INFORMATION CIRCULAR
(As at September 24, 2021, except as indicated)

Capha Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the "Company") is providing this Information Circular and a form of proxy in connection with management's solicitation of proxies for use at the annual general meeting (the "Meeting") of the Company to be held on October 29, 2021 and at any adjournments. The Company will conduct its solicitation by mail and officers and employees of the Company may, without receiving special compensation, also telephone or make other personal contact. The Company will pay the cost of solicitation.

The Company is not sending this Information Circular to registered or beneficial shareholders using "notice-and-access" as defined under National Instrument 54-101 ("NI 54-101").

APPOINTMENT OF PROXYHOLDER

The purpose of a proxy is to designate persons who will vote the proxy on a shareholder's behalf in accordance with the instructions given by the shareholder in the proxy. The persons whose names are printed in the enclosed form of proxy are officers or Directors of the Company (the "Management Proxyholders").

A shareholder has the right to appoint a person other than a Management Proxyholder, to represent the shareholder at the Meeting by striking out the names of the Management Proxyholders and by inserting the desired person's name in the blank space provided or by executing a proxy in a form similar to the enclosed form. A proxyholder need not be a shareholder.

VOTING BY PROXY

Only registered shareholders or duly appointed proxyholders are permitted to vote at the Meeting. Shares represented by a properly executed proxy will be voted or be withheld from voting on each matter referred to in the Notice of Meeting in accordance with the instructions of the shareholder on any ballot that may be called for and if the shareholder specifies a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares will be voted accordingly.

If a shareholder does not specify a choice and the shareholder has appointed one of the Management Proxyholders as proxyholder, the Management Proxyholder will vote in favour of the matters specified in the Notice of Meeting and in favour of all other matters proposed by management at the Meeting.

The enclosed form of proxy also gives discretionary authority to the person named therein as proxyholder with respect to amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice of the Meeting and with respect to other matters which may properly come before the Meeting. At the date of this Information Circular, management of the Company knows of no such amendments, variations or other matters to come before the Meeting.

COMPLETION AND RETURN OF PROXY

Completed forms of proxy must be deposited at the office of the Company's registrar and transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services Inc. at Proxy Department, 100 University Avenue, 8th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2Y1, Facsimile: (416) 263-9524, not later than forty-eight (48) hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, prior to the time of the Meeting, unless the chairman of the Meeting elects to exercise his discretion to accept proxies received subsequently.

NON-REGISTERED HOLDERS

Only shareholders whose names appear on the records of the Company as the registered holders of shares or duly appointed proxyholders are permitted to vote at the Meeting. Most shareholders of the Company are "non-registered" shareholders because the shares they own are not registered in their names but instead registered in the name of a nominee such as a brokerage firm through which they purchased the shares; bank, trust company, trustee or administrator of self-administered RRSP's, RRIF's, RESP's and similar plans; or clearing agency such as The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited (a "Nominee"). If you purchased your shares through a broker, you are likely a non-registered holder. Non-registered holders who have not objected to their Nominee disclosing certain ownership information about themselves to the Company are referred to as "non-objecting beneficial owners ("NOBOs"). Those non-registered holders who have objected to their Nominee disclosing ownership information about themselves to the Company are referred to as "objecting beneficial owners" ("OBOs").

In accordance with securities regulatory requirements, the Company has distributed copies of the Meeting materials, being the Notice of Meeting, this Information Circular and the Proxy, to the Nominees for distribution to non-registered holders.

Nominees are required to forward the Meeting materials to non-registered holders to seek their voting instructions in advance of the Meeting. Shares held by Nominees can only be voted in accordance with the instructions of the non-registered holder. The Nominees often have their own form of proxy, mailing procedures and provide their own return instructions. If you wish to vote by proxy, you should carefully follow the instructions from the Nominee in order that your shares are voted at the Meeting. If you, as a non-registered holder, wish to vote at the Meeting in person, you should appoint yourself as proxyholder by writing your name in the space provided on the request for voting instructions or proxy provided by the Nominee and return the form to the Nominee in the envelope provided. Do not complete the voting section of the form as your vote will be taken at the Meeting.

The Company does not intend to pay for Nominees to deliver the meeting materials and Form 54-101F7 – Request for Voting Instructions Made by Intermediary to OBOs. As a result, OBOs will not receive the meeting materials unless their Nominee assumes the costs of delivery.

The Company is not sending the Meeting materials directly to NOBOs in connection with the Meeting, but rather has distributed copies of the Meeting materials to the Nominees for distribution to NOBOs.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXY

Any registered shareholder who has returned a proxy may revoke it at any time before it has been exercised. In addition to revocation in any other manner permitted by law, a registered shareholder, his attorney authorized in writing or, if the registered shareholder is a corporation, a corporation under its corporate seal or by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized, may revoke a proxy by instrument in writing, including a proxy bearing a later date. The instrument revoking the proxy must be deposited at the registered office of the Company, at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the date of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, or with the chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting. Only registered shareholders have the right to revoke a proxy. Non-registered holders who wish to change their vote must, at least 7 days before the Meeting, arrange for their Nominees to revoke the proxy on their behalf.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares and an unlimited number of preferred shares, all without par value, of which 64,431,030 common shares and no preferred shares are issued and outstanding as at the date of this Circular. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The purpose of this Compensation Discussion and Analysis ("CD&A") is to provide information about the Company's executive compensation philosophy, objectives, and processes and to discuss compensation decisions relating to the Company's senior leaders, being the two identified named executive officers (the "NEOs") during the financial year ended December 31, 2020. The NEO who is the focus of the CD&A and who appears in the compensation tables of this Information Circular is James R. Brown, Chairman, President, Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO"), Chief Financial Officer (the "CFO") and Secretary of the Corporation.

Board Oversight of Compensation

Among its other duties, the Board is responsible for (i) overseeing the Company's human resources policies, executive compensation, management succession and development, and equity compensation plans, and (ii) ensuring that the Company's executive compensation policies and programs are competitive and reflect the long term interest of the Company and its Shareholders. Given the size of the Company and the number of directors on the Board, the Board has not delegated any of the above responsibilities to a committee of the Board and performs such functions itself. In performing its duties, the Board has the authority to engage such advisors, including executive compensation consultants, as it considers necessary.

In order to ensure that the process for determining executive compensation remains objective, the Board requires that executive directors remove themselves from any deliberations or determinations relating to their own compensation. The Board considers the experience and insight of the executive directors to be an asset in the Board's discussions and decisions relating to human resources and general compensation matters and relies on their input in matters that are not directly related to their own compensation.

Compensation Program

The primary goal of the Company's executive compensation program is to retain and motivate top quality individuals at the executive level. The program is designed to ensure that the compensation provided to the Company's senior officers is determined with regard to the Company's business strategy and objectives and financial condition, such that the financial interests of the senior officers are matched with the financial interests of the Company's shareholders. The Company strives to ensure that the Company's senior officers are compensated fairly and commensurately with their contributions to furthering the Company's strategic direction and objectives.

Neither the Company nor the Board currently has any contractual arrangement with any executive compensation consultant who has a role in determining or recommending the amount or form of senior officer or director compensation. The Board relies on the knowledge and experience of the members of the Board and the recommendations of the CEO to set appropriate levels of compensation for senior officers.

The Board has not undertaken a formal analysis of the implications of the risks associated with the Company's compensation policies and practices.

The Company has not adopted a formal policy forbidding directors or NEOs from purchasing financial instruments that are designed to hedge or offset a decrease in market value of equity securities granted as compensation or held, directly or indirectly, by directors or officers; however, the Company is not aware of any directors or NEOs having entered into this type of transaction.

Compensation Program Design

The total compensation mix was designed on the basis of the Company's compensation objectives. Standard compensation arrangements for the Company's senior officers are composed of the following elements, which are linked to the Company's compensation and corporate objectives.

Consulting Fees

Consulting fees are determined for each of the Company's executive officers on an individual basis, taking into consideration the individual's experience, performance and contributions to the Company's success and competitive industry pay practices for comparable positions with the primary goal of retaining highly qualified executives in a competitive market environment.

Stock Options

The Board believes that stock options encourage the Company's executive officers to own and hold shares in the Company which aligns their long-term interests directly to those of the shareholders and helps to achieve the Company's objective of retaining highly qualified executives. Under the terms of the Company's stock option plan, as amended (the "Plan"), the Board may propose and the Board may designate employees, including executive officers, eligible to receive options to acquire such numbers of common shares as the Board determines at an exercise price not less than the discounted market price determined in accordance with the terms of the Plan.

When granting options pursuant to the Plan, consideration is given to the exercise price of the aggregate options that would be held by an individual after the award. In determining the individual grants, the Board considers the following factors: the executive officer's relative position and performance as well as past equity grants.

The incentive stock options granted to executive officers increase in value as the market price of the common shares increase, thereby linking equity-based executive compensation to shareholder returns.

The Board regularly assesses the individual performance of the Company's executive officers. Based on these assessments, the Board makes decisions concerning the nature and scope of the equity-based compensation to be paid to the Company's executive officers. The criteria upon which these assessments are based reflect the Board's views as to the nature and value of the contributions made by the executive officers to the achievement of the Company's corporate plans and objectives. The Board generally considers option grants following the annual shareholders meeting, except in exceptional circumstances.

Independence of Members of Board

Leary are independent. James R. Brown is not independent as he is the Chairman, President, CEO, CFO and Corporate Secretary of the Company.

Management Supervision by Board

The operations of the Company do not support a large Board and the Board has determined that the current constitution of the Board is appropriate for the Company's current stage of development. Independent supervision of management is accomplished through choosing management who demonstrate a high level of integrity and ability and having strong independent Board members. The independent directors are however able to meet at any time without any members of management, including the non-independent directors, being present. Further supervision is performed through the Audit Committee which is composed of a majority of independent directors who are able to meet with the Company's auditors without management being in attendance.
