Summary of Business and Discussion of Operations

The Company was incorporated pursuant to the provisions on the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) on January 24, 2022. The Company is a capital pool company (“CPC”) as defined in Policy 2.4 of the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”). The Company has no commercial operations and its purpose is to identify and evaluate potential acquisitions of operating businesses, and once identified and evaluated, to negotiate an acquisition of such a business, subject to receipt of regulatory approval.

On July 20, 2023, Hopefield announced that it had entered into a non-binding letter of intent (“LOI”) dated July 20, 2023 to complete a business combination (the “Transaction”) with Predictive Technologies LLC (“Predictive”). Pursuant to the applicable steps of the Transaction as contemplated by the LOI, Hopefield will acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of Predictive from the Predictive shareholders in exchange for post- consolidation common shares of Hopefield to form the resulting issuer (“Resulting Issuer”). Upon completion of the Transaction, it is the intention of the parties that the Resulting Issuer will continue on the business of Predictive and will qualify as a Tier 2 Technology Issuer on the Exchange. Hopefield intends that the Transaction will constitute its Qualifying Transaction, as such term is defined in the Exchange’s Policy 2.4 – Capital Pool Companies.

Immediately prior to the share exchange contemplated by the Transaction, Hopefield will complete a consolidation of its issued and outstanding capital on the basis of one post-consolidated Hopefield share (each an “HVII Post-Consolidated Share”) for each 2.0868749 pre-consolidation Hopefield shares, resulting in an aggregate of 8,571,429 HVII Post-Consolidated Shares (the “Consolidation”). Pursuant to the applicable steps of the Transaction, the equity capital of Hopefield and Predictive will be reorganized as contemplated by the LOI, including: (a) to implement the Consolidation; (b) existing holders of Hopefield’s convertible securities shall become holders of equivalent convertible securities of the Resulting Issuer, adjusted for the Consolidation; (c) Predictive shareholders shall receive an aggregate of 112,239,142 common shares of the Resulting Issuer (“Resulting Issuer Shares”), on a pro rata basis; and (d) Hopefield shall become the holder of all of the issued and outstanding securities of Predictive.

Prior to the closing date of the Transaction (the “Closing Date”), Predictive, with the assistance of Hopefield, intends to complete a private placement offering of subscription receipts (the “Subscription Receipts”) at a minimum price of CAD$0.35 per Subscription Receipt, to raise aggregate gross proceeds of a minimum of CAD$3,000,000, or such other amount and on such other terms as Predictive and Hopefield may otherwise agree, acting reasonably, which may include the issuance of warrants on such terms as Predictive and Hopefield may agree, acting reasonably (the “Concurrent Financing”).

All Subscription Receipts issued would be convertible, for no additional consideration, into securities of Predictive, which securities shall be exchanged by the holders thereof for economically equivalent securities of the Resulting Issuer, in connection with the completion of the Transaction, and which securities of the Resulting Issuer shall be freely-tradable in the reporting Provinces. In the event the Transaction does not close on or by a date to be agreed by Predictive and Hopefield, subscription funds raised under the Concurrent Financing shall be returned to the subscribers thereunder in full, without interest or deduction. The parties have agreed that it is their intention that the securities of the Resulting Issuer issued in exchange for the securities issued pursuant to the Concurrent Financing will, to the extent permitted by Canadian securities laws, be issued without a hold period in Canada, provided that neither party will be required to file a prospectus in connection with the securities of the Resulting Issuer.

Prior to the Closing Date, in addition to the Concurrent Financing, Predictive may also complete an interim financing required in connection with the Transaction, on terms and conditions as agreed to between the parties, each acting reasonably (the “Interim Financing”).

Following the Transaction, the Concurrent Financing, and the Consolidation, the Resulting Issuer will have approximately 129,382,000 common shares issued and outstanding, of which the shareholders of Hopefield will hold approximately 8,571,429 common shares (6.63%), the shareholders of Predictive will hold approximately 112,239,142 common shares (86.75%), and the shareholders under the Concurrent Financing will hold approximately 8,571,429 common shares (6.63%) of the Resulting Issuer. A portion of the Resulting Issuer Shares may be subject to escrow provisions which shall be imposed by the policies of the Exchange and/or applicable securities laws. If applicable, these escrowed securities will be held in escrow and released, over time, as determined by the Exchange and/or applicable securities laws.

evaluation of potential Qualifying Transactions and not for any deposit, loan or direct investment in a potential acquisition.

The Financial Statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, meaning the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations. The continuing operations of the Company are dependent upon its ability to identify, evaluate, negotiate and complete a Qualifying Transaction, which is not assured. The accompanying Financial Statements do not reflect adjustments that may be necessary if the going concern assumption were not appropriate. If the going concern basis were not appropriate, adjustments may be necessary to the carrying amounts and/or classification of assets and/or liabilities and the reported expenses in these Financial Statements. Such adjustments could be material.

There is no assurance that the Company will identify an appropriate business or asset for acquisition or investment and even if so identified and warranted, it may not be able to finance such acquisition or investment. Additional funds may be required to enable the Company to pursue such an initiative and the Company may be unable to obtain such financing on terms which are satisfactory to it. Furthermore, there is no assurance that a business or asset acquired will be profitable.

Changes in Accounting Policies

The Company has adopted accounting policies stated in the audited Financial Statements for the period ended December 31, 2022 and no changes to accounting policies have been made.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value Measurements

Financial instruments measured at fair value are classified into one of three levels in the fair value hierarchy according to the relative reliability of the inputs used to estimate the fair values. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

- Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 – Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

As at September 30, 2023, Hopefield's financial instruments consisted of cash, accrued receivables, prepaid expenses and deposits and accounts payable. The fair values of Hopefield's financial instruments approximate their carrying value, due to their short-term maturities or liquidity. As at September 30, 2023, Hopefield's risk exposure and the impact on Hopefield's financial instruments are summarized below:

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of an unexpected loss if a customer or third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets including cash. The Company limits the exposure to credit risk by only investing its cash with high credit quality financial institutions. Management believes that the credit risk related to its cash is negligible. As at September 30, 2023, Hopefield holds cash balances at a major Canadian chartered bank and has assessed the credit risk to be low.

Foreign Currency Risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. As at September 30, 2023, the Company holds no financial instruments that are denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars, and Hopefield had no financial assets and liabilities that were subject to currency translation risk.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments. Hopefield attempts to manage liquidity risk by maintaining sufficient cash balances and to ensure that there is sufficient capital to meet short-term obligations. As at September 30, 2023, Hopefield had a working capital balance of $1,061,124, including cash of $1,113,097.

HOPEFIELD VENTURES TWO INC.
MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
FOR THE PERIODS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2023

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates and commodity and equity prices.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in market risk. The Company's sensitivity to interest rates relative to its cash balances is currently immaterial. The Company also has no long-term debt with variable interest rates, so it has no negative exposure to changes in the market interest rate.

Price Risk

Price risk refers to risk with respect to commodity and equity prices. Equity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on earnings due to movements in individual equity prices or general movements in the stock market. Commodity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on earnings and economic value due to commodity price movements and volatility. Future declines in commodity prices may impact the valuation of long-lived assets. The Company does not currently hold equities or long-lived assets and as such, its earnings are not currently subject to price risk.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The preparation of the Financial Statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income, and expenses. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

Critical accounting estimates are estimates and assumptions made by management that may result in a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year included:

Stock Options

Determining the fair value of stock options requires estimates related to the choice of a pricing model, the estimation of stock price volatility, the expected forfeiture rate, and the expected term of the underlying instruments. Any changes in the estimates or inputs utilized to determine fair value could have a significant impact on the Company's future operating results or on other components of shareholders' equity.
