1 Nature of operations and basis of presentation

Nature of operations

Aritzia Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Company”) are a vertically integrated design house. The Company is a creator and purveyor of Everyday Luxury, home to an extensive portfolio of exclusive brands for every function and individual aesthetic. As at August 29, 2021, the Company had 104 boutiques (August 30, 2020 – 97 boutiques) and an eCommerce website, aritzia.com.

Aritzia Inc. is a corporation governed by the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia). The address of its registered office is 666 Burrard Street, Suite 1700, Vancouver, B.C., Canada, V6C 2X8.

The Company’s subordinate voting shares are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the stock symbol “ATZ”.

Basis of presentation

These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements (“interim financial statements”) have been prepared under International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) in accordance with International Accounting Standards (“IAS”) 34, Interim Financial Reporting, as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”), on a basis consistent with those accounting policies followed by the Company in the most recent audited annual consolidated financial statements. Certain information, in particular the accompanying notes normally included in the audited annual consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS, has been omitted or condensed. Accordingly, these interim financial statements do not include all the information required for full annual financial statements, and, therefore, should be read in conjunction with the audited annual consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto for the year ended February 28, 2021 (“Fiscal 2021”). These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, unless otherwise noted.

Seasonality of operations

The Company’s business is affected by the pattern of seasonality common to most retail apparel businesses. Historically, the Company has recognized a significant portion of its operating profit in the third and fourth quarters of each fiscal year as a result of increased net revenue during the back-to-school and holiday seasons.

These interim consolidated financial statements were authorized for issue on October 13, 2021 by the Company’s Board of Directors (“Board”).

COVID-19 Pandemic

The COVID-19 pandemic continues to have an impact on the global economy and changes in consumer demand and behaviour. On March 16, 2020, in line with recommendations by public health officials and guidance from local government authorities, the Company temporarily closed all of its retail boutiques in Canada and the United States. On May 7, 2020, the Company began a phased reopening of its retail boutiques. As part of the reopening plan, the Company implemented extensive health and safety measures designed to protect its people and clients and communities. As of September 9, 2020, all of the Company's boutiques had reopened. Beginning November 23, 2020 and through the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2021, as a result of the resurgence of COVID-19 and in line with government regulations, the Company temporarily reclosed 39 of its boutiques primarily located in Ontario and Quebec. As at February 28, 2021, 18 of these boutiques remained temporarily closed. Through the first quarter of Fiscal 2022, all of the Company's boutiques were reopened but 34 boutiques were temporarily re-closed based on government and health authority guidance in Ontario, Quebec and Nova Scotia. As at July 12, 2021, all of the Company's boutiques had reopened.

In accordance with the relevant government and health authority guidance, the Company continues to operate its distribution centers and open boutiques under stringent health and safety protocols that include occupancy restrictions, reduced operating hours, physical distancing and enhanced cleaning programs.

During the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021, the Company recognized payroll subsidies of $nil and $1.8 million, respectively (August 30, 2020 – $11.5 million and $27.9 million, respectively) which were recorded as a reduction in the associated eligible salaries and wage costs, recognized in cost of goods sold and selling, general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statements of operations. During the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021, the Company also recognized rent subsidies of $0.5 million and $0.8 million, respectively (13-week and 26-week periods ended August 30, 2020 - $nil) which were recorded as a reduction in store occupancy costs in cost of goods sold in the consolidated statements of operations. As at August 29, 2021, the Company had $2.1 million of payroll subsidies and $1.6 million of rent subsidies receivable recorded in prepaid expenses and other current assets.

During the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021, the Company recognized $1.8 million and $2.1 million of rent and occupancy concessions, respectively (13-week and 26-week periods ended August 30, 2020 – $5.1 million and $6.8 million, respectively) in cost of goods sold and selling, general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statement of operations.

The CARES Act in the United States further allows the immediate expensing of qualified leasehold improvement property purchased after December 31, 2017 and the carry back of net operating losses to prior years. These two measures resulted in the Company recognizing an income taxes receivable of $4.5 million, to be applied to income taxes payable in prior periods.

The Company's operations continue to be impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. The extent of the impact of COVID-19 on future periods will depend on future developments, including the duration or resurgence of the pandemic, related government responses and the impact on the global economy, which are uncertain and cannot be predicted. Further or prolonged closures of the Company's boutiques could result in the reassessment of impairment of property and equipment, definite and indefinite life intangible assets, right-of-use assets and goodwill, and a provision to the net realizable value of the Company's inventories.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These interim financial statements have been prepared using the accounting policies as outlined in note 2 of the Fiscal 2021 audited consolidated financial statements, with the exception of the accounting standards adopted in the year ending February 27, 2022 ("Fiscal 2022").

Business combinations

The Company accounts for business combinations using the acquisition method when the acquired set of activities and assets meets the definition of a business and control is transferred to the Company. The Company assesses whether the set of assets acquired includes an input and substantive process and whether the acquired set of assets has the ability to produce outputs.

The consideration transferred (including cash and contingent consideration) in the acquisition is measured at fair value, as are the identifiable net assets acquired at the date of the acquisition. The fair value of the purchase consideration is allocated to the fair values of the tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed.

Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity. Contingent consideration that is classified as a liability is remeasured at fair value at each reporting date and subsequent changes in the fair value of contingent consideration are recognized in profit and loss.

Goodwill is measured at cost, being the difference between the acquisition date fair value of consideration transferred, including the recognized amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree over the net fair value amount of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed, all measured as at the acquisition date.

The fair values of inventories acquired in a business combination are determined based on the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of sale, and a reasonable profit margin based on the effort required to complete and sell the inventories.

The fair values of property and equipment acquired in a business combination are based on either the cost approach or market approach, as applicable. Under the cost approach, the current replacement cost or reproduction cost for each major asset is calculated. Under the market approach, the market value of property is the estimated amount for which a property could be exchanged on the date of valuation between a willing buyer and a willing seller in an arm's length transaction after proper marketing wherein the parties each act knowledgeably and willingly.

The fair values of brands acquired in a business combination are determined using a relief of royalty approach. The fair value of off-market leases acquired in a business combination is determined based on the present value of the difference between market rates and rates in the existing leases. The fair values of non-compete agreements acquired in a business combination are determined using a with-and-without approach based on the difference between two discounted cash flow models and consideration for likelihood of competition.

(Unaudited, in thousands of Canadian dollars, unless otherwise noted)

The purchase price allocation may be provisional during a measurement period of up to one year to provide reasonable time to obtain the information necessary to identify and measure the assets acquired and liabilities assumed. Measurement period adjustments are recognized in the period in which the adjustment amount is determined and adjustments to fair values and allocations are retrospectively adjusted.

Transaction costs associated with the acquisition are expensed as incurred.

Non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability

Non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability represents exchangeable shares that can be put back to the Company's subsidiary at the option of the holder and are measured initially at its fair value at the date of acquisition.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provision of the financial instrument. Financial assets are derecognized when the contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset expire and financial liabilities are derecognized when obligations under the contract expire, are discharged or cancelled. The Company's financial assets, which includes cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable, are classified as amortized cost. The Company's financial liabilities, which includes accounts payable and accrued liabilities, are classified as amortized cost. The Company's, equity derivative contracts, contingent consideration and non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability are classified as fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL").

3 Significant new accounting standards

Standards issued but not yet adopted

Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current (Amendments to IAS 1)

In January 2020, IASB issued Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current, which amends IAS 1 – Presentation of Financial Statements. The narrow scope amendments affect only the presentation of liabilities in the statement of financial position and not the amount or timing of its recognition. It clarifies that the classification of liabilities as current or non-current is based on rights that are in existence at the end of the reporting period and specifies that classification is unaffected by expectations about whether an entity will exercise its right to defer settlement of a liability. It also introduces a definition of 'settlement' to make clear that settlement refers to the transfer to the counterparty of cash, equity instruments, other assets or services. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023. Earlier application is permitted. The Company does not plan to early adopt the amendments to IAS 1. The implementation of this amendment is not expected to have a significant impact on the Company.

4 Critical accounting estimates and judgments

The preparation of unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Estimates and assumptions are continuously evaluated and are based on management's best judgments and experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

In preparing these interim financial statements, the significant judgments made by management in applying the Company's accounting policies and key sources of estimation of uncertainty were the same as those applied in note 4 of the Fiscal 2021 audited consolidated financial statements, with the exception of the critical accounting estimates and judgments applied in Fiscal 2022.

- The Company uses judgment in applying the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations and estimates to value identifiable assets and liabilities at the acquisition date. The Company may engage independent third parties to determine the fair value of inventory, property and equipment and intangible assets. Estimates are used to determine cash flow projections, including the period of future benefit, and future growth and discount rates, among other factors. The values placed on the acquired assets and liabilities assumed affect the amount of goodwill recorded on an acquisition.
- Contingent consideration requires management to use judgment in determining the anticipated amounts that will be paid to the selling shareholders based on the future earnings of the acquired subsidiary. These amounts are required to be estimated on a recurring basis.
- Non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability requires management to use judgment in determining the fair value of the obligation on a recurring basis. The fair value estimate includes inputs associated with expected volatility, anticipated timing and discount rate associated with the obligation.

5 Acquisition of CYC Design Corporation

On June 25, 2021, the Company acquired 75% of the common shares in CYC Design Corporation ("CYC"), a leading designer and manufacturer of premium athletic wear, Reigning Champ. This acquisition will accelerate the Company's product expansion into men's wear. The results of operations, financial position, and cash flows of CYC have been included in the Company's consolidated financial statements since the date of acquisition.

Total aggregate consideration for the acquisition of the 75% of the common shares was $46.1 million which consisted of cash consideration of $32.9 million and future cash consideration (the "contingent consideration"). The contingent consideration is based on the future operating results of CYC during the measurement period ending January 31, 2023, and payable in two instalments in May 2022 and May 2023. As at the date of acquisition, the Company recorded a contingent consideration liability of $13.2 million and was based on its expected outcome at the end of the earnout period.

As part of the acquisition, the remaining common shareholders exchanged their common shares for exchangeable shares. The exchangeable shares can be put back to CYC at specified future dates in May to August in each of 2024, 2025 and 2026, for a formula-based amount dependent on the future performance of CYC in exchange for shares of the Company, resulting in a liability (note 13). The Company also has the ability to call the exchangeable shares in August 2026. The formula-based amount is subject to a capped enterprise value of CYC. As the exchangeable shares are a liability, the Company has treated the acquisition as an acquisition of a 100% interest in the entity, with the non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability included in the fair value of the acquired assets and liabilities.

The purchase price allocation may be provisional during a measurement period of up to one year to provide reasonable time to obtain the information necessary to identify and measure the assets acquired and liabilities assumed. Goodwill is attributable to the expected synergies to be achieved from integrating CYC into the Company's existing business. Goodwill is non-deductible for tax purposes.

For the period from the date of acquisition to August 29, 2021, CYC contributed revenue of $3.4 million and a nominal net loss. If the acquisition had occurred on March 1, 2021, management estimates that CYC's revenue would have been $11.6 million and net income would have been nominal for the 26-week period ended August 29, 2021.

In connection with the acquisition, during the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021, the Company recognized $1.7 million and $2.4 million, respectively, in acquisition-related costs which were expensed as incurred. These costs are included in other (income) expense and include transaction costs such as fees for advisory and professional services.

Finished goods in transit	39,521	48,888
Inventory	$ 181,929	$ 171,821

The Company records a reserve to value inventory to its estimated net realizable value. This resulted in an expense in cost of goods sold of $3.1 million and $4.5 million for the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021, respectively (13-week and 26-week periods ended August 30, 2020 - $1.6 million and $2.3 million, respectively). No inventory write-downs recorded in previous periods were reversed.

All of the Company's inventory is pledged as security for the revolving credit facility (note 12).

7 Property and equipment

During the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021, the Company had property and equipment additions of $17.4 million and $29.2 million, respectively (13-week and 26-week periods ended August 30, 2020 - $12.7 million and $21.7 million, respectively), the majority of which were related to leasehold improvements made to its boutiques, the purchase of furniture and equipment for such boutiques and leasehold improvements made to its support office.

As part of the CYC acquisition on June 25, 2021, the Company also acquired $2.7 million of property and equipment, the majority of which were related to leasehold improvements of boutiques (note 5).

8 Goodwill and intangible assets

During the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021, the Company had intangible asset additions of $0.6 million and $0.7 million, respectively (13-week and 26-week periods ended August 30, 2020 - $nil and $0.3 million, respectively), the majority of which were related to internally developed computer software.

As part of the CYC acquisition, the Company also acquired certain intangible assets, the fair value of which was determined to be $27.4 million (note 5). The CYC acquisition also resulted in goodwill of $46.6 million (note 5).

12 Bank indebtedness and long-term debt

On July 13, 2021, the Company refinanced its term loan and revolving credit facility, extending the term to July 13, 2025. As part of the refinancing, the Company repaid its term loan of $75.0 million and increased its existing revolving credit facility from $100.0 million to $175.0 million. As part of the refinancing, the Company incurred $0.6 million of financing fees which have been deferred and are being amortized over the term of the financing agreement.

The revolving credit facility bears interest at BA, LIBO or Prime plus a marginal rate between 0.50% and 2.50% (February 28, 2021 – 0.50% and 2.50%). Up to $10.0 million of the facility can be drawn upon by way of a swingline loan. As of August 29, 2021 and February 28, 2021, no advances were made under the revolving credit facility.

The Company also has letters of credit facilities of $75.0 million, secured pari passu with the revolving credit facility. The interest rate for the letters of credit is between 1.00% and 2.50%. As at August 29, 2021, the amount available under these facilities was reduced to $21.2 million (February 28, 2021 - $33.7 million) by certain open letters of credit (note 21(b)).

The revolving credit facility is collateralized by a first priority lien on all property and equipment, leased real property interests and inventory. In addition, the Company is required to maintain certain financial covenants. As at August 29, 2021 and February 28, 2021, the Company was in compliance with all financial covenants.

13 Financial instruments

The Company has equity derivative contracts to hedge the share price exposure on its cash-settled DSUs and RSUs. These contracts are not designated as hedging instruments for accounting purposes. During the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021, the Company recorded an unrealized gain of $5.3 million and $5.2 million, respectively for the change in fair value for these contracts in the consolidated statements of operations in other income (13-week and 26-week periods ended August 30, 2020 - $0.1 million unrealized gain and $0.7 million unrealized loss, respectively). As at August 29, 2021, the equity derivative contracts had a positive fair value of $9.6 million (February 28, 2021 – $4.4 million) which is recorded in prepaid expenses and other current assets in the condensed interim consolidated statements of financial position.

In connection with the acquisition of CYC, the Company has entered into two financial instruments that will be revalued on a recurring basis in the financial statements: contingent consideration and non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability.

Contingent consideration

The Company has a contingent consideration under the agreement that is based on future operating results of CYC during the measurement period ending January 31, 2023. As at the acquisition date of CYC on June 25, 2021, the Company recorded a contingent consideration liability of $13.2 million (note 5). During the period from the date of acquisition to August 29, 2021, the unrealized gain (loss) in connection with the changes in the fair value was nominal.

Aritzia Inc.

Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements

(Unaudited, in thousands of Canadian dollars, unless otherwise noted)

Non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability

In conjunction with the acquisition, CYC issued exchangeable shares to minority shareholders (“exchangeable shareholders”) in exchange for their 25% share of the total common shares at acquisition. The exchangeable shares allow the holders to put back their shares to CYC in the following periods: one-third from May 1, 2024 to August 31, 2024, one-third from May 1, 2025 to August 31, 2025, and one-third from May 1, 2026 to August 31, 2026 (the “put options”). In the event that the exchangeable shareholders do not exercise the put option by August 31, 2026, the Company has an open-ended call option, but not an obligation, to purchase all of the shares held by the exchangeable shareholders (the “call option”).

The exercise prices of the put option and the call option are based on certain specific operating results of CYC in the most recently completed fiscal year prior to exercise, subject to a capped enterprise value of $60.0 million (remaining 25% purchase). Upon exercise, the options are settled through a variable number of the Company’s shares based on a volume weighted average price (VWAP) of the Company’s shares for 30 consecutive trading days.

The fair value of the non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability is estimated initially, and on a recurring basis, based on a Monte Carlo model that has been used to simulate the potential fluctuations in CYC’s operating results over the period to exercise. The cash flows associated with the modelled operating results are then discounted back to the valuation date.

The fair value of the non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability was estimated at the acquisition date based on the Monte Carlo model using the following assumptions:

Initial business enterprise value (100%)	$63.0 million
Capped enterprise value (remaining 25% purchase)	$60.0 million
Expected volatility	20.0%
Discount rate	12.5%
Expected life	5.2 years

A 1.0% change in the discount rate would result in a $2.0 million change in the amount of the non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability.

As at the acquisition date of CYC on June 25, 2021, the fair value of the non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability was $33.5 million. During the period from the date of acquisition to August 29, 2021, the unrealized gain (loss) in connection with the changes in the fair value of the non-controlling interest in exchangeable shares liability was nominal.

14 Share capital

Between March 2, 2020 and March 17, 2020, the Company repurchased 38,664 subordinate voting shares for cancellation at an average price of $13.51 per subordinate voting share, for total cash consideration of $0.5 million, under the terms of an automated share purchase plan, which expired on May 28, 2020.

The Secondary Offering of 3,040,700 subordinate voting shares raised gross proceeds of $91.2 million for the Selling Shareholders, at a price of $30.00 per subordinate voting share and was completed on June 1, 2021. The Company did not receive any proceeds from the Secondary Offering. As part of the Secondary Offering, during the 26-week period ended August 29, 2021, the Selling Shareholders exchanged 2,600,000 of their multiple voting shares for subordinate voting shares. Underwriting fees were paid by the Selling Shareholders, and other expenses related to the Secondary Offering of approximately $0.5 million were paid by the Company.

As at August 29, 2021, there were 21,937,349 multiple voting shares and 88,415,686 subordinate voting shares issued and outstanding. There were no preferred shares issued and outstanding as at August 29, 2021. Neither the multiple voting shares nor the subordinate voting shares issued have a par value.

PSUs vest on the third anniversary of the award date and are earned only if certain performance targets are achieved. During the 26-week period ended August

16 Net income (loss) per share

a) Basic

Basic net income (loss) per share is calculated by dividing the income (loss) attributable to shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of multiple voting shares and subordinate voting shares outstanding during the period. As all the classes of shares are subject to the same distribution rights, the Company performs the net income per share calculations as if all shares are a single class.

19 Income taxes

The income tax expense (recovery) is recognized based on management's best estimate of the weighted average annual income tax rate expected for the full fiscal year. To the extent that forecasts differ from actual results, adjustments are recognized in subsequent periods. The statutory income tax rate for the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021 is 26.6% (13-week and 26-week periods ended August 30, 2020 – 26.7%). The Company's effective income tax rate for the 13-week and 26-week periods ended August 29, 2021 is 29.4% and 29.5%, respectively (13-week and 26 week periods ended August 30, 2020 – 55.5% and 28.3%, respectively). The effective tax rates are driven by the proportionate amount of non-deductible stock-based compensation expense on equity settled plans relative to net income.
