1.5 RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

1.5.1 (Loss) for the period ended October 31, 2021 ("2022 Q1") vs. 2020 ("2021 Q1")

The increase in loss during 2022 Q1 was mainly due to the increase in exploration and evaluation expenditures incurred in the current period (2022 Q1 - $97,648) versus $56,292 in 2021 Q1. The increase is attributed to the exploration works on the Maestro Property acquired in May 2021.

During 2022 Q1, administrative expenses decreased from $39,695 in 2021 Q1 to $37,925 in 2022 Q1. The decrease was due to the management's continuous effort in streamlining of office overhead expenses including the reduction in insurance premium in 2022 Q1 versus 2021 Q1. A breakdown of general and administrative expenses incurred during the period ended October 31, 2021 and 2020, is provided in the financial statements for the period ended October 31, 2021.

1.6 LIQUIDITY

Historically, the Company's primary source of funding has been the issuance of equity securities for cash through private placements to sophisticated investors and institutions. The Company is assessing mineral properties with a goal to acquire and explore mineral property interests. The Company's continuing operations entirely depends upon the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing to complete any exploration and development of its projects, the existence of economically recoverable mineral reserves at its projects, the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary permits to explore or mine, the future profitable production of any mine and the proceeds from the disposition of its mineral property interests.

At October 31, 2021, the Company had an accumulated deficit of $27,867,595 and has a working capital of $74,472.

The Company believes that its liquid assets at October 31, 2021, are sufficient to meet its known obligations. The Company is actively managing its cash reserves, and curtailing activities as necessary in order to ensure its ability to meet payments as they come due.

Additional debt or equity financing will be required to fund exploration or development programs. However, there can be no assurance that the Company will continue to obtain additional financial resources or that it will be able to achieve positive cash flows.

QUARTZ MOUNTAIN RESOURCES LTD.
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
FOR THREE MONTHS ENDED OCTOBER 31, 2021

Financial market conditions for junior exploration companies have resulted in very depressed equity prices. A further and continued deterioration in market conditions will increase the cost of obtaining capital and significantly limit the availability of funds to the Company in the future. Accordingly, management is actively monitoring the effects of the current economic and financing conditions on the Company's business and reviewing discretionary spending, capital projects and operating expenditures, and implementing cash and cash management strategies.

The Company does not have any material capital lease obligations, purchase obligations or any other long-term obligations.

1.7 CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company had no material commitments for capital expenditures as at October 31, 2021.

The Company has no lines of credit or other sources of financing which have been arranged but are as of yet unused.

At October 31, 2021, there were no externally imposed capital requirements to which the Company is subject and with which the Company has not complied.

result of this relationship, the Company has ready access to a range of diverse and specialized expertise on a regular basis, without having to engage or hire full-time employees or experts. The Company benefits from the economies of scale created by HDSI which itself serves several clients both mining and non-mining clients.

The Company is not obligated to acquire any minimum amount of services from HDSI. The monetary amount of the services received from HDSI in a given period of time is a function of annually set and agreed charge-out rates for and the time spent by each HDSI employee engaged by the Company.

HDSI also incurs third-party costs on behalf of the Company. Third party costs are billed at cost, without markup.

There are no ongoing contractual or other commitments resulting from the Company's transactions with HDSI, other than the payment for services already rendered and billed. The agreement may be terminated upon 60 days' notice by either the Company or HDSI.

Under the supervision of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, the Company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with IFRS. The Company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

- pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;
- provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

QUARTZ MOUNTAIN RESOURCES LTD.
FOR THREE MONTHS ENDED OCTOBER 31, 2021

There has been no change in the design of the Company's internal control over financial reporting that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of October 31, 2021.

1.15.4 DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company has disclosure controls and procedures in place to provide reasonable assurance that any information required to be disclosed by the Company under securities legislation is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the appropriate time periods; and required information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, so that decisions can be made about the timely disclosure of that information.

1.15.5 LIMITATIONS OF CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, believe that any system of disclosure controls and procedures or internal control over financial reporting, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Furthermore, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, they cannot provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the Company have been prevented or detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty and breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people, or by unauthorized override of controls. The design of any system of controls is also based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Accordingly, because of the inherent limitations in a cost effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

1.16 RISK FACTORS

Please refer to "Risk Factors" discussed in the Company's MD&A for the year ended July 31, 2021 filed under the Company's profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.
