Independent Practitioner's Review Engagement Report

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF DOUBLEVIEW GOLD CORPORATION

We have reviewed the accompanying interim financial statements of Doubleview Gold Corporation (the "Company") comprising the interim statement of financial position as at August 31, 2025, and the interim statement of comprehensive loss (income) for the three-month and six-month periods ended August 31, 2025 and August 31, 2024 and the interim statements of changes in equity and cash flows for the six-month period then ended, and the summary of significant accounting policies to the financial statements and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the interim financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of interim financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Practitioner's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the accompanying interim financial statements based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, which require us to comply with relevant ethical requirement.

A review of interim financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The practitioner performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on these interim financial statements.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the interim financial statements do not present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Doubleview Gold Corporation as at August 31, 2025, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period then ended in accordance with IFRS.

DOUBLEVIEW GOLD CORP.

NOTES TO THE CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(EXPRESSED IN CANADIAN DOLLARS)

FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31 2025 AND 2024

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION AND GOING CONCERN

Doubleview Gold Corp. (the “Company”) was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act on January 18, 2008 pursuant to the Business Corporation Act of British Columbia. The company is engaged in the exploration of mineral properties in North America and Doubleview Gold Corp. (the “Company”) was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act on January 18, 2008 pursuant to the Business Corporations Act of British Columbia. During the period, the Company released positive metallurgical test results supporting recoveries of scandium, copper, gold, and cobalt, and confirmed that updated Mineral Resource and Preliminary Economic Assessment studies are in progress. The Company trades on the TSX Venture Exchange (“TSX-V”). On May 8, 2020, the Company changed its name from Doubleview Capital Corp. to Doubleview Gold Corp. under the symbol “DBG”.

The head office and principal address of the Company is 822 – 470 Granville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6C 1V5. The Company’s registered address and records office is Suite 704 – 595 Howe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6C 2T5.

These financial statements have been prepared by management on a going concern basis which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company has not generated any revenues to date and has incurred ongoing losses.

As the company is in the exploration stage, the recoverability of the costs incurred to date on exploration and evaluation assets is dependent upon the existence of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing to complete the exploration and development of its properties, and upon future profitable production or proceeds from the disposition of the properties and deferred exploration expenditures. The Company will have to raise funds to continue operations and, although it has been successful in doing so in the past, there is no assurance it will be able to do so in the future. As at August 31, 2025, the Company has a deficit of $14,983,710 (February 28, 2025 $13,971,071). For the six months ended August 31, 2025 and the year ended February 28, 2025, the Company incurred net losses of $1,012,639 and $1,844,934, respectively. These uncertainties may cast significant doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. A number of alternatives including, but not limited to, selling an interest in its exploration and evaluation assets or completing a financing, are being evaluated with the goal of funding ongoing activities and obtaining additional working capital. These financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the going concern basis of accounting be inappropriate. These adjustments could be material.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

a) Statement of Compliance

These condensed interim financial statements for the six months ended August 31, 2025, have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, ‘Interim Financial Reporting’. The condensed interim consolidated financial information should be read in conjunction with the annual financial statements for the year ended February 28, 2025, which have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”).

These unaudited condensed interim financial statements have been prepared using accounting policies consistent with those used in the Company’s annual financial statements for the year ended February 28, 2025.

The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (cont'd...)

These condensed interim financial statements were authorized for issue by the Audit Committee and Board of Directors on January 30, 2026.

b) Basis of Measurement

These condensed interim financial statements have been prepared on a historical costs basis except for financial instruments classified as financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss, which are stated at their fair value. In addition, these financial statements use the accrual basis of accounting.

These condensed interim financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, which is the Company's functional currency.

The preparation of these condensed interim financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

6. SHARE CAPITAL (cont'd...)

c) Reserves

Reserves represent the fair value of stock options or compensation warrants until such time that the share-based instruments are exercised, at which time the corresponding amount is transferred to share capital.

d) Options

The Company has an incentive stock option plan that conforms to the requirements of the TSX-V. Options to purchase common shares have been granted to directors, officers, employees, and consultants of the Company at exercise prices determined by the market value of the common shares on the date of the grant. The options vest immediately on the date of the grant or otherwise at the discretion of the Board.

When the Company issues stock options, it records a stock-based compensation ("SBC") expense in the year or period which the options are granted and/or vested. SBC expense related to stock options awarded to consultants performing direct exploration and evaluation activities are capitalized to exploration and evaluation assets. SBC expense is estimated using the following assumptions. The expected volatility assumption is based on the historical and implied volatility of the Company's common share price on the TSX-V. The risk-free interest rate assumption is based on yield curves on Canadian government zero-coupon bonds with a remaining term equal to the stock options' expected life. The Company uses historical data to estimate option exercise, forfeiture and employee termination within the valuation model. The Company has not paid and does not anticipate paying dividends on its common shares during the term of the options.

During the year ended February 28, 2025, the Company granted 4,565,000 incentive stock options to directors, officers, employees, and consultants of the Company. The granting of these incentive stock options resulted in a total SBC expense, calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model, of $1,671,030, of which $216,730 was capitalized to exploration and evaluation assets (Note 8). The assumptions used for the Black-Scholes option pricing model valuation of stock options issued during the year were: a risk-free interest rate of 3.63%, an expected life of 5 years, an annualized volatility of 101.12%, based on the historical volatility of the company's market share price and a dividend yield of 0%.

During the six months ended August 31, 2025, the Company granted 1,900,000 incentive stock options to directors, officers, employees, and consultants, of the Company. The granting of these incentive stock options resulted in a total SBC expense, calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model, of $1,161,509, of which $112,867 was capitalized to exploration and evaluation assets (Note 8). The assumptions used for the Black-Scholes option pricing model valuation of stock options issued during the year were: a risk-free interest rate of 2.77%, an expected life of 5 years, an annualized volatility of 97.35%, and a dividend yield of 0%.

9. RESTORATION OBLIGATION

The provision represents the present value of reclamation costs related to the Hat Property, which are expected to be incurred up to 2027. These provisions have been created based on the Company's internal estimates. Assumptions based on the current economic environment have been made, which management believes are a reasonable basis upon which to estimate the future liability. These estimates are reviewed regularly to take into account any material changes to the assumptions. However, actual reclamation costs will ultimately depend upon future market prices for the necessary reclamation work required that will reflect market conditions at the relevant time.

The undiscounted value of these obligations was $81,750 as at February 29, 2020. Using a discount rate of 1.21%, the present value of the site closure and reclamation provisions recognized on February 29, 2020, upon initial recognition, was $76,979.

During the year ended February 28, 2023, the Company updated its assessment and determined the site closure and reclamation provisions expected to be incurred up to 2027 to be $167,050. Using a discount rate of 1.50%, the present value of the site closure and reclamation provisions was $155,063 requiring recognition of an additional $78,087.

During the year ended February 28, 2025, the Company updated its assessment and determined the site closure and reclamation provisions was $167,050 requiring recognition of an additional $11,987.

As at August 31, 2025, the reclamation provision was $167,050.

10. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK

Fair value

IFRS 13 Financial Instruments: Disclosures establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the input to valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e., as prices) or indirectly (i.e., derived from prices); and

Level 3 – Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

As at August 31, 2025, the Company's financial instruments are comprised of cash and cash equivalents, deposits, amounts receivable excluding GST receivable, marketable securities, reclamation bonds, accounts payable, accrued liabilities and flow-through share liability. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, amounts receivable, and accounts payable approximate their fair values due to the relatively short periods to maturity of these financial instruments. Marketable securities represent shares held in a private company and measured at Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

Risk management

The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is limited to the carrying amount on the statement of financial position and arises from the Company's cash and cash equivalents, reclamation bond, and amounts receivable.

The Company's cash and cash equivalents are held with Canadian chartered banks, which are high-credit quality financial institutions. The Company's reclamation bond is held with the Ministry of Mining and Critical Minerals. The credit risk on accounts receivable is limited to the carrying value of the financial instrument.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due. As at August 31, 2025 the Company had a cash and cash equivalents balance of $2,728,483 (February 28, 2025 - $4,469,302) to settle current liabilities of $1,147,541 (February 28, 2025 - $1,300,666). The Company will be required to obtain additional financing in the future. All the Company's financial liabilities have contractual maturities of 30 days or are due on demand and are subject to normal trade terms.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates and foreign exchange rates.

(a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company has cash balances at fixed rates and no interest-bearing debt. Interest rate risk is considered to be not significant.

(b) Foreign currency rate risk

The Company is domiciled in Canada and its capital is raised in Canadian dollars; therefore, the Company is not exposed to any significant foreign exchange risk.

(c) Other price risk

Other price risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market prices, other than those arising from interest rate risk or foreign currency risk.

The Company is exposed to other price risk with respect to its marketable securities, a private company. The maximum exposure to other price risk is the carrying value of the investment.

11. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company manages its cash and cash equivalents and common shares as capital. The Company manages its capital with the following objectives:

- To ensure sufficient financial flexibility to achieve the on-going business objectives including, but not limited to, pursuing the exploration of its exploration and evaluation assets, funding of future growth opportunities, and pursuit of new acquisitions; and
- To maximize shareholder returns through enhancing the share value.

The Company monitors its capital structure and makes adjustments according to market conditions in an effort to meet its objectives given the current outlook of the business and industry in general. The Company manages its capital structure by issuing new shares, adjusting capital spending, or disposing of assets. In addition, management of the Company's capital structure is facilitated through its financial and operational forecasting processes. The forecast of the Company's future cash flows is based on estimates of commodity prices, forecast capital and operating expenditures, and other investing and financing activities. The forecast is regularly updated based on new commodity prices and other changes, which the Company views as critical in the current environment.

The Company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements and there have not been any changes to capital management from the prior year.

12. SEGMENTED INFORMATION

The Company operates in one reportable operating segment, being the exploration and development of exploration and evaluation assets in Canada. All of its long-term assets are located in Canada.

13. CONTINGENCIES

- a) In May 2023, the Company was served with a civil claim by a contractor for unpaid fees of $377,637 relating to drilling services rendered on the Hat Property. As of February 29, 2024, the Company has an outstanding $39,111 retainer with the contractor. As the outcome of the legal proceeding is uncertain no further amounts have been accrued.

14. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent to August 31, 2025 and prior to the authorization date of these financial statements, the Company completed significant exploration, financing, and corporate activities. These are non-adjusting subsequent events under IAS 10.

Exploration and Technical Results:

Between September and December 2025, the Company announced assay results from additional 2025 drill holes at the Hat Project. The results confirmed extensions of mineralization laterally and at depth, and the Company completed approximately 13,290 meters in 19 drill holes, all of which intersected mineralization. The Company also released positive metallurgical test results supporting recoveries of scandium, copper, gold, and cobalt, and confirmed that updated Mineral Resource and Preliminary Economic Assessment studies are in progress.

Financing:

On October 30, 2025, the Company announced a non-brokered private placement. The financing closed in two tranches on November 6 and November 19, 2025, for total gross proceeds of $7,181,400, through the issuance of non-flow-through units priced at $0.70 per unit, each including one share and one warrant exercisable at $1.00 for two years. Certain directors participated in the offering, which was disclosed in Material Change Reports.

Stock Options:

On October 23, 2025, the Company granted 2,400,000 stock options to directors, officers, and consultants, exercisable at $0.80 per share for five years.

No adjustments have been made to these financial statements as a result of these events.
