance that the Company will ever achieve profitability.

Share price volatility

In recent years, the securities markets in the United States and Canada have experienced a high level of price and volume volatility, and the market prices of securities of many companies have experienced wide fluctuations that have not been necessarily related to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies. There can be no assurance that fluctuations in the Company's share price will not occur. It may be anticipated that any quoted market for our common shares will be subject to market trends generally, notwithstanding any potential success in creating revenues, cash flows or earnings. The value of the Company's common shares will be affected by such volatility.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

The Company has no off-balance sheet arrangements.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The fair value of the Company's amounts receivable, deposit, reclamation bonds, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and due to related parties approximate their carrying value, the amount presented on the statements of financial position, due to their short-term maturities or ability of prompt liquidation. Cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities are measured at fair value based on level one quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities under the fair value hierarchy. The reclamation bonds are measured at amortized cost.

The Company is exposed in varying degrees to a variety of financial instrument related risks.

Credit risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents, amounts receivable, deposit and reclamation bonds. The risk arises from the non-performance by counterparties of contractual financial obligations. To minimize credit risk, the Company places cash and cash equivalents and deposit with high credit quality financial institutions. The Company's policy is to invest excess cash in investment-grade short-term deposit certificates issued by reputable financial institutions with which it keeps its bank accounts. Amounts receivable consist of input tax credits due from the Government of Canada and as such are exposed to insignificant credit risk. The reclamation bonds are held by the Bureau of Land Management of the United States Department of the Interior and as such are exposed to insignificant credit risk.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due.

The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to provide reasonable assurance that it has sufficient capital to meet short-term financial obligations after taking into account its exploration obligations and cash on hand. The Company will require additional funding in the next 12 months to maintain its exploration and evaluation properties in good standing, including meeting advance royalty payment obligations, evaluate strategic opportunities, for administrative overhead expenditures and working capital purposes.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, commodity and equity prices and currency rates.

Logan Resources Ltd.
Management's Discussion & Analysis
For the Year Ended March 31, 2018
Date Prepared: July 11, 2018

Interest rate risk

The Company has cash and cash equivalents balances and no interest bearing debt. The interest earned on cash and cash equivalents approximates fair value rates and therefore the Company is not at a significant risk to fluctuating interest rates.

Price risk

The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to its investments in publicly traded securities. The Company closely monitors those prices to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company can exit these positions, if required, resulting in proceeds approximating the carrying value of these securities.

The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to commodity and equity prices. Equity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on the Company's earnings due to movements in individual equity prices or general movements in the level of the stock market. Commodity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on earnings and economic value due to commodity price movements and volatilities. The Company's ability to raise capital to fund exploration and evaluation activities is subject to risks associated with fluctuations in the market price of gold and precious metals. The Company closely monitors commodity prices and marketable securities to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken.

Currency risk

The Company has entered into option agreements with respect to properties located in the United States for which expenditures will be incurred in US dollars, exposing the Company to currency risk. The Company's most recent financing was in Canadian dollars but any future equity raised may be in either US dollars or Canadian dollars. Less than 1% of the Company's cash and cash equivalents are held in US dollar bank accounts as at March 31, 2018. A 10% change in the Canadian dollar versus the US dollar would affect the loss and comprehensive loss of the Company by approximately $6,300.
