You will usually pay brokerage fees to your dealer if you purchase or sell shares or units of the investment funds on the Toronto Stock Exchange or other alternative Canadian trading system (an “exchange”). If the shares or units are purchased or sold on an exchange, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying shares or units of the investment fund and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them.

There are ongoing fees and expenses associated with owning shares or units of an investment fund. An investment fund must prepare disclosure documents that contain key information about the funds. You can find more detailed information about the funds in the public filings available at www.sedar.com. Investment funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.
