1 Nature of operations and going concern

Cub Energy Inc. (the “Company”) is engaged in the exploration, development and production of natural gas properties and gas trading in Ukraine. The Company was incorporated pursuant to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) and continued under the Canadian Business Corporations Act in February 2012. The address of the Company’s registered office is 4500 Bankers Hall East, 855 - 2nd Street SW, Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4K7, Canada and the records office is Suite 10010, 5120 Woodway Drive, Houston, Texas, 77056. The Company is listed on the TSX Venture Exchange (“TSXV”) under the trading symbol “KUB”.

The Company, through its subsidiary Gastek LLC (“Gastek”), owns a 35% equity interest in KUBGAS Holdings Limited (“KUB Holdings”) which in turn owns a 100% equity interest in KUB-Gas LLC (“KUB-Gas”). KUB Holdings is governed by a shareholders’ agreement amongst its two shareholders. KUB-Gas and its subsidiary, KUB-Gas Borova LLC, own and operate six licenced gas and gas condensate fields in the Dnieper-Donetsk Basin of eastern Ukraine (five operating under production licences and one under exploration licence). See Note 5. Gastek has the ability to earn an additional 5% of KUB Holdings (up to 40% in total, see Note 5).

The Company, through its subsidiary Tysagaz LLC, also owns a 100% working interest in two production licences in western Ukraine, Rusko-Komarivske (“RK”) and Stanivske. The RK field was in production until April 1, 2016 when it was suspended due to a termination of a gas blending contract that reduced the nitrogen content of the gas to meet local pipeline specifications. The RK Field continued to be suspended through June 30, 2018. During 2017, the Company commissioned a new nitrogen rejection unit (“NRU”) for its plan to resume production at the RK field in the first quarter of 2019.

On July 8, 2016, the Company entered into a share purchase agreement (“SPA”) and shareholders’ agreement with a third party, whereby the third party earned a 50% interest in the Company’s newly formed subsidiary, CNG Holdings Netherlands B.V. (“CNG Holdings”), which, in turn, owns CNG LLC (“CNG LLC”), the 100% owner of the Uzhgorod production licence in western Ukraine. The Company and the third party respectively own 50% of the common shares of CNG Holdings (Note 6). Pursuant to the terms of the SPA, the third party is to:

- (i) Pay the Company €1,500 ($1,649) upon transfer of the 50% shares (“Closing”) (Paid);
- (ii) Fund a 100 square kilometre 3D seismic survey (Completed);
- (iii) Fund the drilling of the first three wells within four years of Closing; and
- (iv) Fund the tie-in costs of the first three wells up to a maximum €200 ($225) per well within four years of Closing.

Ukraine’s political and economic situation has been volatile since late November 2013. Political and social unrest, which escalated into violent conflicts in February 2014, resulted in a change of government and heads of key governing bodies, and parliamentary elections in October 2014. The International Monetary Fund (“IMF”) has committed to a multi-year aid program to help the country’s economy recover conditioned upon comprehensive economic reforms by the Ukraine government.

The political unrest and ongoing military conflicts has also led to the deepening of the ongoing economic crisis, widening of the state budget deficit, depletion of the National Bank of Ukraine’s (“NBU”) foreign currency reserves and, as a result, a further downgrading of the Ukrainian sovereign debt credit ratings. In February 2014, following the significant devaluation of the national currency, Ukraine implemented several changes, including: the NBU introduced certain administrative restrictions on currency conversion transactions that require Ukrainian companies to convert 50% of all incoming foreign transfers to the local Ukrainian currency; the NBU imposed a restriction that US and other foreign denominated loans in Ukraine could not be repaid in advance of their maturity dates; the NBU passed resolutions prohibiting the payment of dividends to foreign shareholders. The NBU eased certain capital controls by allowing Ukraine companies to issue limited dividends accrued during 2014 and 2015 to a maximum $7 million a month. On January 1, 2018, the natural gas royalty rate was reduced from 29% to 12% on new wells drilled after January 1, 2018 for a minimum of five years. A tariff was introduced on April 1, 2017, but was never implemented, that would see producers pay approximately 300 UAH per thousand cubic meters or approximately $0.30/Mcf. On March 1, 2018, a new law was passed in Ukraine intended to simplify regulatory procedures for the oil and gas sector to encourage investment.

The political and economic uncertainty in Ukraine has contributed to volatility of the Ukrainian currency, Hryvnya (“UAH”), against major currencies. The US/UAH appreciated approximately 7% during the three months ended June 30, 2018 versus no material change during the comparative 2017 period.

Pelicourt Limited (“Pelicourt”), a significant shareholder of the Company which the Company’s CEO is a principal of, provided a shareholder loan which is currently fully drawn down at $2,000. See Note 11.

As of June 30, 2018, the Company had a working capital deficit of $1,862 (December 31, 2017 – $478) and accumulated deficit of $15,058 (December 31, 2017 – $16,433) since its inception and may incur future losses in the development of its business. With the current cash resources, suspension of the RK Field, uncertainty surrounding the successful installation of the NRU, limited Ukraine dividend restrictions, currency fluctuations, reliance on a few customers and impact on carrying values, the Company may not have sufficient cash to continue operations. These matters raise significant doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern and meet its obligations as they become due. Continuing operations are dependent on the ability to obtain adequate funding to finance existing operations, receiving funds from Ukraine (including dividends), stability in Ukraine and attaining future profitable operations in Ukraine. Additional financing is subject to the global financial markets and economic conditions, and volatility in the debt and equity markets. These factors have made, and will likely continue to make it challenging to obtain cost effective funding or any at all. There is no assurance this capital will be available and, if it is not, the Company may be forced to curtail or suspend all planned activity.

The continued operations of the Company and the recoverability of amounts shown for its natural gas properties is dependent upon the existence of economically recoverable reserves and future profitable production, or upon the Company’s ability to recover its costs through a disposition of its properties or subsidiaries. The amount shown for natural gas properties does not necessarily represent present or future value of those properties. Changes in future conditions could result in a material change in the amount recorded for the natural gas properties.

The Company is exposed to commodity price risk with respect to natural gas prices and foreign exchange rate risk with respect to its foreign assets and liabilities. A significant decline in any one of these commodity prices or foreign exchange rates may affect the Company’s ability to obtain capital for the exploration and development of its natural gas properties. See further financial risk disclosures in Note 22.

(f) Use of estimates and judgments

Management makes a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities to prepare these condensed consolidated interim financial statements in conformity with IFRS. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates include:

- To value the equity investment in KUB Holdings, management obtains financial information from the majority owner. The recoverability of the Company's equity investment in KUB Holdings is subject to all estimates included in the financial information from the majority owner, as well as estimates of the recoverable amount of the natural gas reserves held by its wholly-owned subsidiary KUB-Gas. Additionally, the Company estimates the ability of KUB Holdings to generate future dividends and ability to repatriate funds from Ukraine due to limited dividend restrictions (Note 1).
- The determination of cash-generating units ("CGU") requires judgment in defining a group of assets that generate cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets. CGUs are determined by similar geological structure, shared infrastructure, geographical proximity, commodity type, similar exposure to market risks and materiality.
- Amounts recognized for depletion and depreciation of property, plant and equipment and the assessment of these assets for impairment which includes petroleum and natural gas interests are based on estimates of proved and probable reserves, natural gas prices, future costs, royalty payments and taxes, timing, and other relevant assumptions. By their nature, the estimates of reserves are subject to measurement uncertainty. Changes in these variables could significantly impact the reserves estimates which would affect estimates of recoverable amounts, and depletion and depreciation expense. The Company's natural gas reserves are evaluated annually and reported to the Company by independent qualified reserves evaluators. The Company expects that its estimates of reserves will change to reflect updated information. Reserve estimates can be revised upward or downward based on the results of future drilling, testing, production levels, and changes in costs, and commodity prices.
- Amounts recognized for decommissioning obligations and the related accretion expense requires the use of estimates with respect to the amount and timing of decommissioning expenditures. Other provisions are recognized in the period when it becomes probable that there will be a future cash outflow.
- Charges for share-based payments and the value of restricted stock units (RSU) are based on the fair value at the date of issuance. These instruments are subject to the estimation using pricing models such as the Black-Scholes option pricing model, which is based on assumptions such as volatility, dividend yield, risk free rate of return and expected term. A forfeiture rate is estimated on the grant date and is adjusted to reflect the actual number of options that vest.
- Tax interpretations, regulations and legislations in the jurisdictions in which the Company operates are subject to change. As such, income taxes are subject to measurement uncertainty. Deferred income tax assets are assessed by management at the end of the reporting period to determine the likelihood that they will be realized from future taxable earnings.
- Judgment is required to determine the functional currency of the parent and its subsidiaries. These judgments are continuously evaluated and are based on management's experience and knowledge of the relevant facts and circumstances, including analysis of the consideration factors identified in IAS 21, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates.
- Judgement is required to determine if its petroleum and natural gas interests (RK field) is impaired due to its suspension since April 1, 2016. The Company committed to purchase a new NRU. However, until the new NRU is operational and the RK field is producing pipeline quality gas, there will be uncertainty regarding the value of the RK field.
- The Company applies judgment in assessing its ability to continue as a going concern for at least 12 months. In making this assessment, the Company considers the facts and circumstances disclosed in Note 1. The

Cub Energy Inc.
For the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017

Company concluded that there is a material uncertainty that may cast doubt on its ability to continue as a going concern.

3 Significant accounting policies

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements are prepared in accordance with IFRS and follow the same accounting policies and methods of their application as the most recent audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with those consolidated financial statements.

4 New standards and interpretations not yet adopted

Certain new standards, interpretations, amendments and improvements to existing standards were issued by the IASB or IFRIC that are mandatory for future accounting periods. The following have not yet been adopted by the Company.

- IFRS 9: New standard that replaced IAS 39 for classification and measurement, tentatively effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018. The adoption of this Standard is not expected to have a significant impact on the Company's condensed consolidated interim financial statements.
- IFRS 15: New standard to establish principles for reporting the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from an entity's contracts with customers, effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018. The adoption of this Standard is not expected to have a significant impact on the Company's condensed consolidated interim financial statements.
- IFRS 16, Leases: New standard to establish principles for recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases with an impact on lessee accounting, effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019. The Company is currently assessing the impact of this Standard on the condensed consolidated interim financial statements.

During the year ended December 31, 2016, KUB Holdings' 100% owned subsidiary, KUB-Gas, entered into unsecured, non-interest bearing loan agreements with related parties. See Note 12. KUB-Gas recognized the fair value of these transactions and treated it as a non-cash distribution to shareholders in its shareholders' equity. The amount allocated to the Company's 35% interest in 2016 was $2,187 and was treated as a reduction of its investment of KUB Holdings.

During the six months ended June 30, 2018, KUB Holdings recorded $3,294 in other comprehensive income (2017 - $954) as a result of the Ukrainian currency appreciation against the US dollar. The Ukraine currency appreciated approximately 7% during the six months ended June 30, 2018 as compared to no change in 2017.

Commencing August 2016, the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Tysagaz, began taking possession of the Company's 35% ownership of gas produced at KUB-Gas. Tysagaz purchased the gas from KUB-Gas at the same price that KUB-Gas sold its gas to an affiliate of the majority shareholder of KUB-Gas. The Company agreed to this arrangement so it could attempt to earn additional net income over the gas sales price sold to the majority shareholders' affiliate. During six months ended June 30, 2018, the Company recorded $8,749 (2017 - $6,035) in gas sales and $8,393 (2017 - $5,858) for the cost of the sales for a net profit from gas trading of $356 (2017 - $177). For clarity, the $8,393 (2017 - $5,858) cost of sales is included in the KUB Holdings revenue in the tables above. As at June 30, 2018, $701 (December 31, 2017 - $392) of the Company's trade and other receivables relates to these gas sales to third parties (see Note 8) and $2,509 (December 31, 2017 - $2,405) of trade and other payables is owed to KUB-Gas. Additionally, $402

While impairment indications exist, such as the suspension of production of the RK field, the Company believes no impairment is warranted as at June 30, 2018 as the net present value of expected future cash flows supports the carrying value.

The Company's decommissioning obligation is estimated based on the Company's net ownership in all wells and facilities, estimated costs to reclaim and abandon these wells and facilities and the estimated timing of the costs to be incurred in future years. The costs are expected to be settled between 2019 through to 2030. The liability has been discounted using a risk-free interest rate of 11% (2017 – 11%).

At the outset of the loans in 2016, the Company recognized a loan discount amount of $2,509. The loan discount recognizes the interest rate benefit assuming an effective interest rate in Ukraine of approximately 21% based on market rates for comparable transactions. The discount amount will be amortized over the life of the loans. The accretion of the interest rate benefit is recorded to profit or loss within finance loss. In addition, KUB-Gas recognized the fair value of these transactions in its financial statements during the year ended December 31, 2016 and treated the fair value of the benefit as a non-cash distribution to shareholders in its shareholders' equity. The Company's share of the amount recognized in 2016 was $2,187 which includes the recognition of the fair value of the interest rate benefit for financial aid provided by KUB-Gas to parties controlled by the majority shareholder of KUB-Gas and the Company. This was treated as a reduction of its investment of KUB Holdings. See Note 5.

Cub Energy Inc.For the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017*Notes to the condensed consolidated interim financial statements(Unaudited, expressed in thousands of US dollars)

The Company has two principal reportable segments being the revenue from the sale of gas from the Company's RK field and revenue from gas trading. These reportable segments were determined based on the source of the gas obtained by the Company for sale. Reportable segments are defined as components of an enterprise about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance.

Amounts relating to the gas trading segment include revenue from gas trading and cost of sales for gas trading. There are no other revenue, expenses, or non-current assets that relate to this segment.

For the six months ended June 30, 2018, there were two (2017 - three) customers which each accounted for greater than 10% of total gas trading revenue, and the revenues amounted to $2,184 and $1,344 (2017 - $2,492, $1,736 and $958). There was just one customer for the Company's gas sales for each period. All of the Company's revenues were earned from sales to customers in the Ukraine.

19 Commitments and contingenciesUkraine

The Company has an obligation to incur certain capital expenditures to comply with the Ukrainian licence requirements. Under these licence maintenance commitments, the Company is required to explore its licenced fields. Although these commitments are not binding and may be modified based on results of work, the Company's potential capital expenditures relating to qualifying activities on gas and gas condensate fields will be material during the period from 2018 to 2022 as part of the planned exploration and development programs. Justified deviation from the capital expenditures is permitted and should be agreed with the licensor, while failure to commit exploration works and substantiate the different capital expenditure schedule may result in termination of the exploration licence.

Office Space

The Company has a lease agreement for office space in Houston, Texas which expires in May 2020. The commitment is approximately $166 per year for the term of the lease.

Lawsuits

During the year ended December 31, 2016, the Company's 50% indirect investment in Ukraine associate, CNG LLC, learned of two non-governmental organization ("NGO") lawsuits filed against the State Service of Geology and Mineral Resources of Ukraine ("SGS"), the government body who issues licences in Ukraine, concerning recent licence grants including the Company's recently issued Uzhgorod licence. From public available information, it appears that the NGO filed at least five more lawsuits challenging the SGS for issuance of several licenses issued to various third party subsoil users. The Company believes the claims to be frivolous and without merit and there is no reason to postpone investment activities within the Uzhgorod license. To be clear, CNG LLC, which holds the Uzhgorod license is not a defendant under the claims but could be materially affected by a negative outcome. Therefore, CNG LLC will participate in the litigation as a third party on the defendant's side. Accordingly, the Company will provide legal assistance to the SGS in defending against the claims. During the year ended December 31, 2017, one of the two NGO lawsuits against SGS was dismissed by the Ukraine courts.

20 Related party transactions

Transactions with related parties are incurred in the normal course of business. During the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, there were no related party transactions other than the shareholder loans (Note 11),

Key management personnel include executive officers and non-executive directors. Executive officers are paid a salary and may participate in the Company's stock option and RSU plans. Non-executive directors also may participate in the Company's stock option and RSU plans. Key management personnel compensation is comprised of the following:

22 Financial risk management

(a) Overview

The Company has exposure to the following risks from its use of financial instruments:

- credit risk
- liquidity risk
- foreign exchange risk
- interest risk
- commodity price risk

This note presents information about the Company's exposure to each of these risks, the Company's objectives, policies and processes for managing and measuring risk, and the management of capital.

Management has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the risk management framework.

The risk management policies are established to identify and analyze the risks faced by the Company, to set appropriate risk limits and controls, and to monitor risks and adherence to limits. Risk management policies and systems are reviewed regularly to reflect changes in market conditions and the Company's activities.

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligation, and arises principally from cash, trade and other receivables (excluding sales tax), and non-current receivables.

Cub Energy Inc.For the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017*Notes to the condensed consolidated interim financial statements

(Unaudited, expressed in thousands of US dollars)

The Company's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer. However, management also considers the demographics of the Company's customer base, including the default risk of the industry and country in which customers operate, as these factors may have an influence on credit risk. The Company was impacted by a gas trading customer during the year ended December 31, 2017 as the creditor is making periodic payments towards its debt over a longer period of time than expected (see Note 9(ii)). The Company manages its credit risk by holding its cash with high credit quality Canadian, US and Ukrainian financial institutions.

The following table identifies the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk:

As at		June 30, 2018		December 31, 2017
Cash	$	5,264	$	6,190
Trade and other receivables (excludes sales tax)		527		392
Non-current receivables		1,028		1,257
	$	6,819	$	7,839

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company manages its liquidity risk by forecasting cash flows and anticipated investing and financing activities. Officers of the Company are actively involved in the review and approval of planned expenditures.

The Company ensures that it has sufficient cash on demand to meet expected operational expenses, including the servicing of financial obligations. This excludes the potential impact of extreme circumstances that cannot reasonably be predicted, such as natural disasters and the ability of the Company to get funds from Ukraine due to uncertainties in Ukraine related to dividend restriction policies.

The Company has $3,000 in shareholder loans. See Note 11. As at June 30, 2018, the Company had current assets of $6,730 and had the following financial liabilities:

	As at June 30, 2018
	Carrying Amount		Contractual Cash Flows	< 1 year
Trade and other payables	$ 4,459	$	4,459	$ 4,459
Shareholder loans	2,995		3,000	3,000
Loan from KUB-Gas	3,537		4,268	-

Provisions	417		-	-
	$ 12,546	$	12,865	$ 8,597

(d) Foreign exchange risk

The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk primarily related to operating and capital expenditures, denominated in currencies other than the US Dollar, which is primarily Canadian dollars and Ukrainian Hryvnia. The following financial instruments are shown in US Dollars:

Effect of +/- 10% change in foreign exchange rate	$ (341)	$ 58	$ 2	$ (281)

(e) Interest Rate

The Company has a $2,000 shareholder loan (see Note 11) which is due to be repaid by January 31, 2019 with an annual interest rate of 12%. The Company also has a $1,000 shareholder loan (see Note 11) which is to be repaid in four equal quarterly installments between September 30, 2018 and June 30, 2019 with an annual interest rate of 6%. The Company's interest rate risk is limited as it does not have any variable interest bearing financial instruments.

(f) Commodity price

The Company is exposed to risks due to fluctuations in the price of natural gas in the Ukraine. The domestic gas price within Ukraine is set by the National Electricity Regulatory Commission of Ukraine and historically referenced to the Russian imported gas price. More recently, the Company believes the natural gas prices in Ukraine are starting to reference market prices. The Company has no commodity hedge program in place which could potentially mitigate the price risk. During the six months ended June 30, 2018, KUB-Gas sold gas to its customers at an average price of $7.34 (2017 - $6.32) per thousand cubic feet. A 10% fluctuation in the average price of gas assuming the same quantity sold, would have impacted the Company's revenue from gas trading by approximately $110 (2017 - $100) per month.

(g) Capital management

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

The Company includes shareholders' equity, comprised of issued share capital, contributed surplus, warrants, accumulated other comprehensive loss and deficit in the definition of capital. As at June 30, 2018, the Company has total shareholders' equity of $8,531 (December 31, 2017 - $5,791). The Company's primary objective with respect to its capital management is to ensure that it has sufficient cash resources to fund its exploration and development work programs. To secure the additional capital necessary to pursue these plans, the Company may attempt to raise additional funds through the issuance of equity, debt or by securing strategic partners.

The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements and there has been no change with respect to the overall capital risk management strategy during the six months ended June 30, 2018.

23 Financial instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, trade and other receivables (excluding sales tax), non-current receivables, shareholder loans, loan from KUB-Gas and trade and other payables. The fair values of

Cub Energy Inc.
For the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017

(Unaudited, expressed in thousands of US dollars)

financial instruments other than cash approximate their carrying values. Trade and other receivables and trade and other payables approximate fair value due to the short term nature of the accounts. The shareholder loans approximate fair value due to the use of market rates of interest. The loan from KUB-Gas and the loan to CNG LLC also approximate fair value as they have been discounted with an interest rate comparable to current market rates.

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with the three levels fair value hierarchy as follows:

- Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly, and
- Level 3 – Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

The following table summarizes the carrying values of the Company's financial instruments:

- (i) Cash
- (ii) Trade and other receivables and non-current receivables (excludes sales tax)
- (iii) Trade and other payables, shareholder loans and loan from KUB-Gas
