NATURE OF BUSINESS AND OVERALL PERFORMANCE

Canvass Ventures Ltd. (the "Company") is a company domiciled in Canada. The Company was incorporated on February 27, 2017 under the laws of the Province of British Columbia. The address of the Company's registered and head office is Suite 1600, 925 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, B.C., V6C 3L2.

After filing its final prospectus on May 15, 2017 the Company completed an initial public offering ("IPO") of common shares on June 26, 2017 and commenced trading under the symbol CVS.P on the TSX Venture Exchange ("TSX-V" or the "Exchange") on June 29, 2017.

The Company is currently a Capital Pool Company as defined in Policy 2.4 of the TSX-V Corporate Finance Manual. The principal business of the Company is to identify and evaluate companies, assets or businesses with a view to completing a Qualifying Transaction in accordance with Policy 2.4.

As a Capital Pool Company, the proceeds raised by the Company from the issuance of share capital may only be used to identify and evaluate assets or businesses for future investment, with the exception that not more than the lesser of 30% of the gross proceeds from the sale of securities issued by the Company and $210,000 may be used to cover prescribed costs of issuing common shares or administrative and general expenditures of the Company. These restrictions apply until the completion of a Qualifying Transaction ("QT") by the Company as defined under the policies of the TSX-V.

The Company has not commenced commercial operations and proposes to identify and evaluate potential acquisitions of businesses, and once identified and evaluated, to negotiate an acquisition or participation subject to receipt of regulatory approval.

Until completion of a QT, the Company will not carry on any business other than the identification and evaluation of businesses or assets with a view to completing a potential QT. With the consent of the Exchange, this may include the raising of additional funds in order to finance an acquisition.

The interim financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, meaning the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations. The continuing operations of the Company are dependent upon its ability to identify, evaluate, negotiate and complete a Qualifying Transaction, which, as disclosed here below, is questionable at this time.

On February 9, 2018 the Company entered into a binding Letter of Intent to complete a QT. However, due to lack of progress by the target company in preparing itself to complete the QT, the Company determined to terminate the transaction on April 23, 2018.

Through the year ended March 31, 2018 the Company prepared its prospectus for its IPO, completed the IPO for gross proceeds of $200,000, completed two private placements for gross proceeds of $520,000, evaluated businesses and assets in pursuit of identifying a QT, and ultimately entered into a LOI for a QT in February 2018.

Total expenses for the year were $172,109 of which $55,875 is Stock-based compensation from the issuance of 600,000 stock options to directors, a non-cash expense based on Black-Scholes calculation using a 1.5% risk free rate, 110% volatility and 5 year options. Professional fees for the year were $89,287, and approximately 60% of it, primarily legal fees, relates to the planned QT (announced February 9, 2018) - documentation, due diligence and preparation of the filing statement and AGM information circular. The balance of professional fees were to prepare the prospectus and maintain the Company as a publicly listed entity. Filing fees, transfer agency fees and regulatory fees for the year totalled $28,186.

In addition to the expenses identified above, the Company incurred commissions, professional fees and filing fees of $47,812 directly related to its IPO financing and two private placement financings, which are reflected as a reduction of Share Capital.

In the comparative period to March 31, 2017 the Company was incorporated, started organizing itself to prepare a prospectus and incurred $25,275 expenses in this regard.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As at March 31, 2018, the Company had cash of $685,809 and working capital of $631,179. The Company's cash was derived from the cumulative issuance of 9,110,000 common shares for gross proceeds of $820,500, less cumulative cash expenses and share issuance costs since incorporation. Of the Company's cash position $400,000 is held in a interest bearing GIC which is cashable monthly and the balance of cash is in a chequing account.

Management believes that the Company has sufficient working capital to meet its ongoing administrative costs. As a CPC, the Company only source of capital is through issuing further equity, therefore working capital is expected to decrease due to administration, public company costs and due diligence and regulatory approval costs while working towards finding and completing a QT.

CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS AND OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

The Company is not yet party to any industry contracts or arrangements and does not have any off balance sheet arrangements that have, or are reasonably likely to have, an effect on the results of operations or financial condition of the Company.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

CPC Risk: The Company is a CPC under the policies of the Exchange. As a result, the Company must complete a Qualifying Transaction within 24 months of its listing on the Exchange. Although the Company has entered into an LOI for a Qualifying Transaction, there is no assurance that a Qualifying Transaction will be completed within the 24 month period required by the Exchange.

Dilution Risk: The Company will likely have to raise further equity in the future to remain liquid and complete a Qualifying Transaction. There is no certainty such equity can be raised on favourable terms such future financings could be materially dilutive to existing shareholders.

The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

(a) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with the counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributed to cash. Cash balances are held with a Schedule 1 Canadian bank, from which management believes the risk of loss to be remote.

(b) Liquidity Risk

The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due. As at March 31, 2018, the Company had a cash balance of $685,809 (March 31, 2017- $71,674) and $59,498 in liabilities (March 31, 2017 – $4,130). All the Company's financial liabilities have contractual maturities of 30 days and are due on demand and are subject to normal track terms.

(c) Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and commodity and equity prices. In the Company's present form, these are remote risks except for equity prices risk.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

On February 27, 2017, upon the Company's incorporation, the three directors of Company subscribed for an aggregate of 2,010,000 common shares of the Company at $0.05 per share for aggregate gross proceeds of $100,500. Directors participated in the private placements conducted in July and December 2017. The foregoing transactions were conducted in the ordinary course of business and recorded at their exchange amounts, which was the consideration paid or received by the Company as agreed to between the related parties.

FINANCIAL AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS

The Company, as part of its operations, carries financial instruments consisting of cash and accounts payable and accrued liabilities. It is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant credit, interest, or currency risks arising from these financial instruments except as otherwise disclosed.

Fair value

Fair value represents the price at which a financial instrument could be exchanged in an orderly market, in an arm's length transaction between knowledgeable and willing parties who are under no compulsion to act. The Company classifies the fair value of the financial instruments according to the following hierarchy based on the amount of observable inputs used to value the instrument.

Level 1: Fair value measurements are those derived from quoted prices (unadjusted) in the active market for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Fair value measurements are those derived from inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (derived from prices).

Level 3: Fair value measurements are those derived from valuation techniques that include inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data.

The fair value of cash is determined on level 1 inputs. The carrying amount of cash and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximates its fair value due to the short-term maturities of these items.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial reporting period. In preparing these interim financial statements, the significant judgments made by management in applying the Company's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those that applied to the audited financial statements for the period ended March 31, 2017.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Certain new standards, interpretations, amendments and improvements to existing standards were issued by the IASB or International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC"). Based on current operations there are no impending changes that will affect the financial statements of the Company.

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, based on the funds available to the Company, in order to support the general operations of the Company and facilitate the liquidity needs of a Qualifying Transaction. The Board of Directors does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for management, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain future development of the business. The Company defines capital to include its working capital position, capital stock and accumulated deficit.

In order to fund a future Qualifying Transaction and pay for administrative costs, the Company will spend its existing working capital and may have to raise additional amounts in the future.

Management reviews its capital management approach on an ongoing basis and believes that this approach, given the relative size of the Company, is reasonable. There were no changes in the Company's approach to capital management during the year ended March 31, 2018. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Company's condensed interim financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management, and have been approved by the board of directors. The condensed interim financial statements were prepared by the Company's management in accordance with IFRS.
