PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT

(to the Short Form Base Shelf Prospectus dated January 13, 2026)

New Issue

January 22, 2026

ISOENERGY LTD.

$50,001,000

3,333,400 Common Shares

This prospectus supplement (this “Prospectus Supplement”), together with the accompanying short form base shelf prospectus dated January 13, 2026 (the “Base Shelf Prospectus”), qualifies the distribution (the “Offering”) of 3,333,400 common shares (the “Offered Shares”) of IsoEnergy Ltd. (the “Company” or “IsoEnergy”) at a price of $15.00 per Offered Share (the “Offering Price”).

The terms of the Offering, including the Offering Price, were determined by negotiation between IsoEnergy and Stifel Nicolaus Canada Inc. (“Stifel”), on behalf of a syndicate of underwriters that includes Jett Capital Advisors, LLC (“Jett Capital”) and Canaccord Genuity Corp. (together, with Stifel and Jett Capital, the “Co-Lead Underwriters”), BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc., Haywood Securities Inc., National Bank Financial Inc., Red Cloud Securities Inc., SCP Resource Finance LP and TD Securities Inc. (collectively, with the Co-Lead Underwriters, the “Underwriters”) with reference to the prevailing market price of the common shares of IsoEnergy (the “Common Shares”) and other factors. Jett Capital is not registered as a dealer in any Canadian jurisdiction and accordingly, will not, directly or indirectly, solicit offers to purchase or sell the Offered Shares in Canada. The Offering is being made pursuant to an underwriting agreement dated January 22, 2026 among the Company and the Underwriters (the “Underwriting Agreement”). See “Plan of Distribution”. This Prospectus Supplement constitutes a public offering of Offered Shares only in those jurisdictions where they may be lawfully offered for sale and therein only by persons permitted to sell the Offered Shares.

The outstanding Common Shares are listed and posted for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) under the symbol “ISO” and listed on the NYSE American LLC (the “NYSE American”) under the symbol “ISOU”. On January 21, 2026, the last trading day prior to the date of this Prospectus Supplement, the closing price per Common Share on the TSX was $16.54 and on the NYSE American was and US$11.98. The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Offered Shares. Listing of the Offered Shares on the TSX will be subject to the Company fulfilling all of the applicable listing requirements of the TSX.

	Price to the Public ⁽¹⁾	Underwriters’ Fee ⁽²⁾	Net Proceeds to the Company ⁽³⁾
Per Offered Share.....	$15.00	$0.75	$14.25
Total ⁽⁴⁾⁽⁵⁾⁽⁶⁾	$50,001,000	$2,500,050	$47,500,950
(1) The Offering Price was determined by arm’s length negotiation between the Company and Stifel, on their own behalf and on behalf of the Underwriters, with reference to the prevailing market price of the Common Shares and other factors. (2) Pursuant to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement, and in consideration of the services rendered by the Underwriters in connection with the Offering, the Company will pay to the Underwriters an aggregate cash fee equal to 5.0% of the gross proceeds from the issuance of the Offered Shares (the “Underwriters’ Fee”). Jett Capital will receive a fee in connection with its economic interest in the syndicate, as it is not directly or indirectly soliciting offers to purchase or sell the Offered Shares in Canada. The Underwriters’ Fee is payable on the Closing Date (as defined below). See “Plan of Distribution”. (3) After deducting the Underwriters’ Fee but before deducting the Company’s expenses of the Offering, estimated at approximately $500,000 (the “Expenses”), which, together with the Underwriters’ Fee, the Company will pay from the proceeds of the Offering. See “Plan of Distribution”. (4) The Company has granted the Underwriters an Over-Allotment Option (as defined below), exercisable in whole or in part at any time and from time to time, for a period of 30 days from and including the Closing Date, to purchase up to an additional 500,010 Common Shares from the Company (the “Over-Allotment Shares”), on the same terms and conditions as the Offered Shares, to cover over-allocation, if any. If the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full, the “Price to the Public”, the “Underwriters’ Fee” and the “Net Proceeds to the Company” will be $57,501,150, $2,875,057.50 and $54,626,092.50, respectively. This Prospectus Supplement also qualifies the grant of the Over-Allotment Option and the distribution of the Over-Allotment Shares offered upon the exercise of the Over-Allotment Option. A purchaser who acquires Over-Allotment Shares forming part of the over-allocation position acquires such Over-Allotment Shares under this Prospectus Supplement regardless of whether the over-allocation position is filled through the exercise of the Over-Allotment Option or secondary market purchases. See “Plan of Distribution”. (5) Assumes no exercise of the Over-Allotment Option. (6) If the full amount of the Concurrent Private Placement (as defined herein) is completed, the aggregate net proceeds of the Offering and the Concurrent Private Placement (before deducting the expenses of the Offering referred to in Note 3, above) will be $72,500,955 (assuming no exercise of the Over-Allotment Option). No commission or other fee will be paid to the Underwriters in connection with the Concurrent Private Placement. See “Plan of Distribution – Concurrent Private Placement”.

The following table sets out the number of additional Over-Allotment Shares that may be offered by the Company pursuant to the Over-Allotment Option:

Underwriters’ Position	Maximum Number of Securities Available	Exercise Period	Exercise Price
Over-Allotment Option	500,010 Over-Allotment Shares	Commencing on the Closing Date and ending not later than the 30 th day following the Closing Date	$15.00 per Over-Allotment Share

Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, all references to the “Offering” include the exercise of the Over-Allotment Option and all references to the “Offered Shares” include the Over-Allotment Shares issuable upon exercise of the Over-Allotment Option.

The Company intends to complete a concurrent non-brokered private placement of up to 1,666,667 Common Shares (the “Private Placement Shares”), at a price of $15.00 per Private Placement Share for gross proceeds of up to approximately $25,000,000 (the “Concurrent Private Placement”). The Concurrent Private Placement will be to an existing shareholder of the Company, NexGen Energy Ltd. (“NexGen”) to enable NexGen to maintain its pro rata ownership interest in the Company at approximately 29.9% after giving effect to the Offering. The Concurrent Private Placement is expected to close concurrent with the Offering on or about January 27, 2026. Closing of the Concurrent Private Placement is subject to the Company fulfilling all of the listing requirements of TSX. No commission or other fee will be paid to the Underwriters in connection with the sale of Private Placement Shares pursuant to the Concurrent Private Placement. This Prospectus Supplement does not qualify the distribution of any Common Shares issued pursuant to the Concurrent Private Placement. See “Use of Proceeds” and “Plan of Distribution – Concurrent Private Placement” in this Prospectus Supplement.

Prospective investors should be aware that the acquisition, holding and disposition of the Offered Shares may have tax consequences in Canada, the United States or elsewhere depending on each particular investor’s specific circumstances. Such consequences, including for investors who are residents in Canada or the United States, may not be fully described herein. Prospective investors should consult their own tax and other professional advisors with respect to such tax considerations. See “Eligibility for Investment”. Investors who are not residents of Canada for tax purposes should consult their own tax advisors concerning the consequences to them of acquiring the Offered Shares under the Offering.

NEITHER THE SEC NOR ANY STATE SECURITIES REGULATOR, NOR ANY CANADIAN SECURITIES REGULATOR HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED OF THE SECURITIES OFFERED HEREBY OR PASSED UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT OR THE ACCOMPANYING BASE SHELF PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

An investment in the Offered Shares is highly speculative and is subject to a number of risks that should be carefully considered by a prospective investor. Prospective investors should carefully review this Prospectus Supplement, the Base Shelf Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein, and the risk factors set out in each such document and herein before purchasing the Offered Shares. The risk factors identified under the heading “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” herein and the risk factors identified under the heading “Risk Factors” in the following documents: the Base Shelf Prospectus; this Prospectus Supplement; the Annual MD&A (as defined below); the Interim MD&A (as defined below); and in the Annual Information Form (as defined below) should be carefully reviewed and evaluated by prospective purchasers before making an investment decision. It is important for investors to consider the particular risk factors that may affect the industry in which they are investing. An investment in the Offered Shares is suitable for only those investors who are willing to risk a loss of their entire investment.

The Underwriters, as principals, conditionally offer the Offered Shares qualified under this Prospectus Supplement, subject to prior sale, if, as and when issued by the Company and delivered to and accepted by the Underwriters in accordance with the conditions contained in the Underwriting Agreement referred to under “Plan of Distribution” and subject to the approval of certain legal matters on behalf of the Company by Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP, as to matters of Canadian law, and Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, as to matters of United States law, and on behalf of the Underwriters by Borden Ladner Gervais LLP, as to matters of Canadian law, and Nauth, LPC as to matters of United States law.

Subject to applicable laws, in connection with the Offering, the Underwriters may over-allocate or effect transactions intended to stabilize or maintain the market price of the Common Shares at levels other than those that might prevail on the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time. After the Underwriters have made reasonable efforts to sell the Offered Shares at the Offering Price, the Underwriters may decrease the offering price for the Offered Shares and may further change the price from time to time to amounts no greater than the Offering Price set forth on the cover page, and the compensation realized by the Underwriters will be decreased by the amount that the aggregate price paid by the purchasers of the Offered Shares is less than the gross proceeds paid by the Underwriters to the Company. Any such reduction will not affect the net proceeds received by the Company. See “Plan of Distribution”.

The Offered Shares will be offered in each of the provinces and territories of Canada, other than Quebec, through certain of the Underwriters or their Canadian affiliates who are registered to offer the Offered Shares for sale in such provinces or territories, or through such other dealers as may be designated by the Underwriters. The Offered Shares will also be offered in the United States on a private placement basis through certain of the Underwriters, either directly or indirectly, through their respective U.S. broker-dealer affiliates or agents.

Subscriptions for Offered Shares will be received subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part, and the right is reserved to close the subscription books at any time without notice. The closing of the Offering is expected to occur on January 27, 2026, or such later date as the Company and the Co-Lead Underwriters may agree (which date shall not be later than 42 days after the date of this Prospectus Supplement) (the “Closing Date”). See “Plan of Distribution”.

It is anticipated that the Offered Shares will be registered and deposited directly with CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc. (“CDS”) or its nominee and held by, or on behalf of, CDS, as depository of the Offered Shares for the participants of CDS, on a non-certificated basis and no certificates evidencing the Offered Shares will be issued to purchasers thereof, except in limited circumstances. Purchasers of Offered Shares will receive only a customer confirmation or statement from the Underwriter or other registered dealer who is a CDS participant and from or through whom a beneficial interest in the Offered Shares is purchased. If any Offered Shares are not able to be issued in the book-entry system through CDS in advance of the Closing Date for any reason, then those investors or their designated holders will receive definitive certificates representing their interests in such Offered Shares.

The registered and head office of IsoEnergy is located at 217 Queen Street West, Suite 401, Toronto, Ontario M5V 0R2.

Purchasers are advised that it may not be possible for investors to enforce judgments obtained in Canada against any person or company that is incorporated, continued or otherwise organized under the laws of a foreign jurisdiction or resides outside of Canada, even if the party has appointed an agent for service of process. Certain of the Company’s operations and assets are located outside of Canada, and certain of the Company’s officers, directors and shareholders reside outside of Canada. Leigh Curyer and Christopher McFadden, each a director of the Company, and Dean T. Wilton and Mark B. Mathisen, each a “qualified person” under National Instrument 43-101 – Standards of Disclosure for Mineral Projects (“NI 43-101”), reside outside of Canada. Each of Leigh Curyer, Christopher McFadden and Dean T. Wilton have appointed IsoEnergy, 217 Queen Street West, Suite 401, Toronto, Ontario M5V 0R2, as their agent for service of process in Canada. Mark B. Mathisen has appointed SLR Consulting (Canada) Ltd., 55 University Ave., Suite 501 Toronto, Ontario M5J 2H7, as his agent for service of process in Canada. Although each of the aforementioned individuals has appointed an agent for service of process in Canada, purchasers are advised that it may not be possible for investors to enforce judgements obtained in Canada against these individuals. See “Risk Factors”.

All dollar amounts in this Prospectus Supplement and the Base Shelf Prospectus are in Canadian dollars, unless otherwise indicated. See “Currency and Exchange Rate Information”.

Investors are cautioned not to put undue reliance on forward-looking information. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable law.

The forward-looking information contained in this Prospectus Supplement, the Base Shelf Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein are expressly qualified in their entirety by the foregoing cautionary statement. Investors should read this entire Prospectus Supplement, including the Base Shelf Prospectus and the Annual Information Form, and consult their own professional advisers to ascertain and assess the income tax and legal risks and other aspects associated with holding the Offered Shares.

Additional information is contained in the Company’s filings with Canadian securities regulators and the SEC. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT ON MINERAL RESOURCE ESTIMATES

Unless otherwise indicated, all mineral resource estimates included in this Prospectus Supplement, the Base Shelf Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein have been prepared in accordance with NI 43-101 and the Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum (the “CIM”) – CIM Definition Standards on Mineral Resources and Mineral Reserves, adopted by the CIM Council, as amended (the “CIM Standards”). NI 43-101 is a rule developed by the Canadian Securities Administrators, which established standards for all public disclosure an issuer makes of scientific and technical information concerning mineral projects. The terms “mineral reserve”, “proven mineral reserve” and “probable mineral reserve” are Canadian mining terms as defined in accordance with NI 43-101 and the CIM Standards. In addition, the terms “mineral resource”, “measured mineral resource”, “indicated mineral resource” and “inferred mineral resource” are defined in accordance with NI 43-101 and the CIM Standards. Investors are cautioned not to assume that all or any part of mineral deposits in these categories will ever be converted into mineral reserves. In particular, “inferred mineral resources” have a great amount of uncertainty as to their existence, and great uncertainty as to their economic and legal feasibility. It cannot be assumed that all or any part of an inferred mineral resource will ever be upgraded to a higher category. Under Canadian rules, estimates of inferred mineral resources may not form the basis of feasibility or pre-feasibility studies, except in very limited circumstances. Investors are cautioned not to assume that all or any part of an inferred mineral resource exists or is economically or legally mineable.

The mineral resource figures referred to in this Prospectus Supplement, the Base Shelf Prospectus and the documents incorporated herein and therein by reference are estimates and no assurances can be given that the indicated levels of uranium and vanadium will be produced. Such estimates are expressions of judgment based on knowledge, mining experience, analysis of drilling results and industry practices. Valid estimates made at a given time may significantly change when new information becomes available. By their nature, mineral resource and mineral reserve estimates are imprecise and depend, to a certain extent, upon statistical inferences which may ultimately prove unreliable. Any inaccuracy or future reduction in such estimates could have a material adverse impact on the Company.

References to “$” are to Canadian dollars and references to “US$” are to United States dollars. ELIGIBILITY FOR INVESTMENT

In the opinion of Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP, Canadian counsel to the Company, and Borden Ladner Gervais LLP, Canadian counsel to the Underwriters, based on the current provisions of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and the regulations thereunder (collectively, the “Tax Act”) in force as of the date hereof, the Offered Shares offered hereby, if issued on the date hereof, would be, on such date, “qualified investments” under the Tax Act for a trust governed by a “registered retirement savings plan”, a “registered education savings plan”, a “registered retirement income fund”, a “registered disability savings plan”, a “tax-free savings account” or a “first home savings account”, (each, a “Registered Plan”), or a “deferred profit sharing plan”, each as defined in the Tax Act, provided that, at the time of their acquisition by the Registered Plan the Offered Shares are listed on a “designated stock exchange” as defined in the Tax Act (which includes the TSX and NYSE American) or the Company otherwise qualifies as a “public corporation” other than a “mortgage investment corporation”, each as defined in the Tax Act.

Notwithstanding that the Offered Shares may be qualified investments for a trust governed by a Registered Plan, if an Offered Share is a “prohibited investment” within the meaning of the Tax Act for a Registered Plan, the annuitant, subscriber or holder of the Registered Plan, as the case may be, will be subject to a penalty tax as set out in the Tax Act. However, the Offered Shares generally will not be a prohibited investment for a Registered Plan provided that the annuitant, subscriber or holder, as the case may be, of the Registered Plan: (i) deals at arm's length with the Company for the purposes of the Tax Act, and (ii) does not have a "significant interest" (as defined in the Tax Act for purposes of the prohibited investment rules) in the Company. In addition, the Offered Shares will generally not be a "prohibited investment" if they are "excluded property" (as defined in the Tax Act) for a Registered Plan. Prospective purchasers who intend to hold Offered Shares in a Registered Plan should consult their own tax advisors in regard to the application of these rules in their particular circumstances.

USE OF PROCEEDSProceeds

The estimated net proceeds to be received by the Company from the Offering (assuming no exercise of the Over-Allotment Option) are estimated to be approximately $47,000,950, after deducting the Underwriters' Fee of $2,500,050, and after deducting the estimated Expenses (estimated to be approximately $500,000). If the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full, the estimated net proceeds to the Company from the Offering are estimated to be approximately $54,106,092, after deducting the Underwriters' Fee of $2,875,058, and after deducting the estimated Expenses (estimated to be approximately $520,000 if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full).

The gross proceeds to be received by the Company from the Concurrent Private Placement will be up to approximately $25,000,000 and associated expenses are estimated to be $100,000.

Principal Purposes

The Company intends to use the net proceeds of the Offering and Concurrent Private Placement to fund the items described below over 2026 and 2027. The Company intends to use $44,000,000 ($48,100,000 if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full) of the proceeds for U.S. development work, technical studies and working capital for mining operations. The Company has allocated $4,350,000 ($6,800,000 if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full) towards U.S. exploration expenditures. Expenditures to expand and maintain the Company's current landholdings in the U.S., Canada and Australia are expected to be $6,500,000. The Company currently holds equity positions in several uranium companies and has allocated $10,000,000 towards additional equity investments to support these companies along with future costs associated with mergers and acquisitions, which is a part of the Company's growth strategy.

The remainder of the estimated net proceeds of the Offering and the Concurrent Private Placement are expected to be used for costs associated with the Offering, corporate and general working capital purposes.

In the United States, the Company plans to undertake extensive exploration and development activities. The primary focus will be the Tony M Mine, where the Company is currently completing the extraction of a bulk underground sample. If the board of directors of IsoEnergy (the "IsoEnergy Board") approves the restart of the Tony M Mine, the net proceeds from the Offering and the Concurrent Private Placement would allow the Company to progress the Tony M Mine to steady state production capacity, including completion of technical and economical studies, production designs, mine plans, dewatering systems, electrical upgrade and production-scale ventilation systems. Planned capital expenditures include accommodation, surface equipment and ore sorting facilities.

Planned expenditures at Rim and Sage Plain is aimed at advancing these projects toward the current state of readiness of the Tony M Mine. Planned work includes upgrades to surface facilities, mine ventilation systems and water supply, as well as rehabilitation of underground workings, including installation of ground support.

The Company holds a significant land position in the United States, which it considers highly prospective. The land package has recently been expanded near the Tony M Mine through the acquisition of the Flatiron claims. These will be evaluated through geophysical surveys and drilling.

A breakdown of the use of the gross proceeds to be received by the Company from the Offering and the Concurrent Private Placement is provided below:

Use of Proceeds	Amount ⁽¹⁾	Amount ⁽²⁾
Development and studies (U.S.)	$44,000,000	$48,100,000
Exploration (U.S.)	$4,350,000	$6,800,000
Land acquisitions, staking and holding costs	$6,500,000	$6,500,000
Corporate development and investments	$10,000,000	$10,000,000
Corporate & working capital	$7,050,950	$7,606,092
Costs associated with the Offering	$3,100,050	$3,495,058
TOTAL	$75,001,000	$82,501,150

(1) Based on anticipated gross proceeds of the Offering and the Concurrent Private Placement, assuming no exercise of the Over-Allotment Option and assuming that the Concurrent Private Placement is completed in full.

(2) Based on anticipated gross proceeds of the Offering and the Concurrent Private Placement, assuming the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full and assuming that the Concurrent Private Placement is completed in full.

The above noted allocation represents the Company's current intentions with respect to its use of proceeds from the Offering and the Concurrent Private Placement and use of available funds based on current knowledge, planning and expectations of management of the Company. Although the Company intends to expend the net proceeds from the Offering and the Concurrent Private Placement as set forth above, there may be circumstances where, for sound business reasons, a reallocation of funds may be prudent or necessary, and may vary materially from that set forth above. In addition, management of the Company will have broad discretion with respect to the actual use of the net proceeds from the Offering and the Concurrent Private Placement. See "Risk Factors – Discretion in Use of Proceeds".

The Company is in the exploration stage with no source of operating revenue and is dependent upon equity or debt financing to maintain its current operations. The Company had negative cash flow from operating activities for the year ended December 31, 2024 and for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025. The Company anticipates that negative operating cash flows will continue as long as it remains in an exploration and development stage. To the extent that the Company has negative cash flow in any future period, the Company may need to deploy a portion of its existing cash reserves to fund such negative cash flows. The Company expects that the current working capital, as well as funds that the Company anticipates being available from financing activities, including the Offering, will be sufficient to fund current operations and capital requirements for the next 12 months. The Company's expectations regarding sufficient financial resources to fund the Company's planned operations and cash requirements for at least 12 months following the date of this Prospectus Supplement is based on expectations and assumptions that reflect management's intended courses of action for the Company and current expectations for the period covered, given management's judgment as to the most probable set of conditions. These expectations and assumptions, although considered reasonable by management at the date of this Prospectus Supplement, may prove to be incorrect and may not materialize as expected. Subsequent to the date of this Prospectus Supplement, events and circumstances may occur that were unanticipated or that otherwise impact actual results. Accordingly, there is a significant risk that actual results achieved for this 12-month period will vary from the expected results and that such variations may be material. There is no representation that actual results achieved during this period will be the same in whole or in part as those that are currently expected. Important factors that could cause actual results to vary materially from the anticipated results include those disclosed under "Risk Factors" in the Annual Information Form and the Base Shelf Prospectus. See "Risk Factors – Negative Operating Cash Flow and Dependence on Third-Party Financing".

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

General

Pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement, the Company has agreed to issue and sell and the Underwriters have agreed to purchase, as Underwriters, on the Closing Date, 3,333,400 Offered Shares at a price of $15.00 per Offered Share for aggregate gross proceeds of $50,001,000, subject to compliance with all necessary legal requirements and to the conditions contained in the Underwriting Agreement. Jett Capital is not registered as a dealer in any Canadian jurisdiction and accordingly, will not, directly or indirectly, solicit offers to purchase or sell the Offered Shares in Canada.

The Offered Shares are being offered to the public in all of the provinces and territories of Canada, other than Quebec, and are being offered in the United States on a private placement basis and, subject to applicable law and the Underwriting Agreement, certain jurisdictions outside of Canada and the United States. The terms of the Offering, including the Offering Price, were determined by negotiation between the Company and Stifel with reference to the market price of the Common Shares and other factors. The Offered Shares will be offered in the United States and Canada through the Underwriters either directly or through their respective United States or Canadian broker-dealer affiliates or agents, as applicable. No Offered Shares will be offered or sold in any jurisdiction except by or through brokers or dealers duly registered under the applicable securities laws of that jurisdiction, or in circumstances where an exemption from such registered dealer requirements is available.

The Underwriters will be paid an aggregate Underwriters' Fee equal to 5.0% of the gross proceeds realized from the sale of any Offered Shares, all in accordance with the terms of the Underwriting Agreement. Jett Capital will receive a fee in connection with its economic interest in the syndicate, as it is not directly or indirectly soliciting offers to purchase or sell the Offered Shares in Canada. The Underwriters' Fee and the Underwriters' expenses are payable on the Closing Date (and, as applicable, upon each Over-Allotment Closing (as defined below)).

The obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement are several and neither joint nor joint and several and may be terminated at their sole option upon the occurrence of certain stated events. Subject to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement, the Company agreed to indemnify the Underwriters, their respective affiliates and respective directors, officers, employees, partners, agents and shareholders and the successors and assigns of all the foregoing persons against certain liabilities, including liabilities under applicable securities legislation.

If an Underwriter fails to purchase the Offered Shares which it has agreed to purchase, the other Underwriters have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase those Offered Shares. The Underwriters are, however, obligated to take up and pay for all Offered Shares if any Offered Shares are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement.

The Common Shares are listed and posted for trading on the TSX under the symbol "ISO" and listed for trading on the NYSE American under the symbol "ISOU". The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Offered Shares distributed under the Offering, subject to the Company fulfilling all of the requirements of the TSX.

The Company has agreed that it will not, during the period ended 90 days after the Closing Date, directly or indirectly, issue, sell, offer, grant an option or right in respect of, or otherwise dispose of, or agree to or announce any intention to, issue, sell, offer, grant an option or right in respect of, or otherwise dispose of, any Common Shares or securities convertible into Common Shares without the prior written consent of Stifel, on behalf of the Underwriters, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, except in connection with (i) the Offering (including the Over-Allotment Option); (ii) the grant or exercise of stock options and other similar issuances of compensation securities pursuant to the Company's omnibus incentive plan or similar share compensation arrangements in place prior to the date hereof; (iii) the issuance of Common Shares upon the exercise, exchange, transfer, or conversion of convertible securities, warrants, options, or any other commitment or agreement to issue securities outstanding prior to the date hereof, including the sale of Common Shares to satisfy taxes in connection therewith; (iv) an arm's length acquisition; (v) "at-the-market distributions" (as defined in National Instrument 44-102 – Shelf Distributions); and/or (vi) the Concurrent Private Placement.

The Company has also agreed to cause its officers and directors (the "Locked-Up Parties") to execute and deliver written undertakings in favour of the Underwriters agreeing (subject to standard carve-outs) not to sell, transfer, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of, any securities of the Company owned, directly or indirectly, by such Locked-Up Parties for a period of 90 days following the Closing Date, other than those securities purchased in the Offering, or securities sold to satisfy tax obligations on the exercise of any convertible securities, without the prior written consent of the Co-Lead Underwriters, on behalf of the Underwriters, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Price Stabilization and Passive Market Making

After the Underwriters have made reasonable efforts to sell the Offered Shares at the Offering Price, the Underwriters may decrease the Offering Price for the Offered Shares and may further change the price from time to time to amounts no greater than the Offering Price set forth on the cover page. In the event the Offering Price is reduced, the compensation realized by the Underwriters will be decreased by the amount that the aggregate price paid by the purchasers of the Offered Shares is less than the gross proceeds paid by the Underwriters to the Company. Any such reduction will not affect the net proceeds received by the Company. In connection with the Offering and subject to applicable laws, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions that stabilize or maintain the market price of the Common Shares at a level other than that which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time. The Underwriters may carry out these transactions on the TSX, the NYSE American, in the over-the-counter market or otherwise.

The Company has granted to the Underwriters an option (the "Over-Allotment Option"), exercisable in whole or in part at any time and from time to time, for a period of 30 days from and including the Closing Date, to purchase up to an additional 500,010 Offered Shares at the Offering Price on the same terms and conditions as under the Offering (the closing of each such purchase, an "Over-Allotment Closing"), solely to cover over-allocations, if any. This Prospectus Supplement qualifies the distribution of the Over-Allotment Shares issuable on the exercise of the Over-Allotment Option. A purchaser who acquires Over-Allotment Shares forming part of the over-allocation position acquires such Over-Allotment Shares under this Prospectus Supplement regardless of whether the over-allocation position is filled through the exercise of the Over-Allotment Option or secondary market purchases.

Pursuant to the rules and policy statements of the relevant securities commissions, the Underwriters may not, throughout the period of distribution under the Prospectus Supplement, bid for or purchase Common Shares for their own account or for accounts over which they exercise control or direction. The foregoing restriction is subject to certain exceptions, as long as the bid or purchase is not engaged in for the purpose of creating actual or apparent active trading in or raising the price of the Common Shares. These exceptions include a bid or purchase permitted under the by-laws and rules of applicable regulatory authorities and the TSX, including the Universal Market Integrity Rules for Canadian Marketplaces administered by the Canadian Investment Regulatory Organization, relating to market stabilization and passive market-making activities and a bid or purchase made on behalf of a client where the client's order was not solicited during the period of distribution.

Offering in the United States

The Offered Shares have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act or any state securities laws of the United States and may not be offered, sold, transferred, delivered or otherwise disposed of, directly or indirectly, within the United States except in transactions registered under the U.S. Securities Act or exempt from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and in compliance with all applicable state securities laws.

The Underwriters have agreed that, except as permitted by the Underwriting Agreement and as expressly permitted by applicable U.S. federal and state securities laws, they will not offer the Offered Shares for sale by the Company at any time in the United States as part of their distribution. The Underwriting Agreement permits each Underwriter acting through its registered United States broker-dealer affiliate to offer the Offered Shares pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement for sale by the Company in the United States to “qualified institutional buyers” (as defined in Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act) pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and pursuant to similar exemptions under applicable state securities laws. Moreover, the Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters will offer and sell the Offered Shares outside the United States only in accordance with Rule 903 of Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act.

This Prospectus Supplement does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any Offered Shares to a person in the United States. In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the Offering, an offer or sale of the Offered Shares within the United States by a dealer (whether or not participating in the Offering) may violate the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act unless such offer or sale is made pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act.

The Offered Shares offered or sold to persons in the United States will be “restricted securities”, as such term is defined in Rule 144(a)(3) under the U.S. Securities Act. The Offered Shares which are offered or sold to a person in the United States will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act and may only be offered, sold, pledged or otherwise transferred, directly or indirectly, pursuant to certain exemptions from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and in compliance with applicable securities laws of any state of the United States.

Concurrent Private Placement

The Company intends to complete the Concurrent Private Placement to enable NexGen to maintain its pro rata ownership interest in the Company at approximately 29.9% after giving effect to the Offering. The Concurrent Private Placement is expected to close concurrent with the Offering on or about January 27, 2026. The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Private Placement Shares. Closing of the Concurrent Private Placement is subject to the Company fulfilling all of the listing requirements of the TSX. No commission or other fee will be paid to the Underwriters in connection with the sale of Private Placement Shares pursuant to the Concurrent Private Placement. This Prospectus Supplement does not qualify the distribution of any Common Shares issued pursuant to the Concurrent Private Placement. For further details, see “Use of Proceeds”.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Offered Shares involves a high degree of risk and must be considered speculative due to the nature of the Company’s business and present stage of development. Before making an investment decision, prospective purchasers of Offered Shares should carefully consider the information described in this Prospectus Supplement, the Base Shelf Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein. There are certain risks inherent in an investment in the Offered Shares, including the factors described below and under the heading “Risk Factors” in the Annual Information Form and any other risk factors described herein or in a document incorporated by reference herein or in the Base Shelf Prospectus, which investors should carefully consider before investing. Some of the factors described herein, in the documents incorporated by reference in this Prospectus Supplement and/or the Base Shelf Prospectus are interrelated and, consequently, investors should treat such risk factors as a whole. If any of the risk factors described herein, in the Annual Information Form, the Annual MD&A, in another document incorporated by reference herein or in the Base Shelf Prospectus occur, it could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Company. Additional risks and uncertainties of which the Company currently is unaware or that are unknown or that it currently deems to be immaterial could have a material adverse effect on the Company’s business, financial condition and results of operation. The Company cannot assure purchasers that it will successfully address any or all of these risks. There is no assurance that any risk management steps taken will avoid future loss due to the occurrence of the risks described herein, in the Annual Information Form, the Annual MD&A, in the other documents incorporated by reference herein or in the Base Shelf Prospectus or other unforeseen risks.

All statements regarding the Company's business should be viewed in light of these risk factors. Investors should consider carefully whether investment in the Offered Shares is suitable for them in light of the information in this Prospectus Supplement and in the documents incorporated by reference and their personal circumstances. Such information does not purport to be an exhaustive list. If any of the identified risks were to materialize, the Company's business, financial position, results and/or future operations may be materially affected. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company, or which the Company currently deems not to be material, may also have an adverse effect upon the Company and the Offered Shares.

Risks Related to the Offering

Loss of Entire Investment

An investment in the Offered Shares is speculative and may result in the loss of an investor's entire investment. Only potential investors who are experienced in high risk investments and who can afford to lose their entire investment should consider an investment in the Company. Investors should carefully consider the risk factors described below and under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Base Shelf Prospectus and the Annual Information Form.

Discretion in Use of Proceeds

The Company currently intends to allocate the net proceeds received from the Offering as described under "Use of Proceeds". However, management will have discretion in the actual application of the net proceeds and may elect to allocate net proceeds, if any, differently from that described under "Use of Proceeds" if they believe it would be in the Company's best interests to do so. Accordingly, although such allocations are based on the current expectation of management of the Company, there may be circumstances where for sound business reasons, a reallocation of funds may be necessary. Investors may not agree with the manner in which management chooses to allocate and spend the net proceeds. The failure by management to apply these funds effectively could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.

Active Liquid Market for Common Shares

There may not be an active, liquid market for the Common Shares. There is no guarantee that an active trading market for the Common Shares will be maintained on the TSX and/or the NYSE American. Investors may not be able to sell their Offered Shares quickly or at the latest market price if trading in the Common Shares is not active.

Volatile Market Price of the Common Shares

The market price of the Common Shares may be volatile and subject to wide fluctuations in response to numerous factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control. This volatility may affect the ability of holders of Common Shares to sell their securities at an advantageous price. Market price fluctuations in the Common Shares may be due to the Company's operating results failing to meet expectations of securities analysts or investors in any period; downward revision in securities analysts' estimates; adverse changes in general market conditions or economic trends; changes in the economic performance or market valuations of companies in the industry in which the Company operates; addition or departure of the Company's executive officers, directors and other key personnel and consultants; release or expiration of transfer restrictions on outstanding Common Shares; sales or perceived sales of additional shares; regulatory changes affecting the Company's industry generally and its business both domestically and abroad; announcements of developments and other material events by the Company or its competitors, fluctuations in the cost of vital production materials and services; changes in global financial markets, global economies, general market conditions, interest rates and volatility in the price of the Company's products which may be impacted by a variety of factors; fluctuations in the price of Common Shares that cause short sellers to enter the market; the sentiment of retail investors (including as may be expressed on financial trading and other social media sites); significant acquisitions or business combinations, strategic partnerships, joint ventures or capital commitments by or involving the Company or its competitors; operating and share price performance of other companies that purchasers deem comparable to the Company or from a lack of market comparable companies; or news reports relating to trends, concerns, technological or competitive developments, regulatory changes and other related issues in the Company's industry or target markets; along with a variety of additional factors. These broad market fluctuations may adversely affect the market price of the Common Shares.

Financial markets have recently experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that have particularly affected the market prices of equity securities of companies and that have often been unrelated to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies (such as the COVID-19 pandemic). Accordingly, the market price of the Common Shares may decline even if the Company's operating results, underlying asset values or prospects have not changed. Additionally, these factors, as well as other related factors, may cause decreases in asset values that are deemed to be other than temporary, which may result in impairment losses. There can be no assurance that continuing fluctuations in price and volume will not occur. If such increased levels of volatility and market turmoil continue, the Company's operations could be adversely impacted, and the trading price of the Common Shares may be materially adversely affected.

Negative Operating Cash Flow and Dependence on Third-Party Financing

Given that the Company's properties have yet to enter commercial production and generate cash flow, the Company had negative operating cash flow for the year ended December 31, 2024 and for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025. The Company has no history of earnings or a return on investment, and there is no assurance that any of its properties or any business that the Company may acquire or undertake will generate earnings, operate profitably or provide a return on investment in the future. As a result, the Company is dependent on third-party financing to continue exploration activities on the Company's properties. Accordingly, the amount and timing of capital expenditures and the Company's ability to conduct further exploration activities at its properties depends on the Company's cash reserves and access to third-party financing. Failure to obtain such additional financing could result in delay or indefinite postponement of further exploration and development of the Company's properties, including the Larocque East Property and the Tony M Mine, or require the Company to sell one or more of its properties.

Furthermore, additional financing may not be available when needed, or if available, the terms of such financing might not be favourable to the Company and might involve substantial dilution to existing shareholders of the Company. The Company's access to third-party financing depends on a number of factors, including the price of uranium, the results of ongoing exploration and development, any economic or other analysis performed with respect to the Company's properties, a significant event disrupting the Company's business or the uranium industry generally, or other factors may make it difficult or impossible to obtain financing through debt, equity, or other means on favourable terms, or at all. Failure to raise capital when needed would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, prospects and outlook.

Additional Financing

The continued development of the Company may require additional financing. There is no guarantee that the Company will be able to achieve its business objectives without additional financing. The Company intends to fund its business objectives by way of additional offerings of equity and/or debt financing as well as through anticipated positive cash flow from operations in the future. The failure to raise or procure such additional funds or the failure to achieve positive cash flow could result in the delay or indefinite postponement of current business objectives. There can be no assurance that additional capital or other types of financing will be available if needed or that, if available, will be on terms acceptable to the Company. If additional funds are raised by offering equity securities, existing shareholders could suffer significant dilution, and any new equity securities issued could have rights, preferences and privileges superior to those of holders of Common Shares. In addition, any debt financings may increase the Company's debt levels above industry standards. Any debt financing secured in the future could involve restrictive covenants relating to capital raising activities and other financial and operational matters, which may make it more difficult for the Company to obtain additional capital and to pursue business opportunities, including potential acquisitions or the disposition of assets. Debt financings may also contain provisions which, if breached, may entitle lenders or their agents to accelerate repayment of loans and/or realize upon security over the assets of the Company, and there is no assurance that the Company would be able to repay such loans in such an event or prevent the enforcement of security granted pursuant to such debt financing. The Company will require additional financing to fund its operations until positive cash flow is achieved.

Dilutive Effects on Holders of Common Shares

The issuance of the Offered Shares in connection with the Offering may have a dilutive effect on the existing holders of Common Shares. The Company may issue additional securities in the future, which may dilute a shareholder's holdings in the Company. The Company's articles permit the issuance of an unlimited number of Common Shares, and shareholders will have no pre-emptive rights in connection with such further issuance. The directors of the Company have discretion to determine the price and the terms of further issuances. Moreover, additional Common Shares will be issued by the Company on the exercise of options and other outstanding convertible securities and obligations. Furthermore, the Company may complete additional corporate and property acquisitions pursuant to which it may issue Common Shares or other equity as partial or full consideration for such acquisitions.

Dividends

The Company has paid no dividends on the Common Shares since incorporation and does not anticipate paying dividends in the foreseeable future. The payment of future dividends, if any, will be reviewed periodically by the IsoEnergy Board and will depend upon, among other things, conditions then existing including earnings, financial conditions, cash on hand, financial requirements to fund its commercial activities, development and growth, and other factors that the IsoEnergy Board may consider appropriate in the circumstances.

LEGAL MATTERS

The issue and sale of the Offered Shares will be passed upon for the Company as to matters of Canadian law by Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP and as to matters of U.S. law by Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP and on behalf of the Underwriters by Borden Ladner Gervais LLP with respect to Canadian legal matters and Nauth LPC with respect to U.S. legal matters.

As at the date of this Prospectus Supplement, the partners and associates of Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP and Borden Ladner Gervais LLP, each as a group, beneficially own, directly and indirectly, less than 1% or no securities of IsoEnergy.

Securities legislation in certain of the provinces and territories of Canada provides purchasers with the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities. In several of the provinces and territories, the securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, revisions of the price or damages if the prospectus and any amendment contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that the remedies for rescission, revisions of the price or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser’s province or territory. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser’s province or territory for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor.

A Prospectus Supplement relating to a particular offering of Securities may include terms pertaining to the Securities being offered thereunder that are not within the terms and parameters described in this Prospectus. You should read this Prospectus and any applicable Prospectus Supplement carefully before you invest in any Securities.

This Prospectus constitutes a public offering of the Securities only in those jurisdictions where they may be lawfully offered for sale and therein only by persons permitted to sell such Securities. The Securities may be sold through underwriters or dealers, directly by us pursuant to applicable statutory exemptions, or through designated agents from time to time. The Prospectus Supplement relating to a particular offering of Securities will identify each underwriter, dealer or agent, as the case may be, engaged by the Company in connection with the offering and sale of the Securities, and will set forth the terms of the offering of such Securities, including, to the extent applicable, any fees, discounts or any other compensation payable to underwriters, dealers or agents in connection with the offering, the method of distribution of the Securities, the initial issue price (in the event that the offering is a fixed price distribution), the net proceeds to us and any other material terms of the plan of distribution. Certain of the Company's securityholders (each a "Selling Securityholder") may also offer and sell Securities under this Prospectus. The Prospectus Supplement relating to a particular offering of Securities by a Selling Securityholder will include all disclosure regarding the Selling Securityholders required under National Instrument 44-101 – Short Form Prospectus Distributions ("NI 44-101"), including the identity of the anticipated Selling Securityholders, their country of residence, and the types and numbers of Securities it anticipates will be sold by the Selling Securityholder. If a Selling Securityholder resides or is incorporated or organized outside of Canada, the Company will file a non-issuer's submission to jurisdiction form of the Selling Securityholder with the corresponding Prospectus Supplement.

The Securities may be sold from time to time in one or more transactions at a fixed price or prices or at non-fixed prices. If offered on a non-fixed price basis, the Securities may be offered at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices determined by reference to the prevailing price of a specified security in a specified market or at prices to be negotiated with purchasers, including sales made directly on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”), the NYSE American LLC (the “NYSE American”) or other existing trading markets for the Securities, and as set forth in an accompanying Prospectus Supplement, in which case the compensation payable to an underwriter, dealer or agent in connection with any such sale will be decreased by the amount, if any, by which the aggregate price paid for the Securities by the purchasers is less than the gross proceeds paid by the underwriter, dealer or agent to the Company. See “Plan of Distribution”.

This Prospectus may qualify an “at-the-market distribution” as defined in Canadian National Instrument 44-102 – Shelf Distributions (“NI 44-102”) of the Canadian Securities Administrators. This Prospectus does not qualify the issuance of Debt Securities in respect of which the payment of principal and/or interest may be determined, in whole or in part, by reference to one or more underlying interests including, for example, an equity or debt security, a statistical measure of economic or financial performance including, but not limited to, any currency, consumer price or mortgage index, or the price or value of one or more commodities, indices or other items, or any other item or formula, or any combination or basket of the foregoing items. Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Prospectus Supplement, subject to applicable laws, in connection with any offering of Securities, other than an “at-the-market distribution” (as defined in NI 44-102), the underwriters, dealers, or agents may over-allot or effect transactions that stabilize or maintain the market price of the offered Securities at a level above that which might otherwise prevail on the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be interrupted or discontinued at any time. No underwriter, dealer or agent involved in an “at-the-market distribution”, no affiliate of such an underwriter, dealer or agent and no person or company acting jointly or in concert with such an underwriter, dealer or agent may, in connection with the distribution, enter into any transaction that is intended to stabilize or maintain the market price of the Securities distributed, including selling an aggregate number or principal amount of securities that would result in the underwriter, dealer or agent creating an over-allocation position in the Securities distributed. A purchaser who acquires Securities forming part of the underwriters’ or dealers’ over-allocation position acquires those Securities under this Prospectus, regardless of whether the over-allocation position is ultimately filled through the exercise of the over-allotment option or secondary market purchases. See “Plan of Distribution”.

Any statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this Prospectus. The modifying or superseding statement need not state that it has modified or superseded a prior statement or include any other information set forth in the document that it modifies or supersedes. The making of a modifying or superseding statement shall not be deemed an admission for any purposes that the modified or superseded statement, when made, constituted a misrepresentation, an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make a statement not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made.

A Prospectus Supplement containing the specific terms of an offering of Securities will be delivered to purchasers of such Securities together with the Prospectus to the extent required under applicable securities laws and will be deemed to be incorporated by reference into the Prospectus as of the date of such Prospectus Supplement, but only for the purposes of the offering of Securities covered by that Prospectus Supplement.

Upon filing of a new annual information form and related annual consolidated financial statements with, and where required, accepted by, the applicable securities regulatory authorities during the currency of this

Prospectus, the previous annual information form, including all amendments thereto, the previous annual financial statements and all unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements (and related management's discussion and analysis in the interim reports for such periods), material change reports and management information circulars filed prior to the commencement of the fiscal year in which the new annual information form is filed, shall be deemed no longer to be incorporated into this Prospectus for purposes of future offers and sales of Securities hereunder.

CONSOLIDATED CAPITALIZATION

The applicable Prospectus Supplement will describe any material change, and the effect of such material change, on the Company’s share and loan capitalization that will result from the issuance of Securities pursuant to such Prospectus Supplement.

There have been no material changes to the Company’s share and loan capitalization on a consolidated basis since September 30, 2025, the date of the Company’s Interim Financial Statements.

USE OF PROCEEDS

While the details with respect to any offering of Securities and the related use of proceeds are not known at this time, unless otherwise specified in a Prospectus Supplement, the Company anticipates that the net proceeds from the sale of the Securities may be used to fund, among other things, (i) accelerated drilling programs at one or more of the Company’s properties in the event of positive exploration results, (ii) commissioning and completion of economic studies on one or more of the Company’s material properties, (iii) the potential purchase of equipment, including a mining fleet and ore transportation trucks, for use at the Company’s projects in Utah, (iv) potential acquisitions and acquisition-related costs, and (v) general working capital purposes. Particulars with respect to the net proceeds to the Company from any offering of Securities, the proposed use of those proceeds and the specific business objectives that the Company expects to accomplish with such proceeds will be set forth in the applicable Prospectus Supplement relating to that offering of Securities.

Although the Company regularly engages in discussions with potential counterparties with respect to potential transactions, as of the date of this Prospectus, the Company does not have any planned acquisitions that would meet the definition of a “probable” acquisition pursuant to 10.2(2) of Form 44-101F1.

While detailed information with respect to the use of proceeds from the sale of Securities will be described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, there may be circumstances where, on the basis of results obtained or for other sound business reasons, a re-allocation of funds may be necessary or prudent. Accordingly, management will have broad discretion in the application of the proceeds of an offering of Securities. The actual amount that the Company spends in connection with each intended use of proceeds may vary significantly from the amounts specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement and will depend on a number of factors, including those referred to under “Risk Factors” and any other factors set forth in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. The Company may invest funds which it does not immediately use. Such investments may include short-term marketable investment grade securities. The Company may, from time to time, issue securities other than pursuant to this Prospectus. See “Risk Factors”.

The Company has not, to date, generated positive cash flow from operating activities. The Company had negative operating cash flow for the year ended December 31, 2024 and the three and nine-month period ended September 30, 2025. Although the Company anticipates it will have positive cash flow from operating activities in future periods, the Company cannot guarantee it will generate positive cash flow from operating activities in future periods. To the extent that the Company has negative cash flow in any future period, the Company may need to deploy a portion of its existing working capital to fund such negative cash flows. The Company expects that the current working capital will be sufficient to fund current operations and capital requirements for the next 12 months. The Company’s expectations regarding sufficient financial resources to fund the Company’s planned operations and cash requirements for at least 12 months following the date of this Prospectus is based on expectations and assumptions that reflect management’s intended courses of action for the Company and current expectations for the period covered, given management’s judgment as to the most probable set of conditions. These expectations and assumptions, although considered reasonable by management at the date of this Prospectus, may prove to be incorrect and may not materialize as expected. Subsequent to the date of this Prospectus, events and circumstances may occur that were unanticipated or that otherwise impact actual results. Accordingly, there is a significant risk that actual results achieved for this 12 month period will vary from the expected results and that such variations may be material. There is no representation that actual results achieved during this period will be the same in whole or in part as those that are currently expected. Important factors that could cause actual results to vary materially from the anticipated results include those disclosed under “Risk Factors”. See “Risk Factors – Negative Operating Cash Flow and Dependence on Third-Party Financing”.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

General

The Company may from time to time during the 25-month period that this Prospectus, including any amendments and supplements hereto, remains valid, offer for sale and sell up to an aggregate of $250,000,000 in Securities hereunder.

The Securities may be sold by us (i) directly pursuant to applicable statutory exemptions, (ii) to or through underwriters or dealers, or (iii) through designated agents. The Prospectus Supplement relating to a particular offering of Securities will identify any underwriter, dealer or agent engaged in connection with the offering and sale of such Securities, and will set forth the terms of the offering of such Securities, including, to the extent applicable, any fees, discounts or any other compensation payable to underwriters, dealers or agents in connection with the offering, the method of distribution of the Securities, the purchase price of the Securities (or the manner of determination thereof if offered on a non-fixed price basis), the net proceeds to us and any other material terms of the plan of distribution. Any initial offering price and discounts, concessions or commissions allowed or re-allowed or paid to underwriters, dealers or agents may be changed from time to time. Only underwriters named in the Prospectus Supplement are deemed to be underwriters in connection with our Securities offered by that Prospectus Supplement. A Prospectus Supplement may provide that the Securities sold thereunder will be “flow-through” securities.

The Securities may be sold from time to time in one or more transactions at a fixed price or prices or at non-fixed prices. If offered on a non-fixed price basis, the Securities may be offered at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices determined by reference to the prevailing price of a specified security in a specified market or at prices to be negotiated with purchasers, including sales in transactions that are deemed to be “at-the-market distributions” as defined in NI 44-102, including sales made directly on the TSX or other existing trading markets for the Securities, in which case the compensation payable to an underwriter, dealer or agent in connection with any such sale will be decreased by the amount, if any, by which the aggregate price paid for the Securities by the purchasers is less than the gross proceeds paid by the underwriter, dealer or agent to the Company. The price at which the Securities will be offered and sold may vary from purchaser to purchaser and during the period of distribution.

If, in connection with the offering of Securities at a fixed price or prices, the underwriters have made a bona fide effort to sell all of the Securities at the initial offering price fixed in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the offering price may be decreased and thereafter further changed, from time to time, to an amount not greater than the initial offering price fixed in such Prospectus Supplement, in which case the compensation realized by the underwriters will be decreased by the amount that the aggregate price paid by purchasers for the Securities is less than the gross proceeds paid by the underwriters to the Company.

In connection with the sale of the Securities, underwriters, dealers or agents may receive compensation from the Company including in the form of underwriters’, dealers’ or agents’ fees, commissions or concessions. Underwriters, dealers and agents that participate in the distribution of the Securities may be deemed to be underwriters for the purposes of applicable Canadian securities legislation and any such compensation that they receive from the Company and any profit that they make on the resale of the Securities, may be deemed to be underwriting commissions.

Underwriters, dealers or agents who participate in the distribution of the Securities may be entitled, under agreements to be entered into with the Company to indemnification by the Company against certain liabilities, including liabilities under Canadian securities legislation, or to contribution with respect to payments, which such underwriters, dealers or agents may be required to make in respect thereof. Such underwriters, dealers and agents may be customers of, engage in transactions with, or perform services for, the Company in the ordinary course of business.

Underwriters, dealers or agents may make sales of Securities in privately negotiated transactions and/or any other method permitted by law, including sales deemed to be an “at-the-market distribution” and subject to limitations imposed by and the terms of any regulatory approvals required and obtained under, applicable Canadian securities laws, which includes sales made directly on an existing trading market for the Common Shares, or sales made to or through a market maker other than on an exchange. In connection with any offering of Securities, subject to applicable laws and other than an “at-the-market distribution” (as defined in NI 44-102), or as otherwise set out in a Prospectus Supplement relating to a particular offering of Securities, the underwriters, dealers or agents, as the case may be, may over-allot or effect transactions which are intended to stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the offered Securities at a level other than those which otherwise might prevail on the open market. Such transactions may be commenced, interrupted or discontinued at any time. No underwriter, dealer or agent involved in an “at-the-market distribution”, no affiliate of such an underwriter, dealer or agent and no person or company acting jointly or in concert with such an underwriter, dealer or agent may, in connection with the distribution, enter into any transaction that is intended to stabilize or maintain the market price of the Securities distributed, including selling an aggregate number or principal amount of securities that would result in the underwriter, dealer or agent creating an over-allocation position in the Securities distributed.

If underwriters or dealers purchase Securities as principals, the Securities will be acquired by the underwriters or dealers for their own account and may be resold from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. The obligations of the underwriters or dealers to purchase those Securities will be subject to certain conditions precedent, and the underwriters or dealers will be obligated to purchase all the Securities offered by the Prospectus Supplement if any of such Securities are purchased. If agents are used in an offering, unless otherwise indicated in the Prospectus Supplement, such agents will be acting on a “best efforts” basis for the period of their appointment. Any offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or re-allowed or paid may be changed from time to time.

Unless specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, there is no market through which the Warrants, Units, Debt Securities, and Subscription Receipts may be sold and purchasers may not be able to resell the Warrants, Units, Debt Securities, and Subscription Receipts purchased under this Prospectus and the Prospectus Supplement. This may affect the pricing of the Warrants, Units, Debt Securities, and Subscription Receipts in the secondary market, the transparency and availability of trading prices, the liquidity of the Warrants, Units, Debt Securities, and Subscription Receipts and the extent of issuer regulation. See “Risk Factors”.

DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES BEING DISTRIBUTED

Common Shares

The authorized share capital of the Company consists of an unlimited number of Common Shares. As of the date of this Prospectus, there are an aggregate of 55,018,855 Common Shares issued and outstanding.

The holders of Common Shares are entitled to receive notice of any meetings of shareholders of the Company, to attend and to cast one vote per Common Share at all such meetings, except meetings at which only holders of another class or series of shares are entitled to vote separately as such class or series. Holders of Common Shares are entitled to receive on a pro rata basis such dividends, if any, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Company at its discretion from funds legally available therefor. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company or other distribution of the assets of the Company among holders of Common Shares for the purposes of winding-up its affairs, the holders of Common Shares will be entitled, subject to the rights of the holders of any other class or series of shares ranking senior to the Common Shares, to receive on a pro rata basis the remaining property or assets of IsoEnergy available for distribution, after the payment of debts and other liabilities. The Common Shares do not carry any cumulative voting, pre-emptive, subscription, redemption, retraction or conversion rights, nor do they contain any sinking or purchase fund provisions.

Common Shares may be sold separately or together with certain other Securities under this Prospectus. Common Shares may also be issuable on conversion, exchange, exercise or maturity of certain other Securities qualified for issuance under this Prospectus.

Warrants

The following description sets forth certain general terms and provisions of Warrants for the purchase of Common Shares, Units, or Debt Securities that may be issued hereunder and is not intended to be complete. The Warrants may be offered separately or together with other Securities, as the case may be. Warrants may be issued at various times under one or more warrant indenture to be entered into by the Company and one or more banks or trust companies acting as warrant agent.

The statements made in this Prospectus relating to any warrant indenture and Warrants to be issued under this Prospectus are summaries of certain anticipated provisions thereof and do not purport to be complete and are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to, the provisions of the applicable warrant indenture. You should refer to the warrant indenture relating to the specific Warrants being offered for the complete terms of the Warrants. A copy of any warrant indenture relating to an offering of Warrants will be filed by the Company with the securities regulatory authorities in applicable Canadian offering jurisdictions after the Company has entered into it.

The particular terms of each issue of Warrants will be described in the related Prospectus Supplement. This description may include, but may not be limited to, any of the following, if applicable:

- the designation and aggregate number of Warrants;
- the price at which the Warrants will be offered;
- the designation, number and terms of the Common Shares, Units or Debt Securities, as applicable, purchasable upon exercise of the Warrants, and procedures that will result in the adjustment of those numbers;
- the date on which the right to exercise the Warrants will commence and the date on which such right will expire;
- the exercise price of the Warrants;
- if the Warrants are issued as a Unit with another Security, the date, if any, on and after which the Warrants and the other Security will be separately transferable;
- any minimum or maximum amount of Warrants that may be exercised at any one time;
- any terms, procedures and limitations relating to the transferability, exchange or exercise of the Warrants;
- whether the Warrants will be subject to redemption or call and, if so, the terms of such redemption or call provisions;
- provisions as to modification, amendment or variation of the warrant indenture or any rights or terms of such Warrants, including upon any subdivision, consolidation, reclassification or other material change of the Common Shares, Units, Debt Securities or other securities, any other reorganization, amalgamation, merger or sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or any distribution of property or rights to all or substantially all of the holders of Common Shares;
- the material Canadian federal income tax consequences of owning the Warrants; and
- any other material terms or conditions of the Warrants.

Warrant certificates will be exchangeable for new Warrant certificates of different denominations at the office indicated in the Prospectus Supplement. Prior to the exercise of their Warrants, holders of Warrants will not have any of the rights of holders of the Securities subject to the Warrants. The Company may amend the warrant indenture(s) and the Warrants, without the consent of the holders of the Warrants, to cure any ambiguity, to cure, correct or supplement any defective or inconsistent provision or in any other manner that will not prejudice the rights of the holders of outstanding Warrants, as a group.

Units

The following description sets forth certain general terms and provisions of the Units that may be issued hereunder and is not intended to be complete. Units may be issued at various times comprising any combination of the other Securities described in this Prospectus. Each Unit will be issued so that the holder of such Unit is also the holder of each Security comprising such Unit. Therefore, the holder of a Unit will have the rights and obligations of a holder of each included Security (except in some cases where the right to transfer an included Security of a Unit may not occur without the transfer of the other included Security comprising part of such Unit). The Units may be offered separately or together with other Securities, as the case may be.

The particular terms of each issue of Units will be described in the related Prospectus Supplement. This description may include, but may not be limited to, any of the following, if applicable:

- the designation and aggregate number of Units;
- the price at which the Units will be offered;
- the designation and terms of the Units and the Common Shares, Warrants and/or Debt Securities comprising the Units, including whether and under what circumstances those Securities may be held or transferred separately;
- any provisions for the issuance, payment, settlement, transfer or exchange of the Units or of the Securities comprising the Units;
- whether the Company will apply to list the Units on any exchange;
- the material Canadian federal income tax consequences of owning the Units, including how the purchase price paid will be allocated among the Securities comprising the Units; and
- whether the Units will be issued in fully registered or global form.

Debt Securities

The Debt Securities will be senior or subordinated unsecured indebtedness of the Company as described in the relevant Prospectus Supplement. If the Debt Securities are senior indebtedness, they will rank equally and rateably with all other unsecured indebtedness of the Company, from time to time issued and outstanding, which is not subordinated.

If the Debt Securities are subordinated indebtedness, they will rank equally and rateably with all other subordinated Debt Securities from time to time issued and outstanding. In the event of the insolvency or winding-up of the Company, the subordinated Debt Securities will be subordinated and postponed in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all other liabilities and indebtedness of the Company, other than indebtedness that, by its terms, ranks equally with, or subordinate to, such subordinated Debt Securities.

Any convertible or exchangeable Debt Securities will be convertible or exchangeable only for other securities of the Company.

In conformity with applicable laws of Canada, for all bonds and notes of companies that are publicly offered, the Debt Securities will be governed by a document called an “indenture”. There will be a separate indenture for the senior Debt Securities and the subordinated Debt Securities. An indenture is a contract between a financial institution, acting on a holder's behalf as trustee of the Debt Securities offered, and the Company. The trustee has two main roles. First, subject to certain limitations on the extent to which the trustee can act, the trustee can enforce rights against the Company if it defaults on its obligations under the indenture. Second, the trustee performs certain administrative duties for the Company. The aggregate principal amount of Debt Securities that may be issued under each indenture is unlimited. A copy of the form of each indenture to be entered into in connection with offerings of Debt Securities will be filed with the applicable securities regulatory authorities in Canada when it is entered into. A copy of any indenture or supplement thereto entered into by the Company will be filed with securities regulatory authorities and will be available under the Company's profile on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.

This Prospectus does not qualify for issuance Debt Securities in respect of which the payment of principal and/or interest may be determined, in whole or in part, by reference to one or more underlying interests including, for example, an equity or debt security, a statistical measure of economic or financial performance including, but not limited to, any currency, consumer price or mortgage index, or the price or value of one or more commodities, indices or other items, or any other item or formula, or any combination or basket of the foregoing items. For greater certainty, this Prospectus may qualify for issuance Debt Securities in respect of which the payment of principal and/or interest may be determined, in whole or in part, by reference to published rates of a central banking authority or one or more financial institutions, such as a prime rate or bankers' acceptance rate, or to recognized market benchmark interest rates commonly known as CORRA (the Canadian Overnight Repo Rate Average), EURIBOR, or a United States federal funds rate.

Selected provisions of the Debt Securities and the indenture(s) under which such Debt Securities will be issued are summarized below. This summary is not complete. The statements made in this Prospectus relating to any indenture and Debt Securities to be issued thereunder are summaries of certain anticipated provisions thereof and are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to, all provisions of the applicable indenture. The indentures will not limit the amount of Debt Securities that the Company may issue thereunder. The Company may issue Debt Securities from time to time under an indenture in one or more series by entering into supplemental indentures or by the Board of Directors of the Company or a duly authorized committee authorizing the issuance. The Debt Securities of a series need not be issued at the same time, bear interest at the same rate or mature on the same date.

The Prospectus Supplement for a particular series of Debt Securities will disclose the specific terms of such Debt Securities, including the price or prices at which the Debt Securities to be offered will be issued, and information pertaining to earnings coverage ratios required by item 6.1 of Form 44-101F1. The terms and provisions of any Debt Securities offered under a Prospectus Supplement may differ from the terms described below, and may not be subject to or contain any or all of such terms. Those terms may include some or all of the following:

- the designation, aggregate principal amount and authorized denominations of such Debt Securities;
- the indenture under which such Debt Securities will be issued and the trustee(s) thereunder;
- the currency or currency units for which the Debt Securities may be purchased and the currency or currency unit in which the principal and any interest is payable (in either case, if other than Canadian dollars);
- whether such Debt Securities are senior or subordinated and, if subordinated, the applicable subordination provisions;
- the percentage of the principal amount at which such Debt Securities will be issued;

- the date or dates on which such Debt Securities will mature;
- the rate or rates per annum at which such Debt Securities will bear interest (if any), or the method of determination of such rates (if any);
- the dates on which any such interest will be payable and the record dates for such payments;
- any redemption term or terms under which such Debt Securities may be defeased;
- whether such Debt Securities are to be issued in registered form, bearer form or in the form of temporary or permanent global securities and the basis of exchange, transfer and ownership thereof;
- the place or places where principal, premium and interest will be payable;
- the designation and terms of any other Securities with which the Debt Securities will be offered, if any, and the principal amount of Debt Securities that will be offered with each Security;
- the securities exchange(s) on which such series of Debt Securities will be listed, if any;
- any terms relating to the modification, amendment or waiver of any terms of such Debt Securities or the applicable indenture;
- any change in the right of the trustee or the holders to declare the principal, premium and interest with respect to such series of Debt Securities to be due and payable;

Subscription Receipts

The following description sets forth certain general terms and provisions of Subscription Receipts that may be issued hereunder and is not intended to be complete. Subscription Receipts may be issued at various times which will entitle holders thereof to receive, upon satisfaction of certain release conditions and for no additional consideration, Common Shares, Warrants, Units, Debt Securities, or any combination thereof.

The Subscription Receipts may be offered separately or together with other Securities, as the case may be. Subscription Receipts will be issued pursuant to one or more subscription receipt agreements (each, a “Subscription Receipt Agreement”), each to be entered into between the Company and an escrow agent (the “Escrow Agent”) that will be named in the relevant Prospectus Supplement. Each Escrow Agent will be a financial institution organized under the laws of Canada or a province thereof and authorized to carry on business as a trustee. If underwriters or agents are used in the sale of any Subscription Receipts, one or more of such underwriters or agents may also be a party to the Subscription Receipt Agreement governing the Subscription Receipts sold to or through such underwriter or agent.

The statements made in this Prospectus relating to any Subscription Receipt Agreement and Subscription Receipts to be issued under this Prospectus are summaries of certain anticipated provisions thereof and do not purport to be complete and are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to, the provisions of the applicable Subscription Receipt Agreement. You should refer to the Subscription Receipt Agreement relating to the specific Subscription Receipts being offered for the complete terms of the Subscription Receipts. A copy of any Subscription Receipt Agreement relating to an offering of Subscription Receipts will be filed by the Company with the securities regulatory authorities in applicable Canadian offering jurisdictions after the Company has entered into it.

The particular terms of each issue of Subscription Receipts will be described in the related Prospectus Supplement. This description may include, but may not be limited to, any of the following, if applicable:

- the designation and aggregate number of such Subscription Receipts being offered;
- the price at which such Subscription Receipts will be offered;
- the designation, number and terms of the Common Shares, Warrants, Units, Debt Securities, or any combination thereof to be received by the holders of such Subscription Receipts upon satisfaction of the release conditions, and any procedures that will result in the adjustment of those numbers;
- the conditions (the “Release Conditions”) that must be met in order for holders of such Subscription Receipts to receive, for no additional consideration, Common Shares, Warrants, Units, Debt Securities, or any combination thereof;
- the procedures for the issuance and delivery of the Common Shares, Warrants, Units, Debt Securities or any combination thereof to holders of such Subscription Receipts upon satisfaction of the Release Conditions;
- whether any payments will be made to holders of such Subscription Receipts upon delivery of the Common Shares, Warrants, Units, Debt Securities or any combination thereof upon satisfaction of the Release Conditions;
- the identity of the Escrow Agent;
- the terms and conditions under which the Escrow Agent will hold all or a portion of the gross proceeds from the sale of such Subscription Receipts, together with interest and income earned thereon (collectively, the “Escrowed Funds”), pending satisfaction of the Release Conditions;
- the terms and conditions under which the Escrow Agent will release all or a portion of the Escrowed Funds to the Company upon satisfaction of the Release Conditions and if the Subscription Receipts are sold to or through underwriters or agents, the terms and conditions under which the Escrow

Agent will release a portion of the Escrowed Funds to such underwriters or agents in payment of all or a portion of their fees or commissions in connection with the sale of the Subscription Receipts;

- procedures for the refund by the Escrow Agent to holders of such Subscription Receipts of all or a portion of the subscription price of their Subscription Receipts, plus any pro rata entitlement to interest earned or income generated on such amount, if the Release Conditions are not satisfied;
- any contractual right of rescission to be granted to initial purchasers of such Subscription Receipts in the event that this Prospectus, the Prospectus Supplement under which Subscription Receipts are issued or any amendment hereto or thereto contains a misrepresentation;
- any entitlement of the Company to purchase such Subscription Receipts in the open market by private agreement or otherwise;
- if the Subscription Receipts are issued as a Unit with another Security, the date, if any, on and after which the Subscription Receipts and the other Security will be separately transferable;
- whether the Company will issue such Subscription Receipts as global securities and, if so, the identity of the depository for the global securities;
- whether the Company will issue such Subscription Receipts as bearer securities, as registered securities or both;
- provisions as to modification, amendment or variation of the Subscription Receipt Agreement or any rights or terms of such Subscription Receipts, including upon any subdivision, consolidation, reclassification or other material change of the Common Shares, Warrants, Units, Debt Securities, or other securities, any other reorganization, amalgamation, merger or sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or any distribution of property or rights to all or substantially all of the holders of Common Shares;
- whether the Company will apply to list such Subscription Receipts on any exchange;
- the material Canadian federal income tax consequences of owning the Subscription Receipts; and
- any other material terms or conditions of such Subscription Receipts.

Rights of Holders of Subscription Receipts Prior to Satisfaction of Release Conditions

The holders of Subscription Receipts will not be, and will not have the rights of, shareholders of the Company. Holders of Subscription Receipts are entitled only to receive Common Shares, Warrants, Units, Debt Securities, or a combination thereof on exchange or conversion of their Subscription Receipts, plus any cash payments, all as provided for under the Subscription Receipt Agreement and only once the Release Conditions have been satisfied.

Escrow

The Subscription Receipt Agreement will provide that the Escrowed Funds will be held in escrow by the Escrow Agent, and such Escrowed Funds will be released to the Company (and, if the Subscription Receipts are sold to or through underwriters or agents, a portion of the Escrowed Funds may be released to such underwriters or agents in payment of all or a portion of their fees in connection with the sale of the Subscription Receipts) at the time and under the terms specified by the Subscription Receipt Agreement. If the Release Conditions are not satisfied, holders of Subscription Receipts will receive a refund of all or a portion of the subscription price for their Subscription Receipts, plus their pro rata entitlement to interest earned or income generated on such amount, if provided for in the Subscription Receipt Agreement, in accordance with the terms of the Subscription Receipt Agreement.

Modifications

The Subscription Receipt Agreement will specify the terms upon which modifications and alterations to the Subscription Receipts issued thereunder may be made by way of a resolution of holders of Subscription Receipts at a meeting of such holders or consent in writing from such holders. The number of holders of Subscription Receipts required to pass such a resolution or execute such a written consent will be specified in the Subscription Receipt Agreement.

The Subscription Receipt Agreement will also specify that the Company may amend the Subscription Receipt Agreement and the Subscription Receipts, without the consent of the holders of the Subscription Receipts, to cure any ambiguity, to cure, correct or supplement any defective or inconsistent provision, or in any other manner that will not materially and adversely affect the interests of the holder of outstanding Subscription Receipts or as otherwise specified in the Subscription Receipt Agreement.

PRIOR SALES

Information in respect of the Common Shares that the Company issued within the previous 12 month period, including issuances of all securities convertible or exchangeable into Common Shares, will be provided as required in a Prospectus Supplement with respect to the issuance of Securities pursuant to such Prospectus Supplement.

MARKET FOR SECURITIES

The outstanding Common Shares are currently traded on the TSX under the trading symbol “ISO” and on the NYSE American under the trading symbol “ISOU”. Trading price and volume of the Common Shares will be provided as required in each Prospectus Supplement to the Prospectus.

CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The applicable Prospectus Supplement may describe certain Canadian federal income tax consequences to an investor who is a non-resident of Canada or to an investor who is a resident of Canada of acquiring, owning and disposing of any of the Securities offered thereunder. Investors should read the tax discussion in any Prospectus Supplement with respect to a particular offering and consult their own tax advisors with respect to their own particular circumstances.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Securities involves a high degree of risk and must be considered speculative due to the nature of the Company’s business and present stage of development. Before making an investment decision, prospective purchasers of Securities should carefully consider the information described in this Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein, including the applicable Prospectus Supplement. There are certain risks inherent in an investment in the Securities, including the factors described below and under the heading “Risk Factors” in the Annual Information Form and any other risk factors described herein or in a document incorporated by reference herein, which investors should carefully consider before investing. Additional risk factors relating to a specific offering of Securities will be described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. Some of the factors described herein, in the documents incorporated by reference herein, and/or the applicable Prospectus Supplement are interrelated and, consequently, investors should treat such risk factors as a whole. If any of the risk factors described herein, in the Annual Information Form, in another document incorporated by reference herein or in the applicable Prospectus Supplement occur, it could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Company. Additional risks and uncertainties of which the Company currently is unaware or that are unknown or that it currently deems to be immaterial could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operation. The Company cannot assure purchasers that it will successfully address any or all of these risks. There is no assurance that any risk management steps taken will avoid future loss due to the occurrence of the risks described herein, in the Annual Information Form, in the other documents incorporated by reference herein or in the applicable Prospectus Supplement or other unforeseen risks.

Risks Related to an Offering of Securities

An Investment in the Securities is Speculative

An investment in the Securities and the Company's prospects generally, are speculative due to the risky nature of its business and the present state of its development. Investors may lose their entire investment and should carefully consider the risk factors described below and under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Annual Information Form.

Discretion in the Use of Proceeds

While detailed information regarding the use of proceeds from the sale of the Securities will be described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the Company will have broad discretion over the use of net proceeds from an offering by the Company of the Securities. There may be circumstances where, for sound business reasons, a reallocation of funds may be deemed prudent or necessary. In such circumstances the net proceeds will be reallocated at the Company's sole discretion.

Management will have discretion concerning the use of proceeds described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement as well as the timing of their expenditures. As a result, an investor will be relying on the judgment of management for the application of the proceeds. Management may use the net proceeds described in a Prospectus Supplement in ways that an investor may not consider desirable. The results and the effectiveness of the application of the proceeds are uncertain. If the proceeds are not applied effectively, the Company's results of operations may suffer.

Additional Financing

The continued development of the Company may require additional financing. There is no guarantee that the Company will be able to achieve its business objectives. The Company intends to fund its business objectives by way of additional offerings of equity and/or debt financing as well as through anticipated positive cash flow from operations in the future. The failure to raise or procure such additional funds or the failure to achieve positive cash flow could result in the delay or indefinite postponement of current business objectives. There can be no assurance that additional capital or other types of financing will be available if needed or that, if available, will be on terms acceptable to the Company. If additional funds are raised by offering equity securities, existing shareholders could suffer significant dilution, and any new equity securities issued could have rights, preferences and privileges superior to those of holders of Common Shares. In addition, any debt financings may increase the Company's debt levels above industry standards. Any debt financing secured in the future could involve restrictive covenants relating to capital raising activities and other financial and operational matters, which may make it more difficult for the Company to obtain additional capital and to pursue business opportunities, including potential acquisitions or the disposition of assets. Debt financings may also contain provisions which, if breached, may entitle lenders or their agents to accelerate repayment of loans and/or realize upon security over the assets of the Company, and there is no assurance that the Company would be able to repay such loans in such an event or prevent the enforcement of security granted pursuant to such debt financing. The Company will require additional financing to fund its operations until positive cash flow is achieved, see “Risk Factors – Risks Related to an Offering of Securities – Negative Operating Cash Flow and Dependence on Third-Party Financing” and “Risk Factors – Risks Related to an Offering of Securities – Risks Related to Dilution”.

Market for Securities

There is currently no market through which the Securities, other than the Common Shares, may be sold and, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, such unlisted Securities may not be listed on any securities or stock exchange or any automated dealer quotation system. As a consequence, purchasers may not be able to resell such unlisted Securities purchased under this Prospectus. This may affect the pricing of our Securities, other than our Common Shares, in the secondary market, the transparency and availability of trading prices, the liquidity of these Securities and the extent of issuer regulation. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for our Securities, other than the Common Shares, will develop or, if developed, that any such market, including for the Common Shares, will be sustained.

Volatile Market Price of the Common Shares

The market price of the Common Shares may be volatile and subject to wide fluctuations in response to numerous factors, many of which are beyond the Company’s control. This volatility may affect the ability of holders of Common Shares to sell their securities at an advantageous price. Market price fluctuations in the Common Shares may be due to the Company’s operating results failing to meet expectations of securities analysts or investors in any period; downward revision in securities analysts’ estimates; adverse changes in general market conditions or economic trends; changes in the economic performance or market valuations of companies in the industry in which the Company operates; addition or departure of the Company’s executive officers, directors and other key personnel and consultants; release or expiration of transfer restrictions on outstanding Common Shares; sales or perceived sales of additional shares; regulatory changes affecting the Company’s industry generally and its business both domestically and abroad; announcements of developments and other material events by the Company or its competitors, fluctuations in the cost of vital production materials and services; changes in global financial markets, global economies, general market conditions, interest rates and volatility in the price of the Company’s products which may be impacted by a variety of factors; fluctuations in the price of Common Shares that cause short sellers to enter the market; the sentiment of retail investors (including as may be expressed on financial trading and other social media sites); significant acquisitions or business combinations, strategic partnerships, joint ventures or capital commitments by or involving the Company or its competitors; operating and share price performance of other companies that purchasers deem comparable to the Company or from a lack of market comparable companies; or news reports relating to trends, concerns, technological or competitive developments, regulatory changes and other related issues in the Company’s industry or target markets; along with a variety of additional factors. These broad market fluctuations may adversely affect the market price of the Common Shares.

Financial markets have recently experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that have particularly affected the market prices of equity securities of companies and that have often been unrelated to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies. Accordingly, the market price of the Common Shares may decline even if the Company’s operating results, underlying asset values or prospects have not changed. Additionally, these factors, as well as other related factors, may cause decreases in asset values that are deemed to be other than temporary, which may result in impairment losses.

There can be no assurance that continuing fluctuations in price and volume will not occur. If such increased levels of volatility and market turmoil continue, the Company's operations could be adversely impacted, and the trading price of the Common Shares may be materially adversely affected.

Active Liquid Market for Common Shares

There may not be an active, liquid market for the Common Shares. There is no guarantee that an active trading market for the Common Shares will be maintained on the TSX and/or the NYSE American. Investors may not be able to sell their Common Shares quickly or at the latest market price if trading in the Common Shares is not active.

Risks Related to Dilution

The Company may issue additional securities in the future, which may dilute a shareholder's holdings in the Company. The Company's articles permit the issuance of an unlimited number of Common Shares, and shareholders will have no pre-emptive rights in connection with such further issuance. The directors of the Company have discretion to determine the price and the terms of further issuances. Moreover, additional Common Shares will be issued by the Company on the exercise of options issued under the Company's stock option plan, the vesting of restricted share units issued under the Company's restricted share unit plan and upon the exercise of other outstanding convertible securities and obligations. Furthermore, the Company may complete additional corporate and property acquisitions pursuant to which it may issue Common Shares or other equity as partial or full consideration for such acquisitions.

Risks Related to the Business

Negative Operating Cash Flow and Dependence on Third-Party Financing

Given that the Company's properties have yet to enter commercial production and generate cash flow, the Company had negative operating cash flow for its financial year ended December 31, 2024 and the three and nine-month period ended September 30, 2025. The Company has no history of earnings or a return on investment, and there is no assurance that any of its properties or any business that the Company may acquire or undertake will generate earnings, operate profitably or provide a return on investment in the future. As a result, the Company is dependent on third-party financing to continue exploration activities on the Company's properties. Accordingly, the amount and timing of capital expenditures and the Company's ability to conduct further exploration activities at its properties depends on the Company's cash reserves and access to third-party financing. Failure to obtain such additional financing could result in delay or indefinite postponement of further exploration and development of the Company's properties, including the Larocque East Property and the Tony M Mine, or require the Company to sell one or more of its properties.

Furthermore, additional financing may not be available when needed, or if available, the terms of such financing might not be favourable to the Company and might involve substantial dilution to existing shareholders of the Company. The Company's access to third-party financing depends on a number factors, including the price of uranium, the results of ongoing exploration and development, any economic or other analysis performed with respect the Company's properties, a significant event disrupting the Company's business or the uranium industry generally, or other factors may make it difficult or impossible to obtain financing through debt, equity, or other means on favourable terms, or at all. Failure to raise capital when needed would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, prospects and outlook.

The Company's ability to pursue exploration, development and mining on its properties may be impacted by Indigenous rights, Indigenous claims to rights, laws and processes for the protection of those rights and interests, and government conduct in respect of Indigenous peoples Effectively advancing exploration and mining operations within and outside of Canada is often dependent on addressing risk associated with the rights and interests of Indigenous peoples, and the Company is committed to working collaboratively with Indigenous peoples in respect of its projects, including for the purposes of effectively identifying and managing risk. However, the Company does not control many of the factors that give rise to risk, including government conduct, internal pressures and ambitions within Indigenous communities, as well as changing political and legal frameworks for addressing the rights and interests of Indigenous peoples and engaging with Indigenous peoples. In this context, no assurances can be given that material adverse consequences will not arise, including but not limited to: delays in receiving governmental approvals or rejections thereof, the imposition of onerous conditions, blockades or occupation of properties, legal challenges to the granting of governmental approvals, claims in tort alleging harm to rights, or the loss of the Company's rights to lands and minerals, including in the context of a finding of Aboriginal title.

Evolving expectations related to human rights, Indigenous rights, and environmental protection may result in opposition to the development of the Company's properties and may have a negative impact on the Company's reputation and operations.

Risks relating to the Company's ability to conduct exploration and future development and mining activities at its mineral properties in Saskatchewan

IsoEnergy's properties are located within areas subject to First Nation treaty rights and asserted Aboriginal rights and title of the Métis, including an outstanding land claim that encompasses a large portion of northern Saskatchewan. The legal requirements associated with Aboriginal and treaty rights in Canada, including Aboriginal title and land claims, are complex and constantly evolving. The decision of the Supreme Court of Canada in Tsilhqot'in Nation v. British Columbia (2014 SCC 44) found that an extensive area within North-Central British Columbia had been established as Aboriginal title. In 2025, the Supreme Court of British Columbia found that hundreds of acres in southern Richmond, British Columbia had been established to be Aboriginal title lands, and that Land Title Act's provision enshrining the indefeasibility of title did not apply to protect private interests from findings of Aboriginal title (the decision has been appealed).

The federal government has also taken steps to incorporate the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples within the positive law of Canada through the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act. A ruling by the Federal Court, now under appeal, in Kebaowek First Nation v. Canadian Nuclear Laboratories, 2025 FC 319 concluded that the adoption of UNDRIP had altered existing legal principles, including by imposing a requirement to seek Indigenous consent in the context of nuclear waste storage within an Indigenous peoples' traditional territory.

Developing and maintaining strong relationships with First Nations and Métis people is a matter of paramount importance to the Company. However, there can be no assurance that Aboriginal and treaty rights claims and related consultation issues, including outstanding land claims, will not arise or impact the Company's mineral properties or the ability of the Company to operate within its properties. These legal requirements and the risk of Indigenous peoples' opposition may increase the operating costs and affect the Company's ability to carry on its business.

Climate change related risks

Due to changes in local and global climatic conditions, many analysts and scientists predict an increase in the frequency of extreme weather events such as floods, droughts, forest and brush fires, and extreme storms. Such events could materially disrupt the Company's operations, particularly if they affect the Company's sites, impact local infrastructure or threaten the health and safety of the Company's employees, contractors and/or local communities. In addition, reported warming trends could result in later freeze-ups and warmer lake temperatures, including in the Athabasca Basin region, potentially affecting the Company's winter exploration programs at certain of its material projects. Any such event could result in material economic harm to IsoEnergy.

The Company is focused on operating in a manner designed to minimize the environmental impacts of its activities; however, certain environmental impacts from mineral exploration and development activities may be unavoidable. Increased environmental regulation and/or the use of fiscal policy by regulators in response to concerns over climate change and other environmental impacts, such as additional taxes levied on activities deemed harmful to the environment, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

Enforcement of Foreign Judgements

Two directors of the Company reside outside of Canada. Some or all of the assets of such persons may be located outside of Canada. Therefore, it may not be possible for investors to collect or to enforce judgments obtained in Canadian courts predicated upon the civil liability provisions of applicable Canadian securities laws against such persons. Moreover, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process within Canada upon such persons.

Regulatory Factors and International Trade Restrictions

The international uranium industry, including the supply of uranium concentrates, is relatively small, highly competitive and heavily regulated. Worldwide demand for uranium is directly tied to the demand for electricity produced by the nuclear power industry, which is also subject to extensive government regulation and policies. The development of mines and related facilities is contingent upon governmental approvals that are complex and time consuming to obtain and which, depending upon the location of the project, involve multiple governmental agencies. The duration and success of such approvals are subject to many variables outside of the Company's control. Any significant delays in obtaining or renewing such permits or licences in the future could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

In addition, the international marketing and trade of uranium is subject to potential changes in governmental policies, regulatory requirements and international trade restrictions (including trade agreements, customs, duties and taxes), which are beyond the control of the Company. Changes in regulatory requirements, customs, duties or taxes may affect the supply of uranium to the United States and Europe, which are currently the largest consumption markets for uranium in the world, as well as the future of supply to developing markets, such as China and India.

In particular, pursuant to an executive order, the United States has enacted significant import tariffs on trade and transactions with Canada and other trading partners. There is significant uncertainty surrounding further changes in governmental policy, particularly with respect to such trade policies, treaties and tariffs. These developments, and any similar further changes in governmental policy, may have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and financial markets. The full economic impact of any such changes in governmental policy on the Company remains uncertain and is dependent on the severity and duration of the tariffs and any other measures imposed which, if prolonged, could increase costs and decrease demand for any minerals that may be extracted by the Company.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS AND REGULATORY ACTIONS

The Company is not aware of: (a) any legal proceedings to which the Company is a party, or to which any of the Company's property is subject, which would be material to the Company or of any such proceedings being contemplated; (b) any penalties or sanctions imposed by a court relating to securities legislation, or other penalties or sanctions imposed by a court or regulatory body against the Company that would likely be considered important to a reasonable investor making an investment decision; and (c) any settlement agreements that the Company has entered into before a court relating to securities legislation or with a securities regulatory authority.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters in connection with any offering under the Prospectus will be passed upon on behalf of the Company by Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP with respect to matters of Canadian law and by Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP with respect to matters of U.S. law. As at the date hereof, the partners and associates of Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP beneficially own, directly and indirectly, in the aggregate, less than 1% of the Common Shares.

ENFORCEMENT OF CERTAIN CIVIL LIABILITIES

The Company is a corporation existing under the laws of the Province of Ontario, Canada. A majority of the assets of the Company are located outside of the United States and a majority of the directors and officers of the Company and some of the experts named in this Prospectus are residents of Canada and a majority of their assets are located outside of the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for United States investors to effect service of process within the United States upon those directors, officers or experts who are not residents of the United States, or to realize in the United States upon judgments of courts of the United States predicated upon civil liability of such directors, officers or experts under United States federal securities laws. There is substantial doubt whether an action could be brought in Canada in the first instance on the basis of liability predicated solely upon such laws. The Company has filed with the SEC, concurrently with the Registration Statement on Form F-10 of which this Prospectus forms a part, an appointment of agent for service of process on Form F-X. Under the Form F-X, the Company appointed CT Corporation System as its agent for service of process in the United States in connection with any investigation or administrative proceeding conducted by the SEC, and any civil suit or action brought against or involving it in a U.S. court arising out of or related to or concerning the offering of securities under the Prospectus.

Those remedies must be exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by securities legislation. Any remedies under securities legislation that a purchaser of Securities distributed under an at-the-market distribution the Company may have against the Company or its agents for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, revisions of the price, or damages if this Prospectus, the relevant Prospectus Supplement or an amendment thereto relating to Securities purchased by a purchaser contain a misrepresentation will remain unaffected by the non-delivery of the prospectus referred to above.

Original purchasers of Securities under this Prospectus (as supplemented or amended) that are convertible, exchangeable or exercisable for other securities of the Company will be granted a contractual right of rescission against the Company in respect of the conversion, exchange or exercise of such Securities. The contractual right of rescission will entitle such original purchasers to receive, in addition to the original amount paid for such Securities, the amount paid upon conversion, exchange or exercise, upon surrender of the underlying securities gained thereby, in the event that this Prospectus, the relevant Prospectus Supplement or an amendment thereto contains a misrepresentation, provided that (i) the conversion, exchange or exercise takes place within 180 days of the date of the purchase of such Securities under this Prospectus and the applicable Prospectus Supplement; and (ii) the right of rescission is exercised within 180 days of the date of the purchase of such Securities under this Prospectus and the applicable Prospectus Supplement. This contractual right of rescission will be consistent with the statutory right of rescission described under Section 130 of the Securities Act (Ontario) (the “Securities Act”), and is in addition to any other right or remedy available to original purchasers under Section 130 of the Securities Act or otherwise at law.

In an offering of Units, Warrants, Debt Securities or Subscription Receipts, to the extent such securities are convertible, exchangeable or exercisable securities, original purchasers are cautioned that the statutory right of action for damages for a misrepresentation contained in the Prospectus is limited, in certain provincial and territorial securities legislation, to the price at which the Securities are offered to the public under the prospectus offering. This means that, under the securities legislation of certain provinces and territories of Canada, if the purchaser pays additional amounts upon conversion, exchange or exercise, as applicable, of the Security, those amounts may not be recoverable under the statutory right of action for damages that applies in those provinces and territories of Canada.

The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser’s province or territory for the particulars of these rights and should consult with a legal advisor.
