1. NATURE AND CONTINUANCE OF OPERATIONS

EraNova Metals Inc. (formerly Stuhini Exploration Ltd.) (the “Company”) was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) on July 7, 2017. The Company is focused on the acquisition, exploration, and development of mineral properties in Canada, namely the Provinces of British Columbia (“BC”) and Manitoba. The Company’s shares (“common shares”) are traded on the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”) under the symbol “NOVA” and on OTCQB under the symbol “STXPF”. On April 4, 2022, the Company incorporated Arizada Metals Corp. (“Arizada”) under the Arizona Business Corporations Act. The Company holds 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of Arizada, which held mineral exploration properties in Arizona, USA (Note 8). On October 24, 2024, the Company incorporated Stuhini Nevada Ltd. (“Stuhini Nevada”) under the Nevada Business Corporations Act. The Company holds 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of Stuhini Nevada, which had executed two option agreements to acquire mineral exploration properties in Nevada, USA (Note 8).

The Company’s head office address is 1055 West Hastings Street, Suite 300, Vancouver, BC V6E 2E9 and its registered records office address is 885 Georgia Street West, 19th Floor, Vancouver, BC V6C 3H4.

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared with the going concern assumption, which assumes that the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and, accordingly, will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations. The Company’s ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities is dependent upon the Company obtaining the necessary financing and ultimately upon its ability to achieve profitable operations. These material uncertainties may cast significant doubt on the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. Failure to arrange adequate financing on acceptable terms and/or achieve profitability may have an adverse effect on the financial position, results of operations, cash flows and prospects of the Company. These condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not reflect the adjustments to the carrying values of assets and liabilities, the reported revenues and expenses, and the statement of financial position classifications used, that would be necessary if the Company were unable to realize its assets and settle its liabilities as a going concern in the normal course of operations. Such adjustments could be material.

2. STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE AND BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of Compliance and Basis of Preparation

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS[®] Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”). The condensed interim consolidated financial statements, prepared in conformity with accounting policies consistent with IAS 34, follow the same accounting principles and methods of application as the most recent audited consolidated financial statements. Since the condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not include all disclosures required by the IFRS[®] for annual financial statements, they should be read in conjunction with the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended February 28, 2025.

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements were authorized for issuance by the Board of Directors on January 27, 2026.

Basis of Presentation and Consolidation

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements of the Company as at and for the three and nine months ended November 30, 2025 and 2024 comprise the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Arizada and Stuhini Nevada (the “Subsidiaries”). The Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date of their incorporation, as the Company is the sole shareholder and therefore has the control and power to govern the financial and operating policies of both Subsidiaries to obtain benefits from their activities. The Company will continue to consolidate until the date it no longer has control over the Subsidiaries. The financial statements of both Subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the parent company, using consistent accounting policies. Balances, transactions, income, and expenses between the Company and its Subsidiaries are eliminated on consolidation.

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and are based on historical costs, except for certain financial instruments, which are recorded at fair value. All amounts are expressed in Canadian dollars. The preparation of condensed interim consolidated financial statements in compliance with IFRS[®] requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the condensed interim consolidated financial statements and the reported expenses during the year. Actual results could differ from these estimates. The areas involving significant assumptions and estimates are disclosed in Note 3.

Functional and Presentation Currencies

The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the Canadian dollar, which is determined to be the currency of the primary economic environment in which each company operates.

Accounting Standards Issued but not yet Effective

A number of new accounting standards, amendments to standards, and interpretations have been issued but are not yet effective as of the date of issuance of the Company's condensed interim consolidated financial statements. The Company intends to adopt the standards when they become effective. The Company has not yet determined the impact of these standards on its consolidated financial statements but does not anticipate that the impact will be significant.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS, ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The preparation of these condensed interim consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities at the date of the condensed interim consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. These financial statements include estimates that, by their nature, are uncertain. These assumptions and associated estimates are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. The current market conditions introduce additional uncertainties, risks and complexities in management's determination of the estimates and assumptions used to prepare the Company's financial results. As volatility in financial markets is an evolving situation, management cannot reasonably estimate the length or severity of the impact on the Company. As such, actual results may differ from estimates and the effect of such differences may be material. The impacts of such estimates are pervasive throughout the financial statements and may require accounting adjustments based on future occurrences. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised, and the revision affects both current and future periods.

Critical judgments in applying accounting policies

The following are critical judgments that management has made in the process of applying accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements:

- the classification/allocation of expenses as exploration and evaluation expenditures or operating expenses;
- the classification and measurement of the Company's financial assets and liabilities;
- the assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and whether there are events or conditions that may give rise to significant uncertainty; and
- the determination whether there have been any events or changes in circumstances that indicate the impairment of its exploration and evaluations assets.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty include the following:

- the recoverability of the carrying value of exploration and evaluation assets when impairment indicators exist;
- recoverability and measurement of deferred tax assets;
- provisions for restoration and environmental obligations, and contingent liabilities; and
- measurement of share-based compensation.

4. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISKS

Financial instruments measured at fair value are classified into one of three levels in the fair value hierarchy according to the relative reliability of the inputs used to estimate the fair values. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

Level 1 — quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 — observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 3 — unobservable inputs in which there is little or no market data available, which require the reporting entity to develop its own assumptions.

The Company has classified its cash as measured at fair value in the statement of financial position, using level 1 inputs.

Risk management

The Company is exposed to the following risks through its use of financial instruments: credit risk, market risk, and liquidity risk. Management, the Board of Directors, and the Audit Committee monitor risk management activities and review the adequacy of such activities.

Credit risk:

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is limited to the carrying amount on the statement of financial position and arises from the Company's cash, which is held with a high-credit-quality financial institution and amounts receivable from the Government of Canada. As such, the Company's credit risk exposure is minimal.

Market risk:

Market risk refers to the potential loss that may result from fluctuations in market factors, including interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and commodity and equity prices.

i. Interest rate risk:

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates. At November 30, 2025, the Company had no interest-accumulating financial assets that could become susceptible to interest rate fluctuations. The Company believes that interest rate risk remains low.

ii. Currency risk:

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair values of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because they are denominated in currencies that differ from the respective functional currency. The Company's main operations currently are in Canada; the Company does not have a permanent presence, other than the required statutory agents, in Arizona and Nevada. The Company holds its cash in Canadian dollars and pays its US vendors by converting its Canadian dollar cash to US dollars on an as-needed basis. A significant change in the currency exchange rates between the Canadian dollar relative to the US dollar could have an effect on the Company's results of operations, financial position, and/or cash flows. At November 30, 2025, the Company had no hedging agreements in place with respect to foreign exchange rates. As the majority of the transactions of the Company are denominated in Canadian dollars, movements in the foreign exchange rates are not expected to have a material impact on the consolidated statements of comprehensive loss.

iii. Equity price risk:

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities decreases as a result of changes in the levels of equity indices and the value of individual stocks. The Company is exposed to equity price risk as a result of its investment in marketable securities of Brixton Metals Corporation (Note 9). The Company closely monitors the commodity markets and the stock market in general, as well as individual equity movements, to determine the appropriate course of action to take with respect to its interest in marketable securities.

Liquidity risk:

Liquidity risk is managed by ensuring sufficient financial resources are available to meet obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Company manages liquidity risk through the management of its capital structure. As at November 30, 2025, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $473,903 to settle current financial liabilities of $64,476.

The following table details the remaining contractual maturities of the Company's financial liabilities as of November 30, 2025:

	Within 1 year	1-5 years	5+ years
Accounts payable	$ 32,905	$ -	$ -
Accrued liabilities	19,794	-	-
Amounts due to related parties	11,777	-	-
	$ 64,476	$ -	$ -

5. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents consisted of the following:

	November 30, 2025	February 28, 2025
Cash at bank and on hand	$ 473,903	$ 139,235
Cash held in short-term GIC	-	303,486
Total cash and cash equivalents	$ 473,903	$ 442,721

The Company deposits cash only with a major Canadian banking institution of high-quality credit standing. Cash at the bank earns interest at floating rates based on daily bank deposit rates. Cash in GICs was deposited for varying periods, ranging from three to twelve months, depending on the Company's immediate cash requirements, and earned interest at the respective short-term deposit rates. For the nine months ended November 30, 2025, the Company recorded interest income of $1,251 (2024 - $19,020) on cash held in short-term GIC.

In addition, during the comparative period ended November 30, 2024, the Company recorded interest income of $14,757 on $500,000 held in a non-redeemable 12-month GIC with an annual interest rate of 5.7%; this investment matured on September 6, 2024.

6. AMOUNTS RECEIVABLE

During the year ended February 29, 2024, the Company staked two additional claims, which were added to the Ruby Creek Property, increasing the total number of claims to 58; however, on June 3, 2024, the Company sold these two new claims for a one-time cash payment of $20,000, retaining a 0.5% NSR.

The mineral lease included as part of the Ruby Creek Property is subject to an annual flat fee lease payment of $49,320 with no work requirement.

As at November 30, 2025, the Company had a total of $125,000 (February 28, 2025 - $125,000) in reclamation bonds on deposit with the BC Ministry of Energy, Mines and Low Carbon Innovation in connection with the Ruby Creek Property.

South Thompson Property

The Company holds a Mineral Exploration License (“MEL”) along the southern extent of the Thompson Nickel Belt, approximately 35 km northwest of Grand Rapids, Manitoba.

On May 23, 2023, the Company entered into a net smelter returns royalty agreement (the “NSR Agreement”) with Mr. Lindsay, granting him a 1% net smelter returns (“NSR”) royalty in respect of all concentrates and ores produced from the South Thompson Property, with an option to repurchase at any time 0.5% of the NSR royalty for a consideration of $50,000.

During the nine months ended November 30, 2025, the Company did not incur any deferred exploration costs associated with the South Thompson Property (February 28, 2025 - $Nil).

During the year ended February 28, 2025, the Company paid $30,336 in annual claim maintenance fees in lieu of field work to the Government of Manitoba. During the same period, the Company received a refund of $2,577 associated with the reclamation bond on deposit with the Manitoba Ministry of Innovation, Energy and Mines in connection with the South Thompson Property. The Company did not have similar transactions during the nine months ended November 30, 2025.

In September 2025, the Company received a partial refund of the reclamation bond for a total of $23,757 due to the reduced size of the South Thompson Property. As at November 30, 2025, the Company had a total of $15,166 deposited with the Manitoba Ministry of Innovation, Energy and Mines on account of the reclamation bond (February 28, 2025 - $38,923).

During the same period, the CRA issued an exploration tax refund for eligible exploration expenses on the Big Ledge Property, totalling $18,787, which was used to reduce the deferred exploration costs (February 28, 2025 - $50,226).

Discontinued Exploration and Evaluation Assets

As of November 30, 2025, the Company had written off the Que, Lindsay, Red Hills, and Jersey Valley Properties, which were fully impaired as of February 28, 2025.

Que Property

The Company held an option to acquire a 100% interest in the Que Property (the "Que Option") located in southcentral Yukon. To fully exercise the Que Option, the Company was required to make the following option payments:

Date	Common Shares	Cash Payment
April 1, 2020 (common shares issued)	200,000	$ -
1 st Anniversary of Approval (common shares issued)	50,000	-
2 nd Anniversary of Approval (common shares issued)	75,000	-
3 rd Anniversary of Approval (common shares issued)	112,500	-
4 th Anniversary of Approval (common shares issued, cash payment made)	125,000	35,000
5 th Anniversary of Approval (Que Option terminated prior to option payment due date)	375,000	60,000
Total	937,500	$ 95,000

In March of 2025, the Company terminated the Que Option Agreement, prior to its 5th Anniversary payment, due to the lack of exploration success during the summer 2024 field program, and the Company's recent emphasis on exploration of its Ruby Creek Property. As a result of this decision, the Company wrote off a total of $533,632 related to the acquisition and deferred exploration costs on the Que Property effective February 28, 2025.

During the nine months ended November 30, 2025, the Company received a $13,664 grant from Yukon Government under the Yukon Mineral Exploration Program to reduce the cost of the exploration program on the Que Property. The Company recorded the funds received as a reduction to the project investigation costs for the nine months ended November 30, 2025.

Lindsay Property

The Company, through Arizada, acquired four mineral properties in the southeast quadrant of Arizona (the "Arizona Properties"). The properties were subject to terms of a purchase agreement which included annual cash payments in respect of each Arizona property for a total of $620,000 expiring on May 25, 2027 (provided the Company has not abandoned such properties prior thereto) and a 1% NSR royalty in respect of all ores and concentrates produced from the Arizona Properties upon achieving commercial production, with an option to repurchase 0.5% NSR Royalty on any of the four Arizona Properties for consideration of $1,000,000 per Arizona Property.

During May and June of 2023, the Company carried out a fieldwork program on the Arizona claims. As a result of this program, management decided to reduce the portfolio to four claims, which comprised the Lindsay Property, thereby reducing the size of its holdings in Arizona. To retain its interest in the Lindsay Property, the Company was required to make the following cash payments:

Date	Cash Payment
Initial payment on signing of the Purchase Agreement (Paid)	$ 35,000
1 st Anniversary payment (Paid)	14,000
2 nd Anniversary payment (Written off prior to the 2 nd Anniversary payment becoming due)	28,000
3 rd Anniversary payment	56,000
4 th Anniversary payment	112,000
Total	$ 245,000

The Company did not pay the annual license fees for the claims included in the Lindsay Property during the year ended February 28, 2025, resulting in the claims lapsing. As of February 28, 2025, the Company decided not to maintain the Lindsay Property, and therefore wrote off a total of $77,301 related to the acquisition and deferred exploration costs on the Lindsay Property.

During the nine months ended November 30, 2025, the Company incurred an additional $10,000 associated with the cancellation of the Purchase Agreement with Mr. Lindsay, which were recorded as project investigation costs.

The Company was required to post a $19,463 (US$15,000) one-time reclamation bond with the Arizona State Land Department, which was refunded subsequent to November 30, 2025.

Red Hills Property

The Company held an option to acquire a 100% interest in Red Hills Project LLC’s Red Hills Property, located approximately 68 km northeast of Ely, Nevada, in the central portion of the Red Hills in White Pine County (the “Red Hills Option”).

To fully exercise the Red Hills Option, the Company was required to make the following option payments:

Date	Minimum Cash Payment	Qualified Expenditures
On Acquisition (the “Effective Date”) (Paid)	US$25,736	US$ -
1 st Anniversary of the Effective Date (Written off prior to the 1 st Anniversary payment becoming due)	US$25,000	US$ 75,000
2 nd Anniversary of the Effective Date	US$30,000	US$200,000
3 rd Anniversary of the Effective Date	US$40,000	US$200,000
4 th Anniversary of the Effective Date (and each year thereafter until commencement of commercial production)	US$50,000	US$ -
Total	US$170,736	US$475,000

In addition to the option payments, the Company was required to pay annual Bureau of Land Management (“BLM”) and county claim maintenance fees totaling approximately US$27,840, and the following one-time milestone payments:

- (a) US$250,000 upon completion of a technical report on the Red Hills Property disclosing a resource containing at least 250,000 troy ounces of gold equivalent;
- (b) US$500,000 on completion of a positive feasibility report on the Red Hills Property; and
- (c) US$1,000,000 on commencement of commercial production.

To exercise the Red Hills Option at any time, the Company was required to pay US$400,000 in addition to any payments already made and complete the cumulative Qualified Expenditures. Upon exercise of the Red Hills Option, the Vendor would have retained a 2.5% NSR, subject to the Company’s right to purchase 60% of the NSR for US$1,500,000.

During the year ended February 28, 2025, the Company staked additional claims for a total cost of $57,957 (US$41,661). During the year ended February 28, 2025, the Company incurred $9,351 in deferred exploration costs associated with the Red Hills Property.

After new management assessed the Red Hills Option, it was determined that the terms were unfavourable, the geological merit following the preliminary exploration program was lacking, and the Company faced challenges in funding multiple exploration projects. In light of these factors, the decision was made to concentrate exploration efforts on the Ruby Creek Property. As a result, the Red Hills Option was terminated, and as of February 28, 2025, the Company wrote off $106,264 related to the acquisition and deferred exploration costs of the Red Hills Property.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2026, the Company incurred an additional $19,013 in exploration costs associated with the Red Hills Property, which were expensed as project investigation costs.

Jersey Valley Property

The Company held an option to acquire a 100% interest in Jersey Valley Property (the “Jersey Valley Property”), a gold exploration project located in Pershing County, Nevada, in the Battle Mountain area (the “Jersey Valley Option”).

To fully exercise the Jersey Valley Option, the Company was required to make the following option payments:

Date	Minimum Cash Payment
On Acquisition (the “Effective Date”) (Paid)	US$ 9,500
1 st Anniversary of the Effective Date (Written off prior to the 1 st Anniversary payment becoming due)	US$ 7,500
2 nd Anniversary of the Effective Date	US$10,000
3 rd Anniversary of the Effective Date	US$15,000
4 th Anniversary of the Effective Date (and each year thereafter until commencement of commercial production)	US$25,000
Total	US$67,000

There were no work commitments associated with the Jersey Valley Option. The remaining Minimum Payments were at the Company’s election, should it wish to maintain the Option after the first year.

To exercise the Jersey Valley Option at any time, the Company was required to pay US$300,000 in addition to any Minimum Cash Payments already made. Upon exercise of the Jersey Valley Option, the vendor would have retained a 2.0% NSR on the Jersey Valley Property, subject to the Company’s right to purchase 50% of the NSR for US$2,000,000 within 30 days of commencement of commercial production. In addition, the Company was required to pay annual BLM and county claim maintenance fees totalling US$34,320.

During the year ended February 28, 2025, the Company staked additional claims for a total cost of $87,841 (US$62,882).

During the year ended February 28, 2025, the Company incurred $58,815 in deferred exploration costs associated with the Jersey Valley Property.

After new management assessed the Jersey Valley Option, it was determined that the terms were unfavourable, the geological merit following the preliminary exploration program was lacking, and the Company faced challenges in funding multiple exploration projects. In light of these factors, the decision was made to concentrate exploration efforts on the Ruby Creek Property. As a result, the Jersey Valley Option was terminated, and as of February 28, 2025, the Company wrote off $160,052 related to the acquisition and deferred exploration costs of the Jersey Valley Property.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2026, the Company incurred an additional $7,465 in exploration costs associated with the Jersey Valley Property, which were expensed as project investigation costs.
