CORPORATE OVERVIEW

Barolo was incorporated on June 13, 2006 and is an exploration stage public company whose shares trade on the TSX Venture Exchange ("TSX-V") under the symbol "BVC.H". The Company's stock had been cease-traded since October 4, 2016 for failure to file certain financial statements. The Company brought its financial reporting obligations up-to-date, and on August 3, 2018 the British Columbia Securities Commission issued a full revocation of the cease trade order. The Company was previously engaged in the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties in Canada and the United States, but currently does not have an active business, and is investigating new business opportunities. The registered and records office of the Company is 2200 - 885 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6C 3E8 and the principle place of business is 1600 - 609 Granville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V7Y 1C3.

On September 20, 2018, the Company changed its name from North American Potash Developments Inc. to Barolo Ventures Corp. and consolidated its common shares on a 1.75 old for 1 new basis (all share and per share amounts in the consolidated financial statements and this MD&A reflect the share consolidation).

During the year ended May 31, 2019, management decided to dissolve the Company's three US subsidiaries (BUA USA LLC, Potash Green LLC, and Potash Green Utah LLC). The majority of the assets and liabilities in these companies were intercompany loans, advances and investments that have now been written off. As such, there was no significant impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements aside from the loss on dissolution of the subsidiaries of $544,892 resulting from the derecognition of the Company's non-controlling interests.

MINERAL PROPERTIES

Hornby Basin Property - Northwest Territories, Canada

Pursuant to an option agreement dated July 1, 2006 and an amended agreement dated June 30, 2007, the Company acquired an undivided 100% right, title and interest in four mineral claims consisting of 10,330 acres located in the Great Bear Lake area of the Northwest Territories known as the Hornby Basin Property ("HB Claims"). The HB Claims are subject to a 2% Net Smelter Return royalty which the Company can buy down to 1% at a cost of $1 million.

As at May 31, 2011, the Company had spent the required expenditure up to October 2014 and continued to evaluate the timing of further exploration work on the HB claims. The Company has not conducted any work on the property in the past four years and during the year ended May 31, 2012, the property was written down to a nominal value of $1. As the Company has not spent the minimum required amounts to maintain its claims on this property and has no plans to do so, the claims have lapsed, and the property has been written off during the year ended May 31, 2019.

The operating results for the periods detailed in the table above largely reflect the on-going costs of maintaining a public company. The significant loss in the second quarter of 2019 related to the fair value of the 12,000,000 warrants issued with the October 2, 2018 non-brokered private placement. The fair value was determined to be $1,306,881 using the Black-Scholes pricing model under the following assumptions: risk-free interest rate - .75%; expected life - 1 year; expected volatility – 135% and expected dividends – nil. The $1,306,881 was subsequently reversed in the fourth quarter of 2019 as management determined that per the residual value method the value of the warrants is $nil. The income in the fourth quarter of 2019 also included gains on the write-off of certain accounts payable.

The expenditures in the current periods were significantly higher than the previous periods as the Company's cease-trade order was lifted and it now requires the services of a transfer agent. There were also additional costs and fees required by the Exchange and the BCSC associated with the revocation of the cease trade order, share consolidation and name change.

Travel expenses for the three and twelve months ended May 31, 2019 were $nil and $2,201, respectively compared to $nil and $nil for the same periods in the previous year. These charges were incurred for purposes of investigating new business.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Company is subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. The following discussion summarizes certain risk factors that apply to the Company's business. These risks and uncertainties are not the only ones facing the Company. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to the Company, or that the Company currently considers immaterial, may also materially adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations, or the trading price of the Company's common shares if any such risks actually occur.

An investment in the Company's common shares should be considered highly speculative due to the nature of the Company's existing business and operations.

The Company requires financing in order to maintain and continue its operations.

The Company's ability to continue will largely be reliant on its continued attractiveness to equity investors and its ability to obtain additional financing to maintain and grow operations. Failure to obtain sufficient financing may result in delaying, scaling back, elimination of, or indefinite postponement of, the development schedule and its current or future programs. Additionally, should the Company require additional capital to continue, failure to raise such capital could result in the Company going out of business. There can be no assurance that additional capital or other types of financing will be available if needed or that, if available, the terms of such financing will be favourable to the Company.

BAROLO VENTURES CORP. (formerly North American Potash Developments Inc.) MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS FOR THE YEAR ENDED MAY 31, 2019

From time to time, the Company may issue new shares, seek debt financing, dispose of assets, or enter into transactions to acquire assets or the shares of other corporations. These transactions may be financed wholly or partially with debt, which may temporarily increase the Company's debt levels above industry standards.

The Company depends on the business and technical expertise of its management team.

The Company is dependent on the business and technical expertise of its management team. If it is unable to rely on this business and technical expertise, or if any of the expertise is inadequately performed, the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Company could be materially adversely affected until such time as the expertise could be replaced.

The Company's share price is expected to be volatile.

Securities of micro- and small-cap companies have experienced substantial volatility in the past, often based on factors unrelated to the companies involved. These factors include macroeconomic development globally and market perceptions of the attractiveness of particular industries and location of the assets. The Company's share price is expected to be volatile and will be affected by the Company's financial conditions or results of operations as reflected in its liquidity position and earnings reports.

Other factors unrelated to the Company's operations and performance that may have an effect on the price of the Company's shares include: the lessening in trading volume and general market interest in the Company's securities may affect an investor's ability to trade significant numbers of shares; the size of the Company's public float may limit the ability of some institutions to invest in the Company's securities; and a substantial decline in the price of the Common Shares that persists for a significant period of time could cause the Company's securities to be delisted further reducing market liquidity.

As a result of any of these factors, the market price of the Common Shares at any given point in time may not accurately reflect the Company's long-term value. Securities class action litigation often has been brought against companies following periods of volatility in the market price of their securities. The Company may in the future be the target of similar litigation. Securities litigation could result in substantial costs and damages and divert management's attention and resources.

The Company is subject to risks presented by fluctuations in exchange rates.

The Company publishes its financial statements in Canadian dollars. Substantially all of its expenses are denominated in Canadian dollars and the US Dollar. Any significant fluctuation in the exchange rates between the Canadian dollar, and the US Dollar may have an adverse impact on its results of operations and may adversely affect the value of its revenue and net income.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Fair Value

The Company's financial instruments include cash, receivables, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

Cash and receivables are classified as amortized cost. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities are classified as amortized cost. The fair values of these financial instruments approximate their carrying values because of their short-term nature and/or the existence of market related interest rates on the instruments.

The Company's financial instruments are exposed to certain financial risks, including currency risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk and commodity price risk. The Board approves and monitors the risk management processes.

Financial Risks Factors

The Company's risk exposure and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

I. Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in obtaining funds to meet its obligations. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient funds to meet liabilities when due. As at May 31, 2019, the Company had a cash balance of $162,715 (May 31, 2018 - $117) to settle liabilities of $44,992 (May 31, 2018 - $392,815). Management believes that the Company has sufficient liquidity to meet its operational requirements for the next fiscal year, mitigating the Company's liquidity risk for the near term. All of the Company's financial liabilities have contractual maturities of 30 days or due on demand and are subject to normal trade terms.

II. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will not fulfill some or all of its obligations, thereby causing the Company to sustain a financial loss. The Company is exposed to credit risk with respect to its cash position and receivables. The Company's cash is held in a major Canadian financial institution which is considered to have high creditability. The Company's receivable is from a government agency thus the collection is considered assured. The Company believes it has no significant credit risk.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MAY 31, 2019

III. Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk, and other price risk, which are discussed further below:

a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in market interest rates. The Company has cash balances and no interest-bearing debt. The Company's current policy is to invest excess cash in short-term deposit certificates issued by its banking institution. Due to the short-term nature of these financial instruments, fluctuations in interest rates do not have a significant impact on their fair values as at May 31, 2019 and 2018.

b) Currency risk

ADOPTION OF NEW ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

The accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are consistent with those applied and disclosed in the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended May 31, 2018, except for the adoption, on June 1, 2018, of IFRS 9 (disclosed in Note 2(i) on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended May 31, 2019), and IFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("IFRS 15"), both of which have an initial application as at this date .

IFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers

IFRS 15 specifies how and when an IFRS reporter will recognize revenue as well as requiring such entities to provide users of financial statements with more informative and relevant disclosures. The standard provides a single, principles based five-step model to be applied to all contracts with customers.

The adoption of IFRS 15 had no impact on the Company's financial statements.

New Standards Not Yet Adopted

IFRS 16, Leases

The new standard requires the recognition of almost all lease contracts on a lessee's statement of financial position as a lease liability reflecting future lease payments and a "right-of-use" asset with exceptions for certain short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The new standard is likely to result in increases to both the asset and liability positions of lessees as well as reported depreciation expense and finance costs of these entities in the statement of profit or loss. The Company is currently evaluating the financial impact the new standard will have on its financial results.

IFRS 16 is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019, with early adoption permitted.

The Company does not expect there to be any adjustments as it does not have any leases.

IFRIC 23, Income Taxes

New standard to clarify the accounting for uncertainties in income taxes. The interpretation provides guidance and clarifies the application of the recognition and measurement criteria in IAS 12 "Income Taxes" when there is uncertainty over income tax treatments. The interpretation is effective for annual periods beginning on January 1, 2019, with early adoption permitted.

Due to the Company dissolving its subsidiaries, the Company could be subject to penalties for failure to file tax returns for its subsidiaries. The Company has not measured the potential impact of these penalties. Any liabilities will be booked once the Company can reasonably measure them.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES, ASSUMPTIONS AND JUDGEMENTS

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the year in which the estimates are revised and in any future years affected. Uncertainty about these estimates, assumptions and judgments could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future years. Information about critical accounting estimates, assumptions and judgments are detailed in Note 2 (d) of the May 31, 2019 audited consolidated financial statements.
