NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONDENSED INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024

(Amounts expressed in millions of U.S. dollars, except per share amounts and unless otherwise noted)

1. Description of business and nature of operations

New Gold Inc. (“New Gold” or the “Company”) is an intermediate gold mining company engaged in the development and operation of mineral properties. The assets of the Company, directly or through its subsidiaries, are comprised of the Rainy River Mine in Ontario, Canada (“Rainy River”), and the New Afton Mine in British Columbia, Canada (“New Afton”).

The Company is a corporation governed by the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia). The Company’s shares are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange and the NYSE American under the symbol NGD. The Company’s registered office is located at 925 West Georgia Street, Suite 1600, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6C 3L2, Canada. The Company’s head office is located at 181 Bay Street, Suite 3320, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2T3.

2. Basis of preparation and material accounting policy information

(a) Statement of compliance

These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard (“IAS”) 34, Interim Financial Reporting, as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board on a basis consistent with the accounting policies disclosed in the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023. These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 which includes information necessary or useful to understanding the Company’s business and financial statement presentation.

In particular, the Company’s accounting policies are presented as Note 2 in the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 and have been consistently applied in the preparation of these unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements except as set out below.

These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors of the Company on October 29, 2024.

IAS 1 - Presentation of financial statements - classification of liabilities as current or non-current

Amendments to IAS 1 - Presentation of financial statements - classification of liabilities as current or non-current affect only the presentation of liabilities as current or non-current in the statement of financial position and not the amount or timing of recognition of any asset, liability, income or expense, or the information disclosed about those items. The amendments clarify that the classification of liabilities as current or non-current is based on rights that are in existence at the end of the reporting period, specify that classification is unaffected by expectations about whether an entity will exercise its right to defer settlement of a liability, explain that rights are in existence if covenants are complied with at the end of the reporting period, and introduce a definition of ‘settlement’ to make clear that settlement refers to the transfer to the counterparty of cash, equity instruments, other assets or services. The amendments are applied for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024, which the Company has adopted. There was no material impact resulting from the adoption of these amendments.

IAS 1 - Presentation of financial statements non-current liabilities with covenants

Amendments to IAS 1 - Presentation of financial statements non-current liabilities with covenants specify that only covenants that an entity is required to comply with on or before the end of the reporting period affect the entity's right to defer settlement of a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting date (and therefore must be considered in assessing the classification of the liability as current or non-current). Such covenants affect whether the right exists at the end of the reporting period, even if compliance with the covenant is assessed only after the reporting date (e.g., a covenant based on the entity's financial position at the reporting date that is assessed for compliance only after the reporting date). The IASB also specifies that the right to defer settlement of a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting date is not affected if an entity only has to comply with a covenant after the reporting period. However, if the entity's right to defer settlement of a liability is subject to the entity complying with covenants within twelve months after the reporting period, an entity is required to disclose information that enables users of financial statements to understand the risk of the liabilities becoming repayable within twelve months after the reporting period. This would include information about the covenants (including the nature of the covenants and when the entity is required to comply with them), the carrying amount of related liabilities and facts and circumstances, if any, that indicate that the entity may have difficulties complying with the covenants. The amendments are applied for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024, which the Company has adopted. There was no material impact resulting from the adoption of these amendments.

Critical Judgement in the application of Accounting Policies - New Afton free cash flow interest

In 2020, New Gold entered into a strategic partnership with Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan ("Ontario Teachers"). At contract inception, management assessed the nature of the agreement and determined the arrangement was a financial liability under the scope of IFRS 9. As the obligation contained an embedded derivative that would otherwise need to be accounted for separately at fair value through profit and loss ("FVTPL"), the Company elected this arrangement to be a financial liability at FVTPL, with initial and subsequent measurement at fair value, as permitted under IFRS 9. As part of the contractual modification of this arrangement (see Note 9) judgement was applied to determine whether the modification constituted a substantial modification of the original financial liability, and whether the resulting new agreement constituted a partial disposal of mining interest at New Afton.

Additionally, the Company applied judgement in determining the value of the disposed assets at New Afton which considered cash and non-cash consideration recognized in the transaction, the gain on the extinguishment of the financial instrument, and the carrying value of New Afton's mining interest at the valuation date.

Long-term debt consists of the following:

(in millions of U.S. dollars)	As at September 30	As at December 31
	2024	2023
LONG-TERM DEBT
Senior unsecured notes - due July 15, 2027 (a)	396.7	396.0
Credit facility (b)	50.0	—
Total long-term debt	446.7	396.0

(a) Senior Unsecured Notes - due July 15, 2027

As at September 30, 2024, the Company has $400.0 million of senior unsecured notes outstanding that mature and become due and payable on July 15, 2027 (the "2027 Unsecured Notes"). The 2027 Unsecured Notes are denominated in U.S. dollars and bear interest at the rate of 7.50% per annum. Interest is payable in arrears in equal semi-annual installments on January 15 and July 15 of each year.

The 2027 Unsecured Notes are subject to a minimum interest coverage incurrence covenant of earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, impairment, and other non-cash adjustments to interest of 2:1. The test is applied on a pro-forma basis prior to the Company incurring additional debt, entering into business combinations or acquiring significant assets, and certain corporate actions. There are no maintenance covenants.

The 2027 Unsecured Notes are redeemable by the Company in whole or in part during the 12-month period beginning on July 15 of the years indicated at the redemption prices below, expressed as a percentage of the principal amount of the 2027 Unsecured Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date:

Date	Redemption prices (%)
July 15, 2024	101.88
July 15, 2025 and thereafter	100.00

(b) Credit Facility

The Company holds a revolving credit facility (the "Credit Facility") with a maturity date of December 2026 and a borrowing limit of $400.0 million. During the second quarter of 2024, the Company drew $100.0 million under the Credit Facility to partially fund the payment under Amending Agreement (as defined in Note 9 below) with Ontario Teachers. During the third quarter of 2024, the Company repaid $50.0 million under the Credit Facility, reducing the outstanding amount to $50.0 million as at September 30, 2024.

The Credit Facility contains various covenants customary for a loan facility of this nature, including limits on indebtedness, asset sales, and liens. The Credit Facility contains three covenant tests, all of which are measured on a rolling four-quarter basis at the end of every quarter:

- The minimum interest coverage ratio, being earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, exploration, impairment, and other non-cash adjustments ("Adjusted EBITDA") to interest;
- The maximum net debt to Adjusted EBITDA ratio ("Leverage Ratio"); and
- The maximum gross secured debt to Adjusted EBITDA ("Secured Leverage Ratio").

Significant financial covenants are as follows:

		Twelve months ended September 30	Twelve months ended December 31
	Financial Covenant	2024	2023
FINANCIAL COVENANTS
Minimum interest coverage ratio (Adjusted EBITDA to interest)	>3.0:1.0	10.2 : 1	8.1 : 1
Maximum leverage ratio (net debt to Adjusted EBITDA)	<4.5:1.0	1.4 : 1	1.4 : 1
Maximum secured leverage ratio (gross secured debt to Adjusted EBITDA)	<2.0:1.0	0.2 : 1	0.1 : 1

The interest margin on drawings under the Credit Facility ranges from 1.25% to 3.75% over term-adjusted SOFR, the Prime Rate or the Base Rate based on the Company's Leverage Ratio, and the currency and type of credit selected by the Company. Based on the Company's Leverage Ratio, the rate is 2.50% over term-adjusted SOFR as at September 30, 2024 (December 31, 2023 – 2.50% over term-adjusted SOFR). The standby fees on undrawn amounts under the Credit Facility range from 0.51% to 0.84% over SOFR, depending on the Company's Leverage Ratio. Based on the Company's Leverage Ratio, the rate is 0.56% over SOFR as at September 30, 2024 (December 31, 2023 – 0.56% over SOFR).

For the nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company has drawn $50.0 million under the Credit Facility to fund the payment under the Amending Agreement with Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan. The Credit Facility has been used to issue letters of credit amounting to $23.8 million (December 31, 2023 - $26.7 million). Letters of credit relate to reclamation bonds and other financial assurances required with various government agencies.

- Fair value adjustments related to changes in the Company's own credit risk are included in other comprehensive income.*
- Other fair value adjustments are included in Other Losses in the condensed interim consolidated income statements.*
- Settlements during the period are on an accrual basis. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company paid $22.9 million in cash towards settlements of the Rainy River gold stream obligation.*
- In May 2024, the Company entered into an amending agreement with the original financial instrument determined to be extinguished as of May 31, 2024. See below for further detail.*
- The current portion of the derivative financial liabilities is included in trade and other payables on the statement of financial position. For New Afton, this includes the minimum cash guarantee, see below.*

Rainy River gold stream obligation

In 2015, the Company entered into a $175 million streaming transaction with RGLD Gold AG, a wholly owned subsidiary of Royal Gold Inc. ("Royal Gold"). Under the terms of the agreement, the Company will deliver to Royal Gold 6.5% of gold production from Rainy River up to a total of 230,000 ounces of gold and then 3.25% of the mine's gold production thereafter. The Company will also deliver to Royal Gold 60% of the mine's silver production to a maximum of 3.1 million ounces and then 30% of silver production thereafter.

In addition to the upfront $175.0 million deposit, Royal Gold will pay 25% of the average spot gold or silver price at the time each ounce of gold or silver is delivered under the stream. The difference between the spot price of metal and the cash received from Royal Gold will reduce the $175.0 million deposit over the life of the mine. Upon expiry of the 40 year term of the agreement (which may be extended in certain circumstances), any balance of the $175.0 million upfront deposit remaining unpaid will be refunded to Royal Gold.

The Company has designated the Rainy River gold stream obligation as FVTPL under the scope of IFRS 9. Accordingly, the Company values the liability at the present value of its expected future cash flows at each reporting period with changes in fair value reflected in the condensed interim consolidated income statements and condensed interim consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

Fair value adjustments represent the net effect on the Rainy River gold stream obligation of changes in the variables included in the Company's valuation model between the date of receipt of deposit and the reporting date.

New Afton free cash flow interest obligation

In 2020, New Gold entered into a strategic partnership ("Original Agreement") with Ontario Teachers. Under the terms of the Original Agreement, Ontario Teachers acquired a 46% free cash flow interest in the New Afton mine for upfront cash proceeds of $300 million. The Original Agreement was determined to be a financial liability that the Company designated as FVTPL under the scope of IFRS 9. Fair value of the Original Agreement on initial recognition was determined by the amount of cash received. Subsequent fair value was calculated on each reporting date with gains and losses recorded in net earnings. Fair value adjustments as a result of the Company's own credit risk are recorded in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, as required by IFRS 9 for financial liabilities designated as FVTPL.

In May 2024, the Company entered into an amending agreement ("Amending Agreement") with Ontario Teachers to reduce the cash flow interest to 19.9% in exchange for a cash payment of $255.0 million. The Company determined that the Amending Agreement constituted a substantial modification of the Original Agreement which resulted in a derecognition of the FVTPL liability. Consideration for the disposal comprised of the $255.0 million cash payment, $2.5 million in transaction costs, the 19.9% free cash flow interest, and a contingent obligation of $20.0 million to Ontario Teachers should there be a change of control of New Gold prior to January 2026.

The Company determined that the Amending Agreement constituted an executory contract and a partial disposal of the New Afton Mining Interest. The Amending Agreement did not include embedded derivatives, minimum cash flow guarantees, or any other clauses that would create a present obligation under IFRS 9. As a result of the extinguishment of the FVTPL liability, the Company recognized a $42.3 million gain on extinguishment.

In July 2024, the Company made a final payment of $42.6 million to Ontario Teachers as part of the minimum cash guarantee under the terms of the Original Agreement.

Summary of changes in the New Afton free cash flow interest obligation during the nine months ended September 30, 2024:

(in millions of U.S. dollars)
Fair Value of Original Agreement on March 31, 2024	599.8
Unrealized loss on revaluation of liability	34.8
Fair value of Original Agreement on May 31, 2024	634.6
Cash consideration	(257.5)
Partial disposition of mining interest at New Afton	(272.2)
Original Agreement guaranteed minimum liability	(42.6)
Amending Agreement change of control liability	(20.0)
Gain on extinguishment	42.3

Components of the adjustment to fair value for the non-current derivative financial liabilities, including the New Afton free cash flow interest obligation prior to extinguishment, at each reporting date include:

Financial instrument	Components of the adjustment to fair value
Rainy River gold stream obligation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accretion expense due to passage of time</li> <li>• Change in the risk-free interest rate</li> <li>• Change in the Company specific credit spread</li> <li>• Change in any expected ounces to be delivered</li> <li>• Change in future metal prices</li> </ul>
New Afton free cash flow interest obligation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accretion expense due to passage of time</li> <li>• Change in the risk-free interest rate</li> <li>• Change in the Company specific credit spread</li> <li>• Change in any expected ounces to be delivered</li> <li>• Change in future metal prices</li> <li>• Change in production profile, operating and capital costs at New Afton, including considerations to the minimum cash guarantee over the first four years of the instrument</li> </ul>

10. Leases

(a) Right-of-use assets

The Company leases assets such as buildings, mobile equipment, and machinery. These assets are included in Mining Interests on the statement of financial position and are classified as plant & equipment as per Note 7 of the Company's condensed interim consolidated financial statements.

(a) Provisionally priced contracts

The Company had provisionally priced sales for which price finalization is outstanding at September 30, 2024. Realized and unrealized gains (losses) on the provisional pricing of concentrate sales are classified as revenue, with the unsettled provisionally priced concentrate derivatives included in trade and other receivables. The Company enters into gold and copper swap contracts to reduce exposure to gold and copper prices. Realized and unrealized gains (losses) are recorded in revenue, with the unsettled gold and copper swaps included in trade and other receivables.

The following tables summarize the realized and unrealized gains and losses on provisionally priced sales:

(b) Foreign exchange forward contracts

The Company entered into foreign exchange forward contracts in order to hedge operating costs at the New Afton and Rainy River mines. These contracts are treated as derivative financial instruments and marked-to-market at each reporting period on the consolidated statement of financial position with changes in fair value recognized in other gains and losses. Realized gains and losses are recorded within operating expenses.

The Company entered into foreign exchange forward contracts hedging an average of C$42.0 million per month in the first half of 2024, and C$45.0 million per month in the second half of 2024. As at September 30, 2024, the fair value of the unrealized foreign exchange forward contract assets was $0.9 million (December 31, 2023 - $3.2 million forward contract assets).

(c) Fuel hedge swap contracts

The Company entered into diesel fuel hedge swap contracts for the Rainy River Mine in order to reduce exposure to volatile fuel prices. These contracts are treated as derivative financial instruments and marked to market at each reporting period on the consolidated statement of financial position with changes in fair value recognized in other gains and losses. Realized gains and losses are recorded within operating expenses.

The Company hedged an average of 0.7 million gallons per month during 2024, and 0.3 million gallons per month for the first quarter of 2025. As at September 30, 2024, the fair value of the unrealized fuel hedge swap contract liabilities were $0.5 million (December 31, 2023 - $1.1 million).

17. Fair value measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received when selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In assessing the fair value of a particular contract, the market participant would consider the credit risk of the counterparty to the contract. Consequently, when it is appropriate to do so, the Company adjusts the valuation models to incorporate a measure of credit risk. Fair value represents management's estimate of the current market value at a given point in time.

The Company has certain financial assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value. The fair value hierarchy establishes three levels to classify the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. Level 2 inputs are quoted prices in markets that are not active, quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability (for example, interest rate and yield curves observable at commonly quoted intervals, forward pricing curves used to value currency and commodity contracts), or inputs that are derived principally from, or corroborated by, observable market data or other means. Level 3 inputs are unobservable (supported by little or no market activity). The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to Level 1 inputs and the lowest priority to Level 3 inputs. There were no transfers among Levels 1, 2, and 3 during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 or the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company's policy is to recognize transfers into and transfers out of fair value hierarchy levels as of the date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer.

Valuation methodology for Level 1 financial assets and liabilities:

Investments

The fair value of the investments are measured based on the closing share price on the reporting date.

Valuation methodologies for Level 2 and 3 financial assets and liabilities:

Provisionally priced contracts and gold and copper swap contracts

The fair value of the provisionally priced contracts and the gold and copper swap contracts is calculated using the mark-to-market forward prices of the London Metals Exchange gold and copper based on the applicable settlement dates of the outstanding provisionally priced contracts and copper swap contracts.

Foreign exchange forward contracts

The fair value of foreign exchange forward contracts is calculated using the mark-to-market method based on the difference between the forward Canadian dollar to U.S dollar foreign exchange rate and the foreign exchange rates of the contracts.

Fuel hedge swap contracts

The fair value of the fuel hedge swap contracts is calculated using the mark-to-market forward prices of diesel, based on the applicable settlement dates of the outstanding swap contracts.

Rainy River gold stream obligation

The fair value of the Rainy River gold stream obligation is calculated using the risk-free interest rate derived from the U.S. Treasury rate, forward and consensus metal prices, company specific credit spread based on the yield on the Company's 2027 Senior Unsecured Notes, and expected gold and silver ounces to be delivered from Rainy River's life of mine projections.

New Afton free cash flow interest obligation

The fair value of the New Afton free cash flow interest obligation was calculated using the risk-free interest rate derived from the U.S. Treasury rate, forward and consensus metal prices, company specific credit spread based on the yield on the Company's 2027 Senior Unsecured Notes, and expected production, operating and capital costs from New Afton's life of mine projections, including considerations to the minimum cash guarantee over the first four years of the instrument.

The following table summarizes the Company's financial assets and liabilities by category, and information about financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis in the statement of financial position categorized by level of significance of the inputs used in making the measurements:
