SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

FuelPositive: Building the Future of Farming Now

FuelPositive is a Canadian clean-tech company transforming agriculture through decentralized, on-farm Green Ammonia production systems. By enabling farmers to generate their own green nitrogen fertilizer and carbon-free fuel on site, the Company is redefining the ammonia industry and putting control directly into the hands of those who feed the world. This model reduces reliance on volatile supply chains and unpredictable pricing, helping farmers secure their livelihoods and plan for the future.

Each tonne of ammonia produced by a FuelPositive system eliminates up to two tonnes of CO₂e emissions, delivering both environmental and economic benefits. Designed for simplicity, reliability, and remote monitoring, the Company's containerized systems integrate seamlessly into farm operations. Built in Canada for Canadian conditions, they are engineered to be as straightforward to operate as they are transformative in their impact.

The first FP300 demonstration system, installed on an 11,000-acre grain farm in Sperling, Manitoba, is designed to produce 100 metric tonnes of Green Ammonia annually. This unit is the foundation for the FP1500 commercial system, capable of producing 500 metric tonnes annually for farms of approximately 10,000 acres. The systems are powered by sustainable electricity and produce carbon-free ammonia on demand, offering a decentralized, cost-effective alternative to fossil-fuel-based fertilizers and fuels.

The delivery of the FP300 to Tracy and Curtis Hiebert's farm in Sperling, Manitoba, marked a milestone in sustainable agriculture. Once activated, the system will demonstrate how local production can strengthen farm economics, reduce environmental impact, and build resilience against climate change, market instability, and global supply disruptions.

FuelPositive plans to position Canada as a global centre of excellence for decentralized Green Ammonia production and establish a world-leading manufacturing hub. Supported by Stantec, one of the world's leading engineering and consulting firms, this initiative will drive economic growth, create high-value jobs in engineering, science, and skilled trades, and support a stronger, more sustainable food system.

Recent developments

There are no material recent developments in respect of the Company that have not been disclosed in this offering document or in any other document filed by the Company in the 12 months preceding the date of this offering document.

Notably, certain recent developments include:

- March 21, 2024—Patent Innovation & System Readiness. FuelPositive filed a provisional patent for its groundbreaking FP300A and FP1500A Green Aqueous Ammonia add-on modules. These modules enable on-farm production of aqueous ammonia with customizable nitrogen levels (5–30%) while leveraging existing system infrastructure for efficiency. This innovation dramatically expands its market by offering safer, more affordable fertilizer options.
- April 3, 2024 – U.S. Stakeholder Engagement. FuelPositive’s Co-Founder and CEO showcased the Company’s on-farm Green Ammonia solution at a National Science Foundation–hosted NICCEE workshop in Maryland. The presentation received enthusiastic feedback from regional grain farmers, fertilizer distributors, and policymakers, strengthening the demand for technologies that improve fertilizer cost control and supply independence, central to FuelPositive’s emission-reduction mission. This initiative and participation align with FuelPositive’s mission to address all on-farm emissions, including nitrogen.
- April 18, 2024 – Strengthening Manitoba Advisory and Industry Network. FuelPositive reinforced Manitoba as its primary launch market by appointing Chad Berry, a third-generation potato farmer operating 12,000 acres in Glenboro, MB, as a Farmer Advisor. Introduced by Agricultural Greenhouse Gas Mitigation Advisor Dr. Mario Tenuta, Berry is a leader in regenerative farming and is a potential host for one of the first FP1500 systems, integrated with the aqueous ammonia module into his farm’s fertigation system as a future demonstration showcase.
- May 17 & 28, 2024 – Capital Raise & Farmer Confidence. FuelPositive closed the first tranche of its non-brokered private placement—raising C$1.55 million by issuing 28.1 million units at $0.055 each (with attached five-year warrants). The participation of tech-savvy Manitoba farmers and strategic investors signals strong market confidence in the company’s solution.
- June 12, 2024 – Groundbreaking On-Farm System Installation. FuelPositive achieved a historic milestone by installing its first commercial FP300 system on the Hiebert farm in Sperling, Manitoba. All modular containers and a 90-tonne storage tank were positioned on-site, marking the transition from concept to tangible, scalable deployment.

- August 26, 2024 – Strategic Partnerships & Activation News. FuelPositive is closing in on full system activation as it expands its strategic network and innovates financing access for farmers. The Company is collaborating with Farm Credit Canada and the Royal Bank of Canada to develop flexible, lease-to-own financing solutions to lower adoption barriers. At the same time, FuelPositive actively participated in the RBC Climate Action Institute’s Manitoba roundtable—contributing to regional innovation priorities. The Company also deepened its provincial footprint through membership in the Bioscience Association of Manitoba, unlocking connections with PrairiesCan, CentrePort, and high-profile industry showcases. To preserve focus and capital during this pivotal phase, FuelPositive streamlined operations and deferred secondary initiatives—all while building strong stakeholder momentum ahead of commercialization.
- October 24, 2024: FuelPositive appointed a new, transformative Board of Directors to lead the Company forward. FuelPositive’s new Board unites leaders whose expertise drives its mission forward. Co-Founder Luna Clifford, a catalyst behind several of the company’s leading strategic partnerships and advisory networks, co-leads its new strategic direction in a management leadership role. Darrell Brown, a Manitoba-based sustainable energy leader with two decades of experience working with Indigenous communities and off-grid renewable projects, and André Mech, an engineer and carbon-credit strategist active in global sustainability and rebuilding initiatives, join as independent directors. This refreshed Board brings the vision, expertise, and networks to accelerate FuelPositive’s next stage of growth while reinforcing its commitment to clean agriculture and energy innovation.
- June 16, 2025 – Strategic Partnership with Stantec. FuelPositive secured a high-impact partnership with global engineering leader Stantec to accelerate the commercial rollout of its decentralized Green Ammonia systems. Stantec’s proven expertise in large-scale project design, automation, and regulatory compliance is expediting final certification of the first FP300 in Manitoba, including pressure vessel and environmental approvals. This alliance strengthens FuelPositive’s capacity to scale rapidly into FP1500 systems, positioning the company to capture early market share in Canada and globally as demand surges.
- July 2, 2025 – Manitoba Operations & Funding Progress. FuelPositive advanced toward activating its first FP300, completing final engineering with Stantec and Wescan to meet Manitoba Hydro’s safety and electrical standards. Intertek and utility inspections are next, contingent on securing final operational capital. With key environmental and technical approvals in place and government funding discussions advancing at both the provincial and federal levels, FuelPositive is positioned to begin its transition from development to commercial operations. This milestone is expected to trigger sales and validate the company’s scalable, low-carbon ammonia production model in real-world conditions.
- July 18, 2025 – On-Farm Progress & Commercial Launch. FuelPositive is on the verge of activating its first on-farm Green Ammonia system in Manitoba, a milestone moving the Company towards commercialization. Final integration work with Wescan aligns the system with Manitoba’s electrical standards, with Intertek inspection and certification next. This first installation validates the technology in real-world conditions and positions

FuelPositive to begin fulfilling its growing backlog of pre-orders and reservations, prioritizing customers in regions with abundant renewable power and supportive policies. Interest from farmers, industry groups, and strategic partners has surged as commissioning nears, creating a strong pipeline for both the FP300 and larger FP1500 units. With regulatory approvals, proven demand, and a clear path to commercialization, the company is positioned to capture early market leadership in sustainable, on-farm ammonia production and deliver significant long-term shareholder value.

FuelPositive anticipates allocating the net proceeds across the following six categories over the next 12 months:

1. System Readiness and Certification – 30%
 - Final engineering updates, electrical compliance, and safety validation required for activating the on-farm FP300 system in Sperling, Manitoba. This includes third-party modifications and inspections, coordination with Manitoba Hydro, and final system commissioning.
2. Operational Launch and On-Farm Demonstration – 20%
 - Deploy the technical and field support team to operate the system for a minimum six-month demonstration period, collect performance data, refine and optimize system operation, and host key customer and stakeholder site visits.

3. Supply Chain and Manufacturing Support – 10%

The described allocation of capital and anticipated timing reflect FuelPositive’s current plans and business situation, which may change as its plans and conditions evolve. While FuelPositive plans to use the proceeds from the Offering as outlined, there may be circumstances where, for valid business reasons, reallocation of funds is wise or necessary and may vary materially from what is stated here. The actual amounts allocated and spent will depend on various factors, including FuelPositive’s ability to implement its business plan. See the “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information” section above.

The Company’s most recent audited annual financial statements and interim financial report included a going concern note. FuelPositive remains focused on developing environmentally responsible, containerized green ammonia production systems, and has not yet generated positive cash flows from its operating activities. This may raise doubts about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. The Offering aims to help the Company achieve its business objectives. It is not expected to influence the decision to include a going concern note in the next annual financial statements.

How have FuelPositive used the other funds raised in the past 12 months?

Except for a non-brokered private placement of units completed on August 29, 2024, for gross proceeds of $490,878, and certain bridge loans provided by arms-length investors, the Company has not raised any funds in the past 12 months. Proceeds from the private placement and bridge loans were utilized for the Company’s general working capital purposes.

FEEES AND COMMISSIONS

Who are the dealers or finders that FuelPositive has engaged in connection with this Offering, if any, and what are their fees?

FuelPositive has not engaged any dealers or finders in connection with this Offering. The Company may compensate certain finders with a cash commission of up to 7% of the aggregate gross proceeds raised from the Offering and issue finder's warrants equivalent to 7% of the total Units subscribed under the Offering.
