Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in the following Quarterly Highlights constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to statements regarding the Company’s plans for the Paxson Gold Property, its ability to raise sufficient financing for exploration and evaluation activities, and its financial statement risks. These forward-looking statements involve a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors such as, but not limited to exploration results, gold prices and general equity and market conditions. The outcomes of these factors may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the company to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements.

Analysis of the Company’s Financial Performance and Condition

Rhyolite is an exploration company with claims to the Paxson Gold Property (“Paxson”) located in the State of Alaska. Currently, the Company is not undertaking significant exploration activities at Paxson and related expenses are typically limited to on-going charges for the maintenance of mineral claims. As Paxson is an exploration-stage property, the Company has no operating revenues and, in addition to maintenance costs of its mineral claims, its operating expenses typically comprise costs for management and administrative services as well as transfer agent, listing, filing, legal and audit fees incurred as a publicly-listed company on the TSX Venture Exchange (“TSX-V”). These costs are typically similar from quarter to quarter and, until the Company acquires new exploration assets or increases its exploration of Paxson, are not expected to change in the next 12 months.

The Company incurred a net loss of $17,695 for the three months ended September 30, 2017, compared to a $14,238 loss for the three months ended September 30, 2016. The net loss for the three months ended September 30, 2017 included $12,000 for office administration and facilities provided by a related party, $3,834 for accounting and legal services, $3,554 for transfer agent, listing and filing fees, $708 for office supplies and services, and $629 for shareholder communications. Consistent with the Company's negligible operating activities, these charges were comparable with those for the three months ended September 30, 2016.

As at September 30, 2017, the Company had cash of $1,540,099, amounts receivable of $995 and liabilities of $28,098. The $1,512,996 in net working capital is sufficient to fund the Company's operations for at least the next 12 months and, in addition to funding routine general and administrative expenses and the maintenance of Paxson mineral claims, may be used to pursue opportunities to enter into new businesses or to acquire new assets.

Related Party Transactions

The Company is party to a corporate service agreement with Earlston Management Corp. ("Earlston"), a company a company related that provides key management services to the Company. The Company pays Earlston a fee of $4,000 per month and Earlston is reimbursed for expenses incurred in the performance of its services. An expense for office administration and facilities of $12,000 the three months ended September 30, 2017 (2016 - $12,000) has been reported for services provided by Earlston. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities as at September 30, 2017 includes $11,362 (June 30, 2017 - $4,307) in amounts owing to Earlston.
