

MADISON PACIFIC PROPERTIES INC.

INFORMATION CIRCULAR

as at January 9, 2023 unless otherwise noted

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

This Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of Madison Pacific Properties Inc. (“Madison Pacific” or the “Company”) for use at the Annual General Meeting of the shareholders of the Company (the “Meeting”) to be held at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Meeting and at any adjournment thereof. The solicitation will be by mail and possibly supplemented by telephone, electronic mail or other personal contact to be made without special compensation by regular officers and employees of the Company. No solicitation will be made by specifically engaged employees or soliciting agents. The cost of solicitation will be borne by the Company. The Company does not reimburse shareholders, nominees or agents for the costs incurred in obtaining from their principals authorization to execute forms of proxy.

Shareholders are entitled to vote at the Meeting in person or by proxy. In light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the Company encourages shareholders to vote their shares in advance of the meeting by proxy rather than attend the meeting in person. Those attending the meeting in person will be required to comply with all health recommendations, regulations, guidance and orders.

APPOINTMENT AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

The persons named in the accompanying instrument of proxy are directors and/or officers of the Company, and are proxyholders nominated by management. A shareholder has the right to appoint a person to attend and act for him on his behalf at the Meeting other than the nominees of management named in the enclosed instrument of proxy. To exercise this right, a shareholder must insert the name of his nominee in the blank space provided on the proxy. A proxyholder need not be a shareholder of the Company.

A form of proxy will only be valid if it is duly completed and signed and dated then deposited to the Company's registrar and transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services Inc., Proxy Department, 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, Toronto Ontario, by the method set out in the form of proxy. In all cases, proxies are to be received, at least 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, prior to the commencement of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

An instrument of proxy must be signed by the shareholder or by his attorney in writing, or, if the shareholder is a corporation, it must either be under its common seal or signed by a duly authorized officer.

A proxy may be revoked by:

- (a) signing a proxy bearing a later date and depositing it at the place and within the time aforesaid; or
- (b) signing and dating a written notice of revocation (in the same manner as the proxy is required to be executed, as set out in the notes to the proxy) and either delivering the same to the registered office of the Company at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof at which the proxy is to be used, or to the Chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

VOTING OF SHARES AND EXERCISE OF DISCRETION OF PROXIES

If a shareholder specifies a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares represented by proxy will be voted or withheld from voting by the proxyholder in accordance with those instructions on any ballot that may be called for. In the enclosed form of proxy, in the absence of any instructions in the proxy, it is intended that such shares will be voted by the proxyholder, if a nominee of management, in favour of the motions proposed to be made at the Meeting as stated under the headings in the Notice of Meeting to which this Information Circular is attached and in particular, in favour of the nominees for the election of directors, and in favour of the appointment of auditors, as set forth herein. If any amendments or variations to such matters, or any other matters, are properly brought before the Meeting, the proxyholder, if a nominee of management, will exercise its discretion and vote on such matters in accordance with its best judgement.

At the time of printing this Information Circular, management of the Company is not aware that any amendments or variations to existing matters or new matters are to be presented for action at the Meeting.

The instrument of proxy enclosed, when properly signed and deposited, confers discretionary authority on proxyholders other than the nominees of management named in the instrument of proxy with respect to the matters identified herein, amendments or variations to those matters, or any other matters which may properly be brought before the Meeting. To enable the proxyholder to exercise its discretionary authority, a shareholder must insert the name of its nominee in the space provided in the form of proxy.

NON-REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS

Only registered holders of Class B Voting Common Shares or duly appointed proxyholders are permitted to vote at the Meeting. Most shareholders of Madison Pacific are “non-registered” shareholders because the Class B Voting Common Shares they own are not registered in their names but are instead registered in the name of the brokerage firm, bank, or trust company through which they purchased the shares or a clearing agency. More particularly, a person is not a registered shareholder in respect of Class B Voting Common Shares which are held on behalf of that person (the “Non-Registered Holder”) but which are registered either: (a) in the name of an intermediary (an “Intermediary”) that the Non-Registered Holder deals with in respect of the Class B Voting Common Shares (Intermediaries include, among others, banks, trust companies, securities dealers or brokers and trustees or administrators of self-administered RRSPs, RRIFs, RESPs and similar plans); or (b) in the name of a clearing agency (such as CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc. (“CDS”)) of which the Intermediary is a participant. Madison Pacific has two kinds of Non-Registered Holders - those who have given permission to their Intermediary to disclose their ownership information, otherwise referred to as “non-objecting beneficial owners”, and those who have objected to their Intermediary’s disclosure of this information, otherwise referred to as “objecting beneficial owners”. As allowed under Canadian provincial securities laws, Madison Pacific has obtained a list of non-objecting beneficial owners from Intermediaries and has used that list to distribute proxy-related materials directly to non-objecting beneficial owners. Madison Pacific is not sending proxy-related materials using notice-and-access procedures.

Non-objecting beneficial owners will receive a voting instruction form from Computershare Investor Services Inc. Objecting beneficial owners will receive a voting instruction form from its Intermediary.

The voting instruction form is similar to the proxy that Madison Pacific provided to registered shareholders; however, its purpose is limited to instructing the Intermediary or clearing agency, as the registered shareholder, on how to vote. No person will be admitted at the Meeting to vote by presenting a voting instruction form.

To vote using the voting instruction form, Non-Registered Holders should complete and return the voting instruction form in accordance with its instructions.

To vote in person at the Meeting, Non-Registered Holders must instruct Computershare Investor Services Inc. if they are a non-objecting beneficial owner, or their Intermediary if they are an objecting beneficial owner, to be appointed as proxyholder.

Securities legislation allows a non-objecting beneficial owner to submit to Madison Pacific or its Intermediary any document in writing that requests that such non-objecting beneficial owner or its nominee be appointed as proxyholder. If such a request is received, Madison Pacific or the Intermediary, as applicable, must arrange, without expense to the non-objecting beneficial owner, to appoint such non-objecting beneficial owner or its nominee as a proxyholder and to deposit that proxy within the time specified in this Information Circular, provided that Madison Pacific or the Intermediary receives such written instructions at least one business day prior to the time at which proxies are to be submitted for use at the Meeting. Accordingly, any such request must be received at least 72 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the Meeting or the adjournment thereof.

Madison Pacific does not intend to pay for Intermediaries to forward to objecting beneficial owners the proxy-related materials and Form 54-101F7 Request for Voting Instructions Made by Intermediary, and an objecting beneficial owner will not receive those materials unless the objecting beneficial owner's Intermediary assumes the cost of delivery.

If Non-Registered Holders have any questions, they should contact Computershare Investor Services Inc. if they are a non-objecting beneficial owner, or their Intermediary if they are an objecting beneficial owner.

VOTING SHARES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

Only those holders of record of Class B Voting Common Shares on January 9, 2023, will be entitled to vote at the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, in person or by proxy. Majority Voting for Directors

The Board of Directors adopted a majority voting policy in 2013. This majority voting policy will have no force and effect as new provisions under the CBCA have introduced a statutory voting requirement for uncontested director elections. Under the CBCA provisions, shareholders will be allowed to vote “for” or “against” each nominee for the Board of Directors (as opposed to “for” or “withhold”). If a nominee does not receive a majority of the votes cast for their election, the nominee will not be elected and that director position will remain open or, in the case of an incumbent director, such director may continue in office until the earlier of (i) the 90th day after the election, or (ii) the day on which their successor is appointed or elected.

STATEMENT ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND DIVERSITY DISCLOSURE

The Company is committed to ensuring that the Company has an effective corporate governance system. The Company’s current governance practices pursuant to National Instrument 58-101 are specifically set out in Appendix A to this information circular in the form required by Form 58-101F1. Appendix A also includes the diversity disclosure required pursuant to section 172.1 of the CBCA.

The following information highlights the structures and processes of corporate governance at the Company.

Mandate of the Board

The mandate of the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) is to supervise the management of the business and affairs of the Company. In fulfilling its mandate, the Board as a whole oversees the development and application of policies regarding corporate governance and dealing with corporate governance issues, and is responsible for:

- (a) adoption of a strategic planning process for the Company;
- (b) identification of the principal risks of the Company's business and ensuring the implementation of the appropriate systems to manage these risks;
- (c) succession planning for the Company, including identifying, appointing, training and monitoring senior management;
- (d) overseeing the integrity of the Company's internal controls and management information systems; and
- (e) maintaining a continuing dialogue with management in order to ensure the ability to respond to changes, both internal and external, which may affect the Company and its business operations from time to time.

Composition of the Board

All of the Directors, with the exception of the President and Chief Executive Officer, are unrelated Directors. Independence of the Board from management is enhanced in that the position of Chairman is separate from that of the Chief Executive Officer.

Board Effectiveness

The Governance Committee oversees the corporate governance processes at the Company which include the manner in which the Board should operate. The nature and format of information provided to the Board by management is reviewed. At the Board’s regularly scheduled meetings, the Directors review management's significant operational plans, initiatives and activities, as well as systems related to the identification and control of principal business risks. Unrelated Directors hold discussions completely independent of management as required. The Board of Directors met 4 times during the year ended August 31, 2022.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board has established an Audit Committee, a Corporate Governance Committee, a Nominating Committee, and a Compensation Committee.

Board Authority and Delegation

The Directors have reserved approval for all matters other than certain authorization and approval levels delegated to management. All Committees make recommendations which are presented to the Board for approval. The composition and mandates of each of these Board Committees are outlined as follows:

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee reviews the annual financial statements of the Company and certain other public disclosure documents required by regulatory authorities, including news releases disclosing financial results, and makes recommendations to the Board with respect to such statements and documents. The Committee also makes recommendations to the Board regarding the appointment of independent auditors, meets independently with the auditors to review the nature and scope of the annual audit as proposed by the auditors and management, and reviews with management the risks inherent in the Company's business and risk management programs relating thereto. The Audit Committee also reviews with the auditors and management the adequacy of the internal accounting control procedures and systems within the Company. The Audit Committee is composed of three non-related members of the Board.

Further information concerning the Audit Committee is set out in the section entitled "Audit Committee" in the Company's current Annual Information Form.

Corporate Governance Committee and Nominating Committee

The mandate of the Corporate Governance Committee is the general responsibility for developing the Company's approach to governance issues. The Committee is responsible for assessing directors on an ongoing basis, for assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the contribution of individual directors. The Corporate Governance Committee is composed of five members of the Board, all of which are non-related members except for one. The Nominating Committee is a subset of the Corporate Governance Committee and is composed entirely of the non-related members of the Board and is responsible for nominating persons for election or appointment as directors.

Compensation Committee

For particulars of the composition and functions of the Compensation Committee, see “Executive Compensation”.

Decisions Requiring Prior Board Approval

In addition to matters which must either by law or by the by-laws of the Company be approved by the Board, management is required to seek Board approval for major transactions.

New Directors

It is the Board's intention that as and when a new nominee for election or appointment is identified, it will ensure that a full program of orientation and education is provided for the nominee, including (but not limited to) provision of a complete corporate history, including copies of past minutes of Board meetings, as well as information regarding the Company's business and operations.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing executive compensation for the President and CEO and other senior officers and providing recommendations to the Board for approval. The Compensation Committee considers implications of the risks associated with the Corporation's compensation policies and practices as part of its responsibilities to review and recommend the compensation policies and practices of the Corporation. The Compensation Committee consists of three independent directors, Peter Bonner, Jonathan Rees, and John DeLucchi. Peter Bonner, Jonathan Rees, and John DeLucchi have experience with the operations and management of various businesses including matters of compensation. The Committee members have experience in assessing survey and other compensation data and criteria relevant to discharging the Committee mandate and their roles on such Committee.

Executive compensation currently has three principal components: salary, bonus and the granting of share options. Each executive is paid compensation that is competitive within the marketplace and the salary is reviewed and approved on an annual basis by the Compensation Committee and the Board. Bonuses, if applicable are determined by the Compensation Committee and the Board. The amount of the bonus is based on management performance of the executive.

The Company adopted a formal share option plan effective January 1, 2019 (the “Plan”). As of the date hereof, no options have been granted under the Plan. The Company did not retain the services of a compensation consultant in fiscal 2022. The Compensation Committee and the Board do not use specific benchmarks in determining executive compensation, but rely on members of the Compensation Committee and the Board who have significant experience in the real estate industry and with companies similar to the Company.

Compensation Risks

The Board has considered the implications of the risks associated with the Company's compensation policies and practices. The Board considered risk throughout the Company's annual compensation review process. The Board did not identify any risks arising from the Company's compensation policies and practices that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company. Practices the Company uses to identify and mitigate compensation policies and practices that could encourage executive officers to take inappropriate or excessive risks include the following:

- (a) a base salary that is competitive within the marketplace and as such does not encourage excessive risk taking; and
- (b) short term incentives based on the achievement of Company and individual goals with no formal objectives or criteria established in advance which would allow the board to reduce or eliminate any short term incentive based on an assessment of the risk assumed to generate financial results.

The Company does not have a formal policy governing whether an officer or director is permitted to hedge against decreases in market value of equity securities held by that officer or director.

Elements of Compensation

A. Base Salary

The Company provides a base salary so that our named executive officers have a regular income to cover day-to-day expenses. The Company believes that competitive salaries are important in attracting and retaining talented executives.

B. Short term incentives

In addition to base salary, the Company provides named executive officers with annual short term incentive awards that are paid as cash bonuses. These awards are based on the achievement of the Company and individual goals. No formal objectives or criteria are established in advance. Short term incentive awards are set on an individual by individual basis based on the Boards' view of what the marketplace offers to individuals of similar roles. The Board determined that our CEO and CFO were entitled to the bonuses set forth in the Summary Compensation Table based on the achievement of performance goals. The CEO's bonus is reflected as consulting fees in the "All Other Compensation" column of the Summary Compensation Table.

C. Share options and other compensation

In addition to base salary and bonuses, executive officers may receive share options pursuant to the Share Option Plan.

Setting Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee and the Board are responsible for the administration of the Company's compensation programs and for setting compensation of named executive officers.

Our CEO is actively engaged in the Company's compensation programs (other than with respect to his own compensation package). The CEO conducts an annual evaluation and recommends salary adjustments and short term incentive awards. The recommendations may be reviewed and approved by the Compensation Committee and the Board depending on the level of the employee.

Recovery of Compensation

The Company considers it unlikely that misconduct or mistake by the Company or its employees will result in a restatement of its financial statements. The Compensation Committee and the Board have not developed a policy specifying the consequences with respect to past compensation payments or awards if such a restatement occurs. In the event of a restatement, the Compensation Committee and the Board will develop an appropriate response to past compensation payments or rewards.

The following table sets forth the summary of the compensation paid to our Chief Executive Officer, former Chief Financial Officer, and current Chief Financial Officer (the “Named Executive Officers”). No other executive officers received compensation in excess of $150,000 in 2022.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

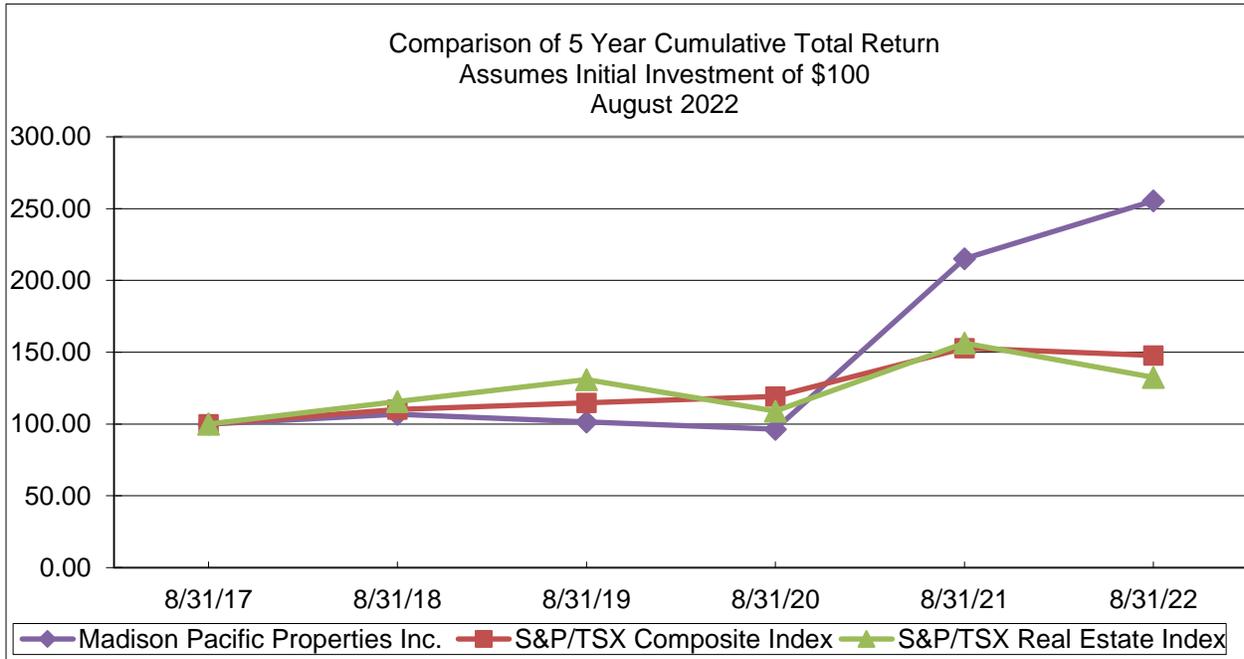

Class B Shares

The following graph compares the cumulative total shareholder return assuming an initial investment of $100.00 in Class B Shares of the Company on August 31, 2017 and dividends reinvested with the total return index value of the S&P/TSX Composite Index and the TSX Real Estate Index.

Class C Shares

The following graph compares the cumulative total shareholder return assuming an initial investment of $100.00 in Class C Shares of the Company on August 31, 2017 and dividends reinvested with the total return index value of the S&P/TSX Composite Index and the TSX Real Estate Index.

The principal compensation of the Named Executive Officers is composed of a fixed salary and performance components tied to financial, operational, and other goals, which do not necessarily correspond to changes in share price.

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Company is proposing to appoint PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as auditor until the next annual meeting of shareholders of the Company.

Fees paid to Auditors

Fees paid by the Company for audit and other services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for 2022 and 2021 were as follows:

Type of Service	Description of Service	Amount (Year ended Aug 31, 2022)	Amount (Year ended Aug 31, 2021)
Audit Fees	For the audit of the Company's annual financial statements	$156,420	$146,200

The Audit Committee determined that the provision of the non-audit services described above did not compromise the independence of the auditors for the purposes of performing audit services for the Company.

EQUITY COMPENSATION PLANS

Effective January 1, 2019, the Company implemented the Plan. Under the Plan, the Company reserves Class B Shares equal to 2% of aggregate outstanding Class B Shares and Class C Shares for issuance upon the exercise of share options granted under the Plan. The Plan provides that share options may be issued only to executives, employees and outside directors of the Company or of any of its subsidiaries and that options granted to insiders (as defined by Toronto Stock Exchange rules) shall not exceed 10% of the outstanding Class B Shares within a one year period, or at any time when aggregated with any other stock based compensation arrangement.

The Plan and the terms of options granted, including the exercise price, the expiry time (subject to a maximum 5-year term), the vesting period and other terms and conditions relating to such options, shall be administered by the Compensation Committee. The exercise price may not be lower than the greater of the last closing price of the Class B Shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange or the average closing price of the Class B Shares for the 5 previous trading days as of the date of grant.

As at the date of this Information Circular, no options for Class B Shares have been granted under the Plan and 1,189,251 Class B Shares are reserved for future option grants.

Options granted under the Plan are not assignable. Options must expire and terminate not later than 90 days after an optionee ceases to be an eligible person under the Plan unless the termination is by reason of cause in which event options expire immediately.

The Board may amend the Plan subject to material amendments that require stock exchange and shareholder approval.
