BAUSCH HEALTH RELEASES 2018 CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY REPORTSecond Annual Report Reinforces the Company's Continued Commitment to Responsible, Ethical and Sustainable Operations

LAVAL, Quebec, Sept. 10, 2019 – Bausch Health Companies Inc. (NYSE/TSX: BHC) (“Bausch Health” or the “Company”) today released its second annual Corporate Social Responsibility \(CSR\) Report. The report showcases the Company’s efforts in responsible, ethical and sustainable operations across five key commitment areas: operating with integrity; respecting the environment; advancing global health and patient care; improving communities; and supporting employee growth and well-being.

“As a company dedicated to innovation and advancing global health, we continue to emphasize helping people around the world live longer, healthier and more productive lives in ways that often go beyond health care,” said Joseph C. Papa, chairman and CEO, Bausch Health. “Bausch Health is committed to maintaining the highest standards of operational safety and sustainability across our entire organization, worldwide, and we are proud to have delivered on our promise to improve our operations through the past year.”

The 2018 CSR report demonstrates the Company’s progress on key performance measures across each of its CSR commitment areas. Some of the key accomplishments highlighted in the report include the following:

- Ongoing commitment to patient access and responsible pricing
 - Pledged that the average annual price increase for branded prescription products would be set at no greater than single digits
 - Launched Ortho Dermatologics’ innovative cash-pay prescription program, Dermatology.com, to make many branded dermatology products more accessible to patients
- Continued sustainable manufacturing practices that promote the use of materials that can be recycled, minimize post-industrial waste, avoid known negative impacts on the environment and support fuel, energy, water and waste efficiency
 - Recycled more than 9.2 million used contact lenses and packaging materials through the ONE by ONE Recycling program, diverting more than 55,200 pounds of waste from oceans, lakes, streams and landfills
- Improvements in environmental sustainability of Bausch Health facilities worldwide
 - Reduced overall energy usage, water usage, and carbon emissions for the third consecutive year
 - Investments in energy-efficient lighting, energy-efficient heating and cooling technologies and water conservation programs in multiple Bausch Health facilities

- Contribution of millions of dollars in financial and product donations to global charitable health organizations
- Establishment of a permanently endowed scholarship fund at the University of Missouri to fund scholarships for students studying in health care related fields
